

Nov. 13, 1914.

Women's Civic Improvement Club met in the library room with nine members present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Humphrey, minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. ^{TP} Treasurers report $3.95.

It was decided to have folders instead of year books this year as they would be less expensive. A committee, consisting of Mesdames Launse, Carlson, & Howell, was appointed to attend to the matter.

Plans for a play were discussed and the corresponding secretary was asked to send for a copy of "The Old Maid's Return". Roll call was responded to by names and authors of new books.

Mr. Balkema gave a very interesting review of the European War.

There being no further business it was moved and carried to adjourn.

Mrs. Launse
