

TIETON CANAL WILL BE RUSHED

That Much is Settled at Portland Conference--No
New Projects Can be Taken up Now.

A dispatch from Portland of August 3 says:

Secretary of the Interior Ballinger left for Seattle at midnight tonight after concluding the conference with the heads of the reclamation service held in this city. Before departing for the train Secretary Ballinger was urged to state what amounts had been appropriated for the various projects, but he declined, saying: "The announcement of the appropriations are made by my department quarterly. The next one will be October 1." In an interview tonight Director Newell stated that an effort will be made during the coming year to complete all the larger projects under way. Among those he mentioned were: The Tieton system, North Yakima, Wash.; the Boise system in Idaho, and the Minidoka system in Idaho.

The estimates made at today's conference are only rough estimates and will require considerable revision. When Secretary Ballinger determines the exact amount that the different projects will be allotted the figures will be given out. Secretary Ballinger inferred that this statement will not be given out before October 1.

He was asked whether the department would initiate any new projects within the coming year and although he declined to discuss this subject he said it was the plan of the department to complete and get onto a paying basis the projects now under way, so that they would bring some suitable remuneration for the sums of money which the government has already spent on them.

He also said that few of these projects are completed. From this and the previous announcement by the department that there is a scarcity of funds, it is inferred that the government intends to use every bit of available money to complete projects now under way, and the hope that there will be any projects initiated for 1910 is slight.

Secretary Ballinger was expected here in North Yakima on August 9 to confer with the local reclamation officials and look over the construction work being done on the Tieton and Sunnyside canals. It seems, however, that the secretary will be unable to keep his engagement here on that date and will not come here until after the adjournment of the irrigation congress at Spokane on the 14th, where he is billed to make an address.

It is clear enough now that the policy of the reclamation service under the stern hand of Ballinger will be against starting any new projects in ditch construction until those now under way are either finished or well nigh completed. This means earlier completion for the Tieton and Sunnyside canals, and that the Kittitas, Wapato and other projects will have to wait.

president to report the Dingley duties but Cannon kept up the contest. Finally, when the conferees had agreed to the president's demand for free hides, Cannon got them to demand the president's approval of a compromise on the glove schedule. The compromise was rejected but even after that a still further compromise was proposed.

The republican conferees have come very near wrecking the tariff bill altogether. Their insistence on the glove rates demanded by Cannon and Littauer and the duty on lumber demanded by certain western senators placed the bill in serious jeopardy and incidentally demonstrated to the leaders of the senate and the house that although he was big and good natured and apparently easy going, William H. Taft possessed a determination more dangerous to encounter once it was aroused even than that of Theodore Roosevelt.

The secretary of the navy is working on a proposition which is of a highly important character to the welfare of the navy. It is a broad plan of reorganization which will provide for the grouping of the various correlated bureaus in the navy department under experienced flag officers and the creation of a sort of naval cabinet to advise the secretary on all points which require technical knowledge for their correct determination. Under the present system, every new secretary of the navy finds himself face to face with problems of grave import which he is not and cannot be competent to solve. For advisors he has only the various chiefs of bureaus and often their advice is extremely conflicting. In the last nine years there have been seven secretaries of the navy and each in turn has had to go through the pre-emptory period, striving to solve problems of which he came into the department wholly ignorant, but the guidance of only common sense and perplexed by the conflicting assurances of officers, each of whom was prepared to back up his statements with arguments so technical in their character that only the initiated could weigh them intelligently. It is expected that the new plan will insure a continuity in naval policy which is highly desirable. In every improvement which receives the approval of Secretary Meyer the chief thought will be the efficiency of the fleet, a thought which Secretary Newberry was prone to overlook in his desire to secure "business like administration" of the navy yards. Generally speaking, the new plan will involve the abandonment of the Newberry plan of navy yard organization.

SPEAKER CANNON ATTEMPTS

TO DICTATE TO TAFT.

Would Hold Up Passage of Tariff Bill
Because the President Does Not Approve of Duty on Gloves.

Washington, D. C., July 29.—One of the most edifying spectacles of the tariff session has been that presented by Speaker Cannon actually sending threats to the White House, because the president would not approve the deal which Mr. Cannon made with former Representative Littauer for extortionate duties on women's gloves which Mr. Littauer, who is one of the largest glove manufacturers in the country, wishes to make without foreign competition at his plant at Gloversville, N. Y. When, at the beginning of the session, there was a threat to defeat "Uncle Joe" Cannon in the race for the speakership, and when a large number of republicans joined forces with the democrats to prevent the re-election of the Reed rules which made the speaker nothing short of a despot, Cannon sent for Littauer and made a hard and fast agreement with him that he should have prohibitive duties on women's gloves if he would save Cannon from defeat. Littauer, who is a liberal entertainer, achieved the task assigned to him with, as will be remembered, the help of a few Tammany democrats who turned traitor to their party in consideration of special favors which the speaker was in a position to grant. The ways and means committee met and the Payne bill contained the glove duties demanded by Littauer as the price of his assistance to the speaker. The house objected but was powerless under the rules to prevent the glove duties being adopted without defeating the entire bill. Influential members of the house immediately began work in the senate, however, to prevent the adoption of the glove duties there and were successful. The Dingley rates were adopted in the senate and the bill went to conference. Meanwhile, however, the president learned of the Cannon-Littauer trade and determined to defeat it.

When the tariff bill went to conference Speaker Cannon "packed" the committee against Representative Payne in order to insure the retention of the glove duties. But the president informed the conferees that he would never agree to any increase over the Dingley rates on gloves. Cannon went to the White House, after first telegraphing to Littauer to come to Washington and make the fight. The speaker told the president that he was an old man, that he had just one request to make and that was that he be permitted to keep his promise to Littauer. The president was thoroughly disgusted that such a trade should have been made, that the people of the country were to be compelled to pay tribute to Littauer for the far from meritorious privilege of having Cannon speaker of the house. He told Cannon so very plainly. That did not silence the speaker, however. He has been making political deals all his life and was absolutely unable to see anything improper in his conduct or to grasp the president's meaning. He never ceased his fight. The conferees promised the

A Float for the Parade at National Irrigation Congress at Spokane.

If the 50,000 club can raise the money North Yakima will be represented in the parade with a float at the National Irrigation Congress at Spokane, August 12. At the meeting held Tuesday in the rooms of the Yakima Commercial club a committee for raising the fund was appointed with Secretary Roney as chairman. He is now calling upon business men of the city in an effort to get the necessary amount, which is about $100.

Prosser with a delegation of about 25 will have a float; Zillah with the same number will also be represented by a float, and North Yakima, it is reported by the committee on representation, will have close to 75 delegates.

Dr. Granville Lowther and J. L. Hughes were appointed as delegates to represent the 50,000 club.

The pennants to be carried in the parade have been received and were on display at the meeting of the club yesterday. The color scheme is black and orange with the words, "Yakima Valley," appearing in black. J. L. Hughes is chairman of the pennant committee and has charge of the flags.

Helps the Sportsmen.

County Auditor Wilbur Crocker will help the sportsmen of the county in procuring licenses in their home towns. The hunters' licenses are being sent to various merchants in the towns outside of the county seat where they can be obtained by anyone who desires them. Amundson Bros. of Sunnyside and Kunz & Hartz of Mabton now have the licenses at their disposal in their respective towns. Other merchants who so desire will be furnished the blank licenses.

Good Crop of Pears.

The first carload of pears from the Yakima valley this season was shipped out Wednesday. The pear crop this season will be about the size of that of last season. The first picking is of Clapp's Favorites but the Bartlett pears are expected in fair quantities the first of next week.

Dr. Cerswell, of Toppenish, Is Made Chief Deputy for Section Below the Gap.

County Health Officer Dr. P. Frank has, with one exception, completed his appointments of deputies, the only city left vacant being Sunnyside and an appointment for that city will probably be made tomorrow.

It has been the aim of the county health officer to pick the best men for the positions and he believes he has as efficient a corps of men as there is to be had in the county.

Dr. B. S. Cerswell, of Toppenish, who received his appointment this noon, is made chief deputy below Union Gap and will have supervision over the territory from the gap down as far as the county line.

The other appointments are: Mabel C. Merritt, chief office deputy; Dr. H. R. Wells, deputy on the Tieton, who is stationed at camp No. 1 and will have charge of the territory as far as the county line. Henry Sedge, deputy at Naches City and vicinity; Dr. Andrew McCracken, deputy at Zillah and vicinity; Dr. A. Alexander, deputy at Mabton and vicinity.

"In giving out these appointments," said Dr. Frank, "I am giving orders that the deputies carry out the instructions of the state board of health in all matters. We want a clean county. The county commissioners have told me to go ahead and use all the diligence at my command to see that everything is cleaned up properly and that is what will be done."

"Heretofore, there has been little, if any, organization and not much has been accomplished in securing sanitary conditions. With the organization perfected the men will go ahead and in a short time we will have as clean a county as there is in the country."

"The effort will not be confined to a single attempt at securing a clean county; with the conditions once well under control we will keep matters that way. 'Keep after them' will be the watchword."

"Understand, we do not intend to be too insistent with the people; that is, we will not attempt to do any forcing unless that becomes necessary. Our plan is to use moral persuasion. That is the policy I have been pursuing and I have met with nothing but the most hearty co-operation."

"Just give us a little time and we will show the people a clean county." Beginning next week, Dr. Frank will make a trip into the lower country and go over the situation with Dr. Cerswell, his chief deputy, after which matters in that section will be left mostly to the discretion of the supervisor of the territory.

The report of J. A. Jacobson, county superintendent of schools, has been submitted to the state superintendent. The report is for the past school year ending with the month of June and is very lengthy. The total cost of the schools to the county for the year was $350,000.

Prepare for Population of 40,000

At a meeting of the city council last Monday night, City Engineer Doolittle was instructed to prepare plans and specifications for the installation of a municipal water works system to cost $300,000.

SUPT. HAAZE RETIRES FROM POST

Asks Secretary Newcomb to be Relieved at Once--
Will do His Best for the County.

E. J. Haaze has tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Yakima county building at the A.-Y.-P. exposition. The resignation was received by W. B. Newcomb, secretary of the county A.-Y.-P. exposition committee, Wednesday and will be acted upon at the regular meeting of the committee Friday of this week. It is expected that Mr. Haaze will attend the meeting.

The resignation is the culmination of a friction among the county representatives at the exposition. There has been more or less trouble since the opening of the fair in June, but it was hoped by the county committee that things would be adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned. Mr. Haaze evidently made up his mind to resign quite suddenly, as his intention to do so was unknown to R. K. Tiffany, another of the county representatives, who is over from Seattle on a short visit. The news came to him as a surprise.

Will Continue to Boost.

In his letter to Secretary Newcomb, Mr. Haaze asks to be relieved not later than Sunday and makes it plain that he will not change his mind. He states that he will continue to do everything in his power to help the Yakima valley, but not as a member of the county delegation at the fair. Mr. Haaze was appointed superintendent in April and assembled the exhibits which were sent to the exposition from here.

The county committee will probably select a successor to Mr. Haaze at the meeting Friday.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES WILL MEET AT PORTLAND

Portland, Or., Aug. 6.—(Special).—Conventions of more than usual interest to the whole Northwest will be held here the middle of August. The American Association of Farmers' Institute Workers will gather here for the 14th annual meeting on August 16 and 17. The Association for the Promotion of Agricultural Science will meet here August 17 and the Association of American Agricultural Colleges will hold the 23rd annual convention here on August 18, 19 and 20. The conventions will deal with scientific agriculture and improved methods will be discussed thoroughly. Able authorities on these subjects will speak. Many will be in attendance from all parts of the United States.

The meetings will be held in the convention hall of the Commercial club. Following the final session on Friday the visitors will be taken by special train on a trip through the Willamette valley as guests of the Commercial club. The hop, prune, walnut and other leading crops of the district will be seen. Corvallis will entertain the delegates over night. On the following day a similar trip will be made to Hood river where the extensive apple orchards will be inspected.

been lifted in a few weeks from 10 to 20. The price of hops is soaring and the advance means money in the pockets of the Northwest growers. A repetition of the stirring days of 1904 in the hop trade is promised. Brewers of the world are said to be facing a serious shortage of hops. The market in Portland has been lifted in a few weeks from 10 to 20 cents. Even old hops command good prices. Offers of 13 cents have been made for the 1908 crop, that a few weeks ago went begging for 5 cents. Short crops in England and Germany are reported to be boosting the price.

Assistant Postmaster Hough of North Yakima, who is now on his vacation, is to receive an increase in salary from $1400 to $1500 per year. Bellingham, North Yakima, Vancouver, Centralia, Chehalis, Colfax, Ellensburg, Bremerton and Wenatchee all participate in the increase the assistant postmaster in each office receiving a raise of $100 per year.

LET COUNTY CONTRACTS.

Several contracts will be awarded by the county commissioners at their regular meeting Thursday. Bids will be opened on the Mabton wagon bridge, on graveling a mile of road on Nob Hill and a mile at Sunnyside, replanking the Nelson bridge across the Naches river, rip rap work on the Wapato bridge and grading Cemetery road near Zillah.

Mr. Doolittle said that plans will be made for a system large enough to supply a city of 40,000 population. The engineer's report will be heard at the next council meeting.

Articles of incorporation have been filed of the Pettijohn contracting company of North Yakima. The capital is $9000 and the incorporators are W. W. Pettijohn, R. S. Bush and A. L. Johnson.

THE YAKIMA EXHIBIT

The Yakima exhibit at the Seattle exposition needs fixing and it needs it right away.

The fixing required is clearly along the line of additional exhibits from the orchards, gardens and fields of the county. The paucity of the showing now made, it is needless to say, is the cause of the feeling of disappointment that nearly every Yakima visitors experiences
when he or she goes to look over the Yakima representation at Seattle's big show. An artistic building, erected at a cost of $10,000, with but little in it to attract the attention of an every day throng of sightseers can hardly be considered a good advertisement for Yakima county, which we all know has a reputation to maintain.

The fault in the organization appears to be at this end of the line. The representatives of the county on duty at the exposition seems to be doing all that they can do with what material
they have to work with, but they say that they cannot get the exhibits from home that they need. What has been sent in the way of new fruits and vegetables has been small in quantity and being of a perishable nature has not lasted long.

Plenty of new stuff from this time
on, of a quality that will command admiration, can be secured and should be sent on at once. And this is a matter that every resident of Yakima county should take some interest in. If you have anything fit for exhibition purposes or know of anything that your neighbor has, box it up and send it in.
Fruit is by no means the only thing

wanted. Fine specimens of potatoes,
corn, cantaloupes, watermelons, hops,
alfalfa, timothy, growing grain and numerous other products can now be obtained and such samples are badly needed in both the Yakima exhibits at the fair.

The best portion of the great fair is yet to come. It furnishes us the greatest opportunity to advertise the Yakima county that we have ever had. Let us put up many fine samples of what we can and do produce for the army of visitors at the fair to see, for seeing,
mind you, is believing.

Those who have no disposition to help
have no right to criticize, although there are plenty of people perhaps who insist upon that privilege. There has been talk and criticism enough. All that is needed now is the stuff to exhibit and plenty of it.

HOW TARIFFS ARE MADE.

It is the popular impression that a tariff is the slowly worked out product of protracted congressional inquiry and matured thought. This impression is confirmed by long and apparently earnest senatorial debates over one or another schedule. The people who sat in the senate galleries a few weeks ago and listened to the elaborate discussion of the wool and woolen schedule thought they saw how tariffs are made.

That was a great mistake. The senate in adopting the schedule it did merely ratified one which had been agreed on months before by outside parties. Last October east and west met in Chicago.
The manufacturers of woolen goods of one region and the wool growers of the other came together to agree on the wool and woolen duties of the tariff law
which they assumed would be passed the following year. Their conclusion was that the Dingley law rates should be re-enacted. That having been settled, nothing was left but to notify congress quietly after it should have been elected and had convened.

The elaborate hearings before the ways and means committee were a farce. The wool and woolens schedule was then res judicata. The senatorial debate was a sham fight. As the president of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers says, "This entire discussion is unnecessary and absurd."
After the real tariff makers had decided what the duties were to be why spend time in talk?

If the allied eastern and western interests had seen fit they could have ordered congress to raise the duties, and presumably it would have done so. It may be that the public should be thankful for their moderation. But what a legislative mockery it is when a few men get together in private, make out tariff schedules to suit themselves, and then direct congress to make it a law.

Now we begin to understand how tariffs are made.—Chicago Tribune (republican).

A CHALLENGE TO OPEN THE BOOKS.

In a letter to Senator Lodge, W. C.
Hunneman, a manufacturer of carded
wool, challenges the republican managers to make public the contributions which the woolen interests made to the republican congressional campaign fund.
"If you will not grant the demand that the list be published, why not?" asks
Mr. Hunneman of the senator from Massachusetts.

It was inevitable that this question would be raised sooner or later in the tariff fight. Although the republican national committee, through the influence of Mr. Taft, made public its contributions and expenditures, there was no publicity in regard to the money collected by the congressional committee.

Here was the same old opportunity for barter and trade, the same old secrecy under which the republican party
for years has trafficked in tariff schedules and other special privileges.

Mr. Hunneman's suspicions may be ill-founded, but when a Roosevelt is found to have dealt with a Harriman,
when the Standard Oil company contributes $100,000 to elect a Roosevelt,
when the life insurance companies turn over $150,000 of their policy holders'
money to the republican campaign fund,
secrecy always justifies further suspicions.

Now that a crisis has been reached in tariff revision, with Mr. Taft and the people on one side and the republican reactionary leaders and the protected interests on the other, what must be thought of the republican congressional committee if it flouts the challenge to open its books?—New York World.

Our city dads have concluded that if North Yakima is to have a complete and satisfactory water system the city will be compelled to build a new one.
Therefore they have given City Engineers Doolittle authority to provide the plans. This is the line of policy the Democrat advocated four years ago. If the corporation which owns the existing system don't care to sell out there is nothing else for the city to do.

There is a pathetic side to the great rush for land on the newly opened Indian reservations, which most people are perhaps inclined to overlook. The people want homes, or rather the land on which to make homes. Public land is getting pretty scarce in this country and what little is left in some of the Indian reservations homeless men and women are almost ready to fight for.

The A. Y. P. exposition is proving a heavy drain on the purses of Yakima people, but we guess they don't begrudge the money they spend in doing the big show. Two weeks of thoughtful attendance at the fair is a liberal education for many people, if they can afford to spend the time and money.

The A-Y-P. officials recently entertained the same day four governors:
Hughes, of New York; Johnson, of Minnesota; Glasscock, of West Virginia, and last but not least, our own Gov. Hay, or "acting" governor, as the Seattle Times persists in calling him.
And so it fairly rained governors. Besides there were doubtless in attendance
from this state many would-be governors.

Test Case Is Appealed.

The commissioner in the general land office at Washington has upheld the decision of the commissioner in the local land office here regarding the claims of those parties contesting the rights of other men to desert entries on land above the Sunnyside ditch. A test case was made of the Collett vs. Erwin case, in which the claims of the plaintiff were denied. The case will be appealed to the court of last resort in matters of this kind, the secretary of the interior. The land involved is of considerable value,
the contestants claiming that it is much better than arid land, under which designation it was subject to entry, and that the land be made agricultural land,
which would thus allow only 16 acres
to the present entrymen, instead of 320
as at present.

Shipping Bartletts.

W. P. Sawyer, the well known fruit grower of Parker, has begun his pear harvest and, as has been his custom for several years, is arranging to ship his product to New York, in which market his excellent pack rarely ever fails to command the highest price.

By his own experience Mr. Sawyer is convinced that New York offers the best and most lucrative market for Yakima fruits to be found anywhere in America on account of the huge demand for fruit there. The New York demand has largely heretofore been supplied from the south, particularly Georgia. Mr.

Sawyer is desirous of having other Yakima growers ship their fruit products direct to New York in order that the local product may make a better showing in that vast market, thereby acquiring there the reputation for superiority that it enjoys in many of the centers of the middle west.

Prices of Hops Soaring

Oregon lumbermen will participate quite generally in the semi-annual meeting of the Western Pine Manufacturers' association at Spokane on August 9. The program is an interesting one and many will go from this state.
Among the speakers will be Gifford Pinchot, United States forester. Conservation and reforestation are subjects that will be discussed and are of general interest to lumbermen.

Lumber Men to Meet

Jacob Kamm, pioneer steamboat man,
who built the first stern-wheel steamer on the Willamette river, is making plans to put a line of steamers on the Upper Columbia and Snake rivers. He expects to put the steamer Norma in commission above Celilo and the Undine on the lower end of the route. It is thought large quantities of wheat will be secured on the run up the river to Lewiston.

Midway Will Be Live One

The Midway, which was a big attraction to pleasure lovers last year at the Spokane fair, is going to be a live wire
this year, September 20 to 25, according to the list of attractions already booked by the fair management. The attention of the police of Spokane to undesirable characters for some weeks previous to the fair, however, makes the Midway what the fair management designed it, a place for innocent and harmless amusement, with just the spice
that is given by clever spielers.

Jones Favors Income Tax

Senator W. L. Jones has asked Gov.
Hay to use his influence with the coming special session of the legislature to ratify the proposed income tax amendment to the constitution. Senator Jones favors the proposed tax and thinks that if the legislature would ratify it, Washington would have the honor of being the first state in the union to take such action.

INAUGURATE A "MADE IN WASHINGTON" CAMPAIGN

Seattle Chamber of Commerce Will Familiarize People of State With Home-Made Products.

Seattle Wash., Aug. 6.—In its efforts to build up commercial interest of the while state, the Seattle Chamber of Commerce has inaugurated a "Made in Washington" campaign, which will be started at once. The purpose is to familiarize the people of the state with home-made products and to encourage them to make a more liberal use of things made in Washington. Some years ago, the local Chamber took this means for creating a demand for Seattle-made goods by setting aside the last Saturday in August as the special day for advertising them. So successful was the undertaking that now it is proposed to give the entire state the benefit of the campaign. Accordingly, all the commercial organizations in Washington are requested to join in the campaign. On that day merchants will make a specialty of pushing home-made goods. By calling the attention of their customers to them, the traffic will be stimulated and a demand built up. The movement is a patriotic one and worthy of success. The official announcement is contained in Pacific Northwest Commerce for August, the Chamber's official bulletin, which also runs a complete directory of the commercial organizations of the state.

Governors' Week at Exposition

This is Governors' week at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. The management is entertaining Gov. Charles E. Hughes of New York, Gov. J. A. Johnson of Minnesota, Gov. E. F. Noel of Mississippi, Gov. W. E. Glascock of West Virginia, Gov. A. E. Wilson of Kentucky, and Gov. M. E. Hay of Washington. Special entertainment has been arranged for each of the notable visitors, who have been attracted by the success of the great Northwestern exhibition.

Special Election in Second District

Gov. Hay has announced that a special election will be held in the Second district, to fill the congressional vacancy, caused by the death of Francis E. Cushman. The governor says he will consult with legislators at the coming special session, as to the passage of a bill providing for the manner in which nominations shall be made.

HE MAKES A PLEA FOR BETTER COUNTRY ROADS

J. L. Grainger Believes It to Be Poor Policy to Take Strangers Out Over Our Roads as They Are at Present.

North Yakima, Aug. 1, 1909.

The Yakima Democrat, Gentlemen: I notice in The Democrat of July 31 the announcement of 120 people coming from the East and Southeast and expect to stop off at North Yakima for a short time.

Mr. O. N. Creffs suggests they be treated to an auto ride through the town. I suppose the country near town. Now, that is just the thing not to do. I am just recovering from a roasting I got for having some people who were looking over the country with a view of locating themselves homes.

They were dragged through these roads for a few miles and became, as most people will, disgusted with the whole country. I have been over the most of the roads in the best part of the United States and some other countries and I can say without any fear of contradiction, we have the worst roads around Yakima of any place that makes any pretensions of any place I have ever seen.

I have been in this place many times during the last 40 years and the roads here, as well as some of the streets in North Yakima are in a worse condition now than ever before. We all have to acknowledge that the county roads get worse every year. The class of work done on the county roads is only a detriment to the roads. A great many places they have hauled boulders onto the road and in order to make a road in such places it will require a great deal more work now than it would have otherwise.

I think it is too often true that road overseers are selected from material that is good for nothing else.

Near where I am writing the county put in last summer a short piece of what I suppose they call macadamized. If it had been done properly it would have been all right, but it has been there about one year now and people drive along the side of the thing in the gutters on either side of the road. I have seen a great deal of fine road made that has lasted at a reasonable cost and for a place where there is as much money collected as there is here to have such roads as we have it is a thing to be well ashamed of and it is a knock to Yakima. Take a person from a place where they have good clean roads and drag them through this dust and grind over the boulders they have put in the roads and you will get rid of them pretty sure. There has been lots of talk about inducing people to vote a good road tax.

I don't think there is any trouble in getting every taxpayer to vote for a liberal fund for good roads, but most of them will want to know how the money is going to be used; whether it will be wasted and the road made worse, as they have been so far.

Yours Respectfully,
J. G. GRAINGER,
R. 4, Box 138, North Yakima.

The Rights and Wrongs of Childhood

Science may cry—save the child for the sake of the future; religion—for the sake of God; education—for the sake of the people; democracy—for the sake of the state; industry—for the sake of efficiency. Conscience cries—save the child for its own sake. For the child is not only the trustee of the past and the hope of the future, but it is the living present, entitled to every protection and security and furtherance which man grants to man and as much more than is granted to man, as is required by the defencelessness of the child.—Stephen S. Wise, Ph. D., in the Pacific Monthly for August.

Chance for Growers Here

The premium list of the Spokane interstate fair, held this year September 20 to 25, looks like a generous one, with some new prizes added. Of special interest are these: To growers' irrigated tracts, $200; growers' nonirrigated tracts, $200; best display of standard varieties of apples, $300. There are many more new ones, information of which may be obtained from Secretary Robert H. Cosgrove.

Snow Removed From Office

Joseph M. Snow has been removed from the office of highway commissioner by Gov. M. E. Hay. The governor says that the best interests of the state's road system demanded a change in the office which Snow has filled since 1898. It is reported that there had been friction between the two officers. H. L. Bowlby will succeed Snow. He was formerly a teacher of engineering at the state university. He is closely identified with Samuel Hill, Samuel Lancaster and the good roads advocates in the state.

The Checking Account for the Farmer

Many farmers keep a checking account with us regularly because it is a great help and convenience in their every day business.

With a checking account you can tell exactly the total amount of your receipts and expenditures for each month for the entire year. When you sell your farm products, deposit your money in the Bank, subject to check. The obligations you have can be cancelled by check. When you make a purchase, pay by check.

We invite you to try this system.

LYONS LEAVES THE CITY

Deputy Accused of Assault and Battery Avoids Service of Warrant.

The arrest of Deputy C. E. Lyons, for whom a warrant was issued yesterday noon from the prosecuting attorney's office, up until 2 o'clock this afternoon had not taken place. It is given out by Sheriff Lancaster that Lyons left the city shortly after he is alleged to have had trouble with H. E. Prentice.

The warrant is now in the hands of Deputy Jack Kauffman but Lyons is not to be found. Where he is at present members of the sheriff's force are unable to learn.

Takes Away His Star.

Sheriff Lancaster took away Lyons' star Monday morning, he says, and volunteers the information that the officer's appointment was revoked July 29. Lyons, it is alleged, maliciously beat young Prentice over the head with a billy Saturday evening and a warrant for his arrest was issued on charge of assault and battery.

WHEAT PRICES KEEP UP.

September and December Options Sell Today at Over a Dollar.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—"Dollar wheat" became a reality on the board of trade today when December delivery sold at that figure during the early trading. December opened at $1.00 1/4 to $1.00 1/2 and declined to $1. September opened at $1.02 to $1.02 1/2, and dropped to $1.01 1/2 in the first few minutes.

Closing prices: Sept., $1.01 1/2; Dec., $1.00 1/4; May, $1.08 1/2.

Portland, Aug. 4.—Track prices: New crop club, 95; blue stem, 99 3/4; Red Russian, 93; Turkey red, 94 1/2; Forty Fold, 95 1/2.

CIRCUS HERE NEXT FRIDAY

Kenest Interest Manifested in the Coming of Ringling Brothers

"Ringling Day" will soon be here, so cheer up. The event means more this year than ever before, for the reason that the world's largest show is a great deal larger and even better than it was on its last trip to North Yakima.

When the big show trains begin to unload their wealth of world wonders next Friday and the army of workmen set up the 12 acres of tents, some idea of the magnitude of the institution may be had by those who watch the interesting spectacle of the building of a circus city.

The parade will take place at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and it will be the most elaborate street display ever seen in this city. There will be two performances, one in the afternoon and the other at night, and they will be given in detail exactly as they were presented at Madison Square Garden, New York, at the opening of this season. Not a thing has been changed since then.

The railroads are expecting a record-breaking crowd from the outlying country and are making plans accordingly. Those who wish to avoid the crowds on the grounds will do well to buy their tickets at the downtown office, which will be located at the store of the Pioneer Drug Co. Tickets of all kinds will be on sale there and the prices will be the same as charged at the regular wagons on the circus lot.

This is the chance of a lifetime for those who are fond of the circus form of amusement. There will never be another opportunity to see another array of acts such as given by the Schuman performing horses. Robidello the Mexican wire wizard, the double somersaulting automobile, the Arthur Saxon trio of strong men and the telephoning elephants.

$10 down and $10 a month gets a 5-acre orange farm and a city lot. See Mexico Land Co., 2 1/2 West Yakima Ave.

Many Delegates to Spokane

Reports have been circulated to the effect that private irrigation companies are going to do all in their power to block any move made towards government irrigation, at the irrigation congress at Spokane. Yakima will send sufficient delegates to attend to the interests of the Yakima valley, as this valley could not afford to lose the government's support in the various projects throughout the valley. It is thought that there will be in the neighborhood of 75 delegates and representatives from this section to the congress.

Brief Record of Local Happenings for the Week in North Yakima and Vicinity.

The will of George J. Bosdet, who died last Friday, was filed for probate last Saturday. The estate amounts to about $15,000, nearly all in real estate.

Alice J. Keene has brought suit for divorce from Charles A. Keene, on the grounds of inhuman treatment, alleging that he accused her of trying to steal his money.

George Tiesley and family left last Monday for a two weeks' outing in the mountains.

Mrs. T. L. Martin returned last Friday from Pasadena, Cal., where she has been attending her sister during the latter's illness.

A. B. Cline returned Sunday from Seattle, where he spent his vacation. Mrs. Cline and the baby are going to remain at Seattle for a time.

Phil Ditter and family returned from their outing at Soda Springs on the Big Klickitat last Sunday night.

D. L. Tucker and wife returned from their trip to the different cities on the Sound last Sunday evening.

Hon. A. J. Splawn left last Tuesday to join his wife for a short time at the fair. Mrs. Splawn has been over on the sound for the past six weeks.

Sid Houghton has closed the deal for the Kakima hotel barber shop, which he and W. W. Doty formerly owned.

Niek Hartung is spending his vacation in Seattle.

J. H. Brown, manager of the Yakima Gas company, who has been very ill for the past five or six weeks, is able to be around again, although he is still weak from his long confinement. He will take a trip East and visit his mother. Mr. Patterson is looking after the company's business in the absence of Mr. Brown.

Attorney McAuley of the firm of McAuley & Meigs, was in Grandview on business the fore part of the week.

Miss Verona Armbruster, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. P. M. Armbruster, returned Sunday evening from a ten days' visit in Kansas City and Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Miller left the city Tuesday on an extended visit. They will spend a short time at Hayden lake near Spokane and from there will go to Alberta, Canada, where they will visit Mr. Miller's brother, J. P. Miller, and wife.

Herman Jensen, the 14-year-old son of Oscar J. Jensen, had his hand caught in the electric saw at the Cascade mills last Saturday and is suffering from a badly injured hand as the result of the contact. The saw penetrated about one-fourth of the way through the bone in the palm of the hand which controls the little finger, which may have to be amputated, although the doctors are trying to save it.

O. A. Fletcher and H. J. Snively left for the sound country Tuesday. The trip was made in an automobile, driven by Harold Sharkey. The party will make a trip into the Paradise valley while over there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen of Stafford, Kan., are visiting with their son, who resides on Pleasant avenue.

Justice L. Z. Karr has ordered the payment of $67 principle and $7 costs to H. B. Gilbert by W. MacF. Stewart and wife of Outlook, this county.

Newell & Sargent of Toppinsh have brought suit to recover principle and interest on a promissory note amounting to $131.50 against John Roche.

George Listmann has returned from an extended trip in the East.

Eight young ladies will participate in the exercises given under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. at the Christian church Sunday evening. A silver medal is the award.

Carl Bodine and Dr. and Mrs. Courtwright were members of the party who left the city Monday to make an ascension to the peak of Mt. Rainier.

Dr. George Sloan and his brother, Duncan, left last Tuesday morning on a trip to Alaska.

Wong Sing, recently of Seattle, was fined $50 by Judge Wende last Saturday. Sing pleaded guilty, but through his interpreters said that he did not know that gambling was against the law. Wong was arrested in the raid on the front street joint.

The Sunnyside train is to carry the mails for Granger, Outlook, Sunnyside and Grandview, after August 9. These towns now receive their mail by Star routes, which will be done away with after the mail car is placed on the branch train.

William Lemay, of Mabton, was in the city a few days this week attending the sessions of the board of county commissioners.

Superintendent of Schools D. C. Reed, who has been spending the summer at the University of California, at Berkeley, Cal., will soon be home.

The Wahis were defeated by the Toppinsh Indians in last Sunday's game to the tune of 13 to 3. The game was interesting and caused lots of merriment, even though the Indians had it easy all the way through the game.

The Tigers had a big time at Ellensburg last Sunday. They had to play against the team, the umpire and the bleachers, and yet they won the game with a score of 5 to 1. Nelson took a bunch off the Ellensburg umpire that under ordinary circumstances would have landed that gentleman in the hospital. The treatment accorded the Tigers last Sunday goes to show what the Ellensburg bunch are when it comes to sportmanship.

Rev. Bywater and family are spending their month of vacation at and near Seattle.

The charges preferred against City Scavenger Stump at the council meeting Monday night, which resulted in that official being suspended temporarily by the mayor, on being investigated by the sanitary committee of the council, were found to be groundless. On this finding Stump was promptly put back on the job again, where he is giving the people good service.

The summer weather thus far in Yakima has been so cool and pleasant that it has been needless to look elsewhere for a more desirable climate. However, that fact has apparently had little weight in stopping the exodus to the sound, the exposition, of course, being the principal magnet that draws the crowd. Local financiers estimate that Yakima county people are spending at least $50,000 per month on the sound and seashore this year.

Robert Rundstrom, of the Coffin-Rundstrom Furniture company, returned Monday evening from his month's vacation trip to the East. Accompanying him home are Messrs. George H. and A. C. Johnson, prominent farmers of Henry county, Illinois, who are Mr. Rundstrom's guests for the present and who expect to look over the country.

City Attorney Frank J. Allen left Wednesday for Kaches lodge to spend a few days at fishing.

H. C. Lucas, vice president of the Yakima Trust company, and George J. Listmann, of the Listmann Furniture company, returned home the first of the week from a five weeks' visit in the East. Both gentlemen report a very pleasant trip and express the opinion that business generally is picking up throughout the East, and that as a result better times will be felt on this coast this fall. Mr. Listmann left again Tuesday for a visit to Seattle.

Fruit dealers are finding it difficult to supply the demands of the market for early apples. Some of the wholesale men could handle twice as many as they are at present if they could get the apples.

The Commercial club will be allowed to sell fruit from the fruit stand on the Northern Pacific platform in the future, Secretary James being notified to that effect last week. Arrangements will be made with the company to install a fruit stand in the new depot as soon as it is completed, by Mr. Donald.

O. A. Hall, J. P. Morrison, C. W. Smith and Geo. Rogers sent a signed statement to the Yakima Republic, which they asked that paper to print. The gentlemen wish it understood that they are law abiding citizens and not responsible for the threatening letters sent to the sheriff regarding his deputies in the city of Wapato.

A. L. Flint, wife and daughter, returned home the first of the week from a month's vacation spent in camping on Lake Kaches.

Mrs. Geo. Weikel and mother, Mrs. A. J. Chambers, are summering at Green Lake, near Seattle.

The current number of World's Work, which is devoted to the Pacific coast, gives the Yakima valley its share of attention.

The North Dakota party of land speculators which arrived here last Friday were highly pleased with the hospitality of the Yakima people, as well as with what they were shown in the way of orchards.

Dr. E. F. Chase has dissolved partnership with Mr. Goodenow and now has rooms 315 and 316 in the Miller building to himself. He is building up an excellent practice and makes a specialty of eye, ear, nose and throat troubles.

The fruit stand at the Northern Pacific depot has been turned over to the Yakima Commercial club and will hereafter be run under the direction of that organization. It will be the policy of the club to furnish passengers on the trains with the choicest of Yakima valley fruits at a very low price.

J. C. Plank, of Grand Junction, Colo., the inventor of an orchard heater, was in the city recently and while here stated that about half of the fruit in that section was saved during the cold snap last May by orchard heaters. Those who did not use them have no fruit crop to speak of.

Mrs. John Mechtel is reported very sick at Seattle, where she was spending a vacation. Mr. Mechtel left Wednesday for Seattle, accompanied by the family physician, Dr. G. J. Hill.

Texas Banker Dies Suddenly

J. M. Johnson, president of the Hidalgo State bank of Mercedes, Texas, died suddenly of apoplexy Sunday night at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Rightmire, of 506 South Sixth street.

Mr. Johnson was a delegate to the national conservation congress at Spokane and had stopped off here to visit his sister-in-law before going to the congress. His wife and daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. M. Johnson, and his little granddaughter were with him on the trip.

The remains were prepared for burial and shipment to Monroe City, Kan., by Flint & Shaw. The members of the party accompanied the remains to Monroe City.

Protest Denied

George Donald, as president of the Yakima & Valley steam railroad was before the city council by letter at the council meeting on Monday evening, protesting against the sewer assessment against lots 8 and 9, in block 44, of the city. The protest was denied and Mr. Donald will be asked to pay the amount assessed, $60.

Lyons Accused of Brutality.

Arthur Jamieson, a colored man, and Hubert Prentice, a young man employed by one of the contracting firms of the city, have consulted attorneys regarding the filing of suits for damages against the Northern Pacific as the result of the alleged actions of the company's special officer, C. F. Lyons, in making arrests.

Jamieson's complaint is that he was ejected from the platform by Officer Lyons while he had in his possession a ticket entitling him to transportation to Toppinsh. Prentice alleges that the officer used unnecessary and brutal force in arresting him last Saturday night, having received several cuts on the head. Prentice resides in the city and works for the firm of Thacker & Smith.

A warrant was issued by the city attorney's office upon Prentice's complaint but it was not served as Lyons was out of town on company business last Monday.

Climbing Old Rainier

Feats of daring and endurance marked the experience of the Mountaineers, who last Friday afternoon reached the uppermost peak of Mount Rainier's lofty summit with the largest party of any similar organization to make the ascent. Asahel Curtis, leader of the party, directed the climbing, aided in cutting ice steps and took photographs with one arm in a sling, while other members of the party, more than half of whom were women, endured many hardships as a result of the undertaking. Five of the members of the party of 62 have returned to Seattle, and the remainder of the party will return to the city next Saturday. While at the top of Mount Rainier the party planted the pennant of the suffrage movement and the banner of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. At many places a trail had to be made by the advance guard of the party.—Post-Intelligencer.

War Dances at the Fair

There will be an Indian village at the Spokane fair this year, September 20 to 25, that will be the real thing. More than 100 braves and squaws of the Kallispells, Flatheads, Spokanes, Kootenai and Sau-Poel tribes will be formed into an encampment by William M. Nolan, who has a wide acquaintance with Indians, gained during 16 years of

CONVICTS TO MAKE ROAD MATERIALS

Olympia, Aug. 3.—(Special to the Republic.)—State rock crushing plants were formally located today at North Yakima and Dixie on the east side and at Deception Pass and Meskillen on the west side. These locations were favorably reported by the state geologist and the selections were approved this morning by Highway Commissioner Snow, who is still holding that office. Bowsby, the new commissioner, having so far failed to qualify. The state board of control will at once complete contracts for installing the rock crushing plants and make arrangements to operate the same with convicts from the penitentiary. The crushed rock manufactured will be used on state roads and will be sold also to cities and counties for highway improvements at actual cost.

The site for the quarry where the rock crushing plant will be located is in the Selah gap, about five or six miles from this city. All the preliminaries have been completed and the site is ready for the state to go to work on. It is understood that the crusher which has already been purchased, will be shipped in without delay, and that the state will at once proceed to erect stockades for the convicts who will be employed on the work.

About 75 persons will be employed at the quarry. There will be a number of men on the work besides the convicts, including the guards and those who direct the labor.

Pleased With Yakima.

Miss Margaret Medill of Moline, Ill., en route to Seattle and Honolulu, where she expects to spend the next year in educational work, stopped off at North Yakima Wednesday for a day's visit with her brother, J. D. Medill. This is her first visit to Washington and she was much impressed by what she saw in her brief stay here. Miss Medill will visit the exposition with Seattle friends and will sail from Vancouver, B. C., to Honolulu August 13.
