Dear Mr. Relander:

A birthday or so ago I received a gift of a copy of your book, Drummers and Dreamers. At the time the book was purchased the local stationary store was out of autographed copies but you were kind enough to send a copy from Yakima along with your personal note which was very thoughtful indeed.

This very interesting book has prompted me to make a request. The Ellensburg Rotary Club would like very much to have you as a speaker on one of our Wednesday noon luncheon meetings on either the first two Wednesdays in February or the last two Wednesdays in March. I am not sure whether or not you accept invitations to speak to Service Clubs such as ours but we would certainly consider it a privilege to have you. Unfortunately we are in a financial predicament and cannot offer to reimburse you. We have an exceptionally ambitious program for a club of our size in the promotion and development of the Camp Illahee Project in the Teanaway Basin. As you may know this is a Camp which is being built entirely by donations and is for the Youth Clubs of the state and in particular the Yakima and Ellensburg and Wenatchee areas. Our funds have all gone into this project and we have asked other speakers to consider their services a donation to this project. We would like very much to hear from you and hope that you can find it possible to work this request into your schedule.

Yours very truly,

ROBERT A CASE, Program Chairman
Ellensburg Rotary Club

Dear Mr. Relander:

Thank you very much for offering to speak to the Ellensburg Rotary on March 19th. Your subject, the economics of the Yakima Reservation, sounds very interesting and we shall be looking forward to hearing and seeing you.

We will be pleased to have your Indian friends as our guests if you can arrange it. Anything you wish to do in regard to the program will be fine with us. I will invite the local people who are interested in this subject to be with us for that luncheon.

Yours very truly,

Robert A. Case

Dear Mr. Relander:

I am very sorry that I was unable to be at a Rotary meeting when you spoke to our club. I want to thank you very much for the excellent presentation that you made and I hope that I shall have the pleasure of hearing you myself before too long. The members tell me that the program was outstanding; one of our finest this year.

Yours very truly,

Robert A. Case
