Mr. Click Relander
Yakima, Washington

Dear Mr. Rielander:

You were kind to send me the pages from the newspapers telling of the preview and dedication of the new Yakima Valley Historical Museum. I had wished for the articles, but had failed to get them. Thank you very much.

It was a real treat to be among those receiving at the Museum, on the opening evening. Your remarks of welcome which I caught now and then, when my left ear heard more than my right, were so fitting, that, inwardly, I admired your dexterity in rising to the occasion.

On some occasion, when you are in Walla Walla, the very minor collection of the Daughters of the Pioneers - housed in my home - might interest you. Some Day we may have a small museum. Now we can take pride in telling all about your fine Yakima achievement.

Sincerely

June 22, 1957
