

Libel Action

J.T. Harsell, editor of the "Hillsburgh Herald, has been arrested on a charge of libel and released on $500 bonds.

— times-Mountaineer, July 16, 1887

Freeman Libel Suit

In the libel suit instituted by E.M. Reed against Legh Freeman for libel the costs were taxed against the prosecution. A new trial has been asked for. Freeman is editor of the Yakima Farmer.

-- Portland Oregonian, Oct. 25, 1887