

Information concerning fruit growing in southern Idaho.

The Boise valley from Boise to ~~Elmer~~ Parma;

In what years or ever what period did the first commercial orchards go in?

What varieties went into the discard when the valley really found itself commercially.

During what years were the bulk of the commercial orchards of apples, pears, prunes and peaches planted.

Has there been much pulling out of orchards in the last five years or 10 years?

What is your idea of the future ~~Elmer~~ in the Boise valley (and Payette and Weiser valleys) of

Apple growing -

Pear growing -

Peach growing -

Cherry growing -

Prune growing -

If conditions differ materially in respect to any of the above questions as regards the Payette, Weiser and Council districts, kindly give them.

What about the Twin Falls district as a fruit section.

What is the status of pear growing, prune growing and cherry growing in southern Idaho?