Dear Mr. Relander,

I am in receipt of yours, September 4th you wrote Mr. Shields regarding your promotion for Drummers and Dreamers.

We are always glad to help with special promotions of books especially when they are of local interest. Between ^{new} and the publication of Drummers and Dreamers we have two locally valuable books coming up, Nez Perce and The Columbia, and would therefore appreciate the help of your mailing list and thereby hoping to invite a different group of people.

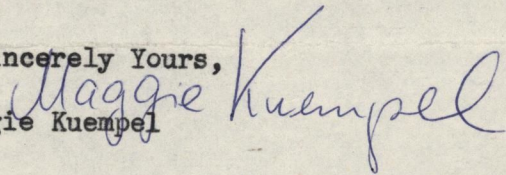

I think the idea of the free Quingley picture is excellent and I am sure that 10 copies of Drummers and Dreamers is a safe estimation.

We hereby commit ourselves to 10 copies and we are looking forward to your book and our work together.

I personally would appreciate a reading copy before publication if that is at all possible.

Sincerely Yours,

Maggie Kuempel

Dear Mr. Relander,

I am sorry I am so late thanking you for the mailing list. I have tried it out and found it very defective. I am working at it and it will be completed very shortly so that we will have it correct for future use.

I think everything takes time and so do mailing lists. By the time we get around to your publicity we should have a considerable list to work from. I also found that there is quite ~~aaa~~ a literary interest in this area which I believe will be good for you to know. I know to arrange a party next time will be much easier.

In the meantime, I remain,

Sincerely Yours,

Maggie Kuempel

Dear Mr. Relander,

You must think I am the most impolite person you have ever written to.

I do appreciate your efforts and thank you for your letter of March the 29th. I have not heard from Mrs. Robbins yet but maybe she feels as I do there is still quite some time to prepare for your DRUMERS AND DREAMERS.

As soon as you get the Indian situation cleared and your plans layed out we hope to hear from you so that we will be able to complete the campaign for you. These envelopes for the invitations will, of course, be supplied by us.

Hoping everything is going to your wishes and all efforts are going to pay off in the end, I remain,

Sincerely Yours,

Maggie Kuempel

Dear Mr. Relander:

I am really very embarrassed to tell you I cannot help you with your original list you once sent me. I had to revise the entire list then and what remained I threw away. I have now a list of 600 people and your contribution is somewhere among them. Most of these people are book minded and if you want me to chance 10 among them I shall be glad to give you their names.

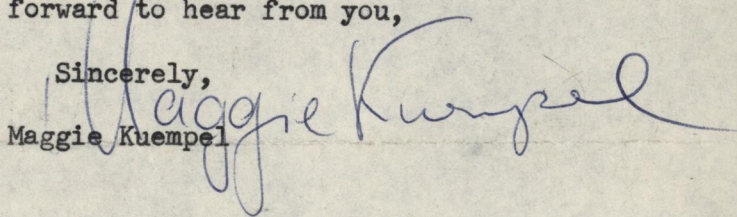

I am sorry to say I missed your speech. We had a backyard barbeque and I forgot all about it. I am sure you understand.

I noticed Oct. 18th is a Thursday and I think it would be wonderful if you can work it out. The Kiwanis Club meets on Thursdays also. I am glad it is still so far away it has the air of work.

Hoping you have good news from Mrs. Relander and do not drive yourself too hard, I am looking forward to hear from you,

Sincerely,

Maggie Kuempel

Dear Mr. Relander,

I am working hard to get our little party started, I have been teaming up with the Columbia Book Shop and we are trying to make it a worth while affair.

I am having great difficulties in obtaining the proper facilities. My last attempt is a room in the community house . If this fails it got to be in our store.

We also got to increase our order for the invitations. We need 1000 altogether I hope there are no difficulties in getting 500 more.

Mrs. Peck ^{for} the Columbia Book Shop and I would like to cancel all previous little orders and will have one large one with a worth while discount. Definite decisions on that subject as soon as we have been able to put everything on paper.

I received addresses from Mrs. Robins and I am real happy about it.

I also would like for you to contact either Mrs. Robert Hinman, Maxey's Trailer Court, Kennewick or Mrs. Phillip Cooke, 1810 Hunt, Richland, they may determine whether the Mid- Columbia Writer's Club is going to meet the first or the third Wednesday in October. That would, of course, largely depend on your willingness to speak to them on Wednesday the 17th. I have told them about your visit and the rest depends on you.

It's too hot to write anymore, hope to hear from you soon,

Sincerely,

Maggie

Dear Mr. Relander,

All efforts in vain thus we have to have the party in the store. Only this way Mrs. Peck cannot join me. With regard to the orders we still would like to make it one and then divide. Could you, please check how many you have ordered for us and the Columbia Book shop? We just want to have one order and then supply both Richland stores, Pasco and Moses Lake.

I am enclosing ~~the~~ the copy for the invitations and I would like to have 600 of them.

Hoping everything is going well and looking forward to your lines,

Sincerely Yours,

Maggie

Dear Mr. Relander,

I think everything goes its course and I surely do not envy you.

I received the books and that made me very happy. Caxton's have such good reputation in being late but this time they have proven they can do it.

To make the invitations correct we have ordered a stamp which I will sample at the end of this ~~last~~ letter.

I do not know exactly in which building the Pasco Women's club meets. Mrs. Robins told me some time back that they have the building opposite the Elk's Club. Since there are no problems with regard to distance I think you will have no difficulties with your little family. I shall try to get Mrs. Robbins on the telephone before you get here.

I shall take advantage of your advise and contact Mr. Van Arsdoll. Thank you for the $8.00 which I shall use. I do not know as yet how large the ad will be but I shall use it to its best advantage.

Looking forward seeing you and your gang until then,

Sincerely,

Maggie

Dear Mr. Relander:

We have need of one copy of your Drummers and Dreamers and do not find it listed in the Books in Print. Could you tell us how we can obtain it now. Or if you have a copy for sale would you please send us one?

Sincerely,
