War Veterans Stand with ROOSEVELT

For Speedy Victory
For Lasting Peace
For Full Employment

"The fruits of victory this time will not be apples to be sold on street corners."

—Franklin D. Roosevelt
To the millions of veterans of World War I and World War II, the dominant questions for decision in this election are:

1. The continuance of effective military and naval command — without political interference; and

2. The building of a lasting peace.

Veterans have seen our military and naval leaders in the field achieve unity of command for the victory that is fast approaching, with diplomatic support but without political interference and with magnificent organization for production on the home front.

They recognize that the making of peace is in progress — now — and is based upon the continued close co-operation of the United Nations in peace as well as war.

They want this war finished at the earliest possible date — with the least loss of life — and they want to know that their sons and grandsons will not have to fight all over again a generation hence.

That’s why they want a continuance of seasoned command and are unwilling, at this critical time in the World’s and in our Nation’s history, to risk leaving the job to inexperience.

That’s why they are for the re-election of President Roosevelt.
