

PACIFIC NORTHWEST HISTORY CONFERENCE PROGRAM SUMMARY

1956

FRIDAY, MAY 4: Registration at State Historical Building. 2 M: Trip to Fort Nisqually; Walter Schnackenberg, Jr., P.L.C., in charge. 4:30 PM: Open House State Historical Building. 7:00 PM: Banquet at Winthrop Hotel, - Northwest Indian Fashion Parade; address by Stewart Holbrook, Portland, nationally known author.

SATURDAY, MAY 5: Registration, Music Building, College of Puget Sound. 9:30 AM Panel Discussion, Recital Hall Music Building. Theme: "IMPORTANCE OF RESOURCES IN PACIFIC NORTHWEST HISTORY". Moderator, Merrill Burlingame, Montana State College. Panelists: W.A. Galbraith, Director Washington Dept. Conservation & Development; Marion E. Martz, Dept. of Geography, University of Washington; C. Brewster Coulter, College of Puget Sound.

10:30 AM: Panel Discussion, Auditorium Music Building. Theme: "INTER-RELATIONS OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES AND THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS TO REGIONAL HISTORY". Moderator, Willard Ireland, Provincial Archivist, Victoria. Panelists: Boyd Martin, University of Idaho; Ralph Thayer, State College of Washington, Dept. of Economics; Theodore Stern, Dept. of Anthropology, University of Oregon.

12:30 PM - Luncheon, Student Union Building, College of Puget Sound.

AFTERNOON PROGRAM IN TWO SECTIONS CONDUCTED SIMULTANEOUSLY.

1:45 PM: Section A, Student Lounge, Library Building. Part 1: "OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE REGIONAL HISTORIAN IN RESEARCH". Paper: "INDIAN CLAIMS RESEARCH: ITS SIGNIFICANCE FOR THE HISTORIAN OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST"; Francis D. Haines, Jr., State College of Washington. Comment: Click Relander, Yakima. Panel Discussion, "THE WRITING OF COMMUNITY HISTORY". Moderator, Jack Wright, Director of Bureau of Community Development, University of Washington. Panelists: Frank Musso, Roslyn; Dr. E.W. Guinn, Centralia; Miss Flaval Pearson, Chehalis.

Part 2: "PROPOSED COUNCIL ON REGIONAL RESEARCH". Presiding, Siegfried Rolland, University of Idaho. Meeting to consider the function of a permanent organization to encourage regional research and writing. Discussion of purposes, organization and objectives. Open to all interested members of the Conference.

1:45 PM: Section B. Audio-Visual Room, Library. Part 1: Panel "OPPORTUNITIES AND PROBLEMS IN PROGRAMMING NORTHWEST HISTORY ON T-V AND RADIO". Moderator, Keith Murray, Western Washington College of Education. Panelists: Kenneth Yeend, KCTS, Seattle; Kathleen Collins, Burnaby, B.C.; Erna Gunther, University of Washington. Part 2: Panel "WHAT MATERIALS CAN THE TEACHER OF PACIFIC NORTHWEST HISTORY USE, NOW?" Moderator, Dennis Strong, Everett Jr. College. Panelists: Milton Gold, Olympia; Elizabeth Gustison, Seattle. 4:15 PM: Reception C. P. S. Library. 4:30 PM: Meeting Steering Committee. 6:00 PM: Dinner Top of the Ocean. Presiding, John M. McClelland, Jr., Longview. Address, Miner H. Baker, Seattle First National Bank.

* * * * *

AN OUTSTANDING CONFERENCE PROGRAM FROM BEGINNING TO END. PLAN TO ATTEND.

4/11/56

CDF:

MFMc