Dear Mr. Janeck:

Enclosed please find a money order for Twenty-two Dollars ($22). The twenty dollars will, I think, pay off the principal of the note which was due in February. I hope that the two dollars will cover the interest. If not, please let me know and I'll send more to pay it. Did you receive the twenty dollars which I sent the last of February? I have received no receipt as yet, so wondered if it had reached you.

Sincerely,

Mary Frances Northland
