

© PHOTO BY GEO. ARNONE, EVERETT

CAPE FLATTERY—THE EXTREME NORTHWEST CORNER OF CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES

This aerial view, from 11,000 feet elevation, shows parts of the Olympic Peninsula: the Olympic National Park, Clallam County, and the Makah Indian Reservation. Puget Sounders, Inc., a non-profit organization, is instituted for the development of the Pacific Coast and Western Washington; to aid area defense; and enhance the scenic and recreational features for both residents and visitors. Map design and stationery by Puget Sounders, Inc., American Building, Seattle.