Dear Mr. McGowan:

Upon my return from Yakima last evening, I found in the Postoffice a returned letter which I had written you last week notifying you of the road meeting yesterday. By mistake it was mailed to Yakima. If this was the cause of you being absent, I am very sorry.

We had a very fine meeting and some very interesting matters were gone into. We planned for a further meeting in January and we will see that you are better notified.

Very truly yours,

Z. O. Brooks.
