Dear Mr. Relander,

Recently my husband and I had the good fortune to borrow and read your book "Drummers and Dreamers".

This book concerns some very good friends of ours, namely Buck Hyak Toot or as we knew him Johnny Buck and his son Frank and his ward Jimmy Hudson. I don't recall you mentioning this last but he was there!

Back in the early 40's my husband worked for The Milwaukee Blvd. at Priest Rapids and we came to know them and enjoy some of their dinners in the lodge.

We helped at the sheep camp where some of them worked during lambing season. We were very sorry to hear of the last prophet's death a few years ago.

I have written to the publishing house to obtain this book but to no avail. They can not obtain it and referred us to you. I was born and raised in Yakima and my father, perhaps you've heard of Max Luckenbach knew some of the Yakima Indians. Our interest is most sincere besides being friends as my husband is 4th generation Cherokee. Is there any way you can find one of these books for us. We would deeply appreciate it.

Sincerely
Mrs. M. F. Sheffstall
