Dear Mr. Relander,

Thank you very much for your interesting letter and the enclosed clippings. Your forthcoming book, Drummers and Dreamers, sounds very good and, although we handle very few new books, sounds like something we would like to stock. When it is ready, please send us one copy for our inspection and then we will be able to tell how many copies to order and also about pictures etc. But until we see the actual production, we cannot be more definite.

We are placing your name on our mailing list and sending you a copy of our new Americana Catalogue No. 2 with our compliments. It was kind of you to send stamps but they are herewith being returned with our thanks. After reading the Catalogue, if you have any friends who collect this type of material and who might be interested in receiving a copy, we shall be glad to send them copies upon receipt of their names and addresses.

Thank you for contacting us. Hoping to have the pleasure of hearing from you again, I remain,

Cordially,

Richard Marshall
