

Among those who were present at the funeral from out of the city were Mrs. Effie Hand Martin, Mrs. Otto Streissguth and Mrs. Adelaide King, of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Hayes and Miss Hayes, of Oshkosh; Kelsey T. Waters, Rockford, Ill.; Grant C. DeGroat, Springfield, Ill.; and George P. DeGroat, Indianapolis, Ind.

Whitmore—The obsequies attending the burial of the late Samuel Whitmore were held Wednesday, at 10 o'clock, from the residence, in the town of Fond du Lac, Rev. Sabin Halsey officiating. The services were largely attending. A trio composed of Mrs. C. L. Clements, Miss Eda May and Mr. John Wisnom rendered several vocal selections. The pall-bearers were Robt. Shields, H. McCourt, C. R. Anderson and P. Allard. The remains were interred at Rienzi cemetery.

Pride—Mrs. E. W. Pride, widow of the late Captain Pride, died at the hospital at Oshkosh at 12 o'clock Tuesday morning, and her death was caused by a stroke.

convincing proof that the order are out of order.

There is common sense often expressed. Root, the great wish in curing back, kidneys of the urinary to hold water, it, or bad wine or beer, necessity during the ordinary realized. If you need best. Sold

You may wonder and a sions to prevent a recurrence. It is to be noted, that one element of loss has not been entered up at all, that sustained by the general public. There were three principal sufferers by the strike, the miners, the operators and the public. It was on behalf of the latter that President Roosevelt made his appeal and won out. What the extent of loss to the public has been would be a difficult matter to estimate. Considered in this would be the difference between the normal price of fuel and the exorbitant figures, which it has been necessary to pay. In some instances factories have shut down on account of the strike and the loss occasioned in this way should also be taken into consideration. It is a mistake to consider only two parties to the matter at ended. The general public, or the party, has suffered
