FUND RAISING DRIVE

Mr. Ernst stated that KIMA and Mr. Tom Bostic will donate $1,000. Mr. Bloxom stated that he had contacted Dick Croy of Pacific Northwest Bell and they will await a letter from Seattle. Pacific Power and Light Co. has put in a request for $1,000.00. Yakima Cement Products will let Mr. Noel know later and Cliff Ross will mail a check in today.

The following additional names were mentioned to contact. Bob Paisley, Warren Bean, Lovering tire and Jake Seiber. Mr. Ernst and Mr. Robertson will contact Mr. Seiber.

NAME

The following names were discussed for the name of the museum: Mr. Robertson suggested Yakima Frontier Museum. Others were Pioneer Memorial Museum, Yakima Memorial Museum, Yakima Valley Museum of the Old West. Mr. Lewis asked if the Yakima Valley Museum was connected with this museum and Mr. Martin stated that they are not but it is the feeling of a lot of people from the Yakima Valley Museum that some day the two museums could get together. Mr. John Bloxom moved that the name of the museum be the Yakima Frontier Museum, seconded by George Martin and carried. The name formerly Gannon Museum will be placed on all letterheads and advertising.

ADMISSION

The following prices were discussed:
Adults $1.00
Students (High School and College $.50
Groups under 12 years 15-25 cents (see below)
Adult groups - $.50
Children will be free (under 12) if accompanied by parents.
Mr. Martin suggested that children under 12 be charged 25 cents if not accompanied by parents. Mr. Hanson recommended that we decide group minimums.
It was recommended that a group be 10 people or more and must have reservations. Mr. Martin suggested a season pass for $5.00 be issued. This will be discussed at the next meeting.
