Make No Mistake. When You Buy a Wagon
Buy the Best.

The Studebaker Mountain Wagon

Has no equal. The Standard Wagon of the world today. No other wagon equals it in capacity, quality of material used, or lightness of running.

Remember when you buy a 3 1/2 inch Studebaker you get the equal in capacity to any other 3 1/2 inch wagon made. Do not overlook this fact. It's worth money to you.

A new carload of Studebakers just in. Let us fit you out with the best.

WILL EXTEND The BIG CANAL TO PROSSER

Washington Irrigation Company to Open
Up 20,000 Acres of the Choicest Land in the Valley---Prices to be $50 to $70 per Acre.

As the REPUBLIC stated several months ago, the Sunnyside canal is to be extended this season to Prosser.

Stobie & Mathieson, the Sunnyside contractors, have just been given a contract to build the first mile of the extension. They were offered more, but hesitated to take it at the price stipulated.

They will commence work at once. The Post-Intelligencer Wednesday morning printed the following regarding the extension:

"Within a few days the Washington Irrigation company will begin the work of extending its main canal from what is known as the 'forty two mile post' to the town of Prosser, a distance of about fourteen miles. The contract has already been let to Stobie & Mathieson, of Sunnyside, for the construction of a part of the extension, and the work will be rushed through as rapidly as possible.

"This addition to the big ditch will bring under cultivation 20,000 acres of the best fruit land in the state. It is stated by a representative of the company that the extension was decided on because of the large number of settlers that have come into the Yakima valley during the last few months and the number of sales that have been made, as well as the large influx of immigrants expected during the coming spring and summer.

"It is also stated that the company is about to purchase dredgers and steam shovels for the enlargement of its main canal and the extension to the right bank of the Columbia river, where a quarter of a million acres of land can be successfully cultivated. For some time it has been rumored that the Northern Pacific, which controls the shores of Lakes Kitchikan, Kaches and Cle Elum, intends to impound the waters of these lakes for irrigation purposes. If this plan is carried out enough water can be stored, it is said, to irrigate several million acres."

Walter N. Granger of the Washington Irrigation company was in the city yesterday. He said in regard to the above:

"It is true that we have definitely decided upon the extension of the Sunnyside canal to a point about a mile below the town of Prosser. The extension will be a little over 14 miles long. It will open up one of the finest bodies of irrigated land in the world. While it is true that there is some poor land along the line it is equally true that we have nothing better under the old Sunnyside ditch than the larger part of it.

"We shall begin work immediately, and within 90 days will be able to deliver water at the upper end of the extension.

Death of O. B. Laird.

O. B. Laird of Yakima City died Tuesday night at 11 o'clock at his home in that place. Mr. Laird had lived in the old town for a number of years. He went there as agent for the Northern Pacific and after an extended service in that capacity was transferred to Centralia, where he was made cashier in the railroad office. While in that place he contracted consumption which brought about his death, at the age of 51. Later he came back to Yakima City and has lived there since. He leaves a wife and a daughter about 7 years of age.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Laird home under the direction of the Yakima lodge A. O. U. W., of which Mr. Laird had been a member for 5 years. The remains were interred in Tahoma cemetery.

tion. We expect to complete construction of the entire line this season, and will sell lands as fast as we can deliver water to purchasers, but we shall not guarantee delivery of water this season.

"The company will open an office at Prosser next week, and that town will be made headquarters for the business at the lower end of the canal.

"The new lands will be put on the market at from $50 to $70 an acre, according to location and character.

"We have let a contract for one mile of the extension to Mathieson & Stobie. We shall make arrangements for the rest of the construction work, but whether it will be done by contractors has not yet been determined. We are investigating dredgers and steam shovels, and if we find them practicable will purchase an outfit and do our own construction work."

"The extension of the Sunnyside canal has become necessary because we are selling so rapidly that in a short time we cannot supply the demands for Sunnyside lands.

"Regarding the extension to the Columbia slope, mentioned in the Post-Intelligencer article, there is nothing to be said now. There is an immense body of that land which can be watered by the Sunnyside canal, and which, if present conditions continue, will undoubtedly be watered by it. That land lies 'around the horn,' as we say; that is east of the Rattlesnake mountains, and north of Kiona. Its irrigation will require the expenditure of an enormous sum of money, and the construction of one of the largest canal systems in the world, if not the largest. If we undertake to reclaim it we shall have to enlarge the Sunnyside canal from the headgate down, and almost treble its capacity. This immense proposition is not a dream, but is one of the practical certainties of the future if the northwest continues to prosper and eastern people continue to be attracted to the Yakima valley.

"Regarding the impounding of the waters of the lakes at the head of the Yakima valley, I can only say that the shores of these lakes now belong to the Northern Pacific, and that the company acquired title to them so that they might not get into the hands of private individuals who would use their opportunities to the detriment of users of water in the lower valley. I think the Northern Pacific plans eventually to use the lakes as reservoirs, and that it has secured possession of them in furtherance of a gigantic scheme for the development of Yakima valley lands, the first step toward which is the work now going on at Kennewick."

Likes the Polled Angus.

"A man going into the cattle business can't go far wrong in choosing either the Shorthorns, Herefords or Polled Angus," said P. J. Lichty of Sunnyside yesterday. "I am starting a herd of the Polled Angus, however, because I like them a little better than either. There can be little question as to the superiority of the Polled Angus for beef. At two years they will weigh 200 pounds more than either of the others. I think they are better for this country especially because they stand all kinds of weather better than any other breed except the Galloways. They are good rustlers, and they have no horns, which is a point decidedly in their favor. They are not as good for dairy purposes as the Shorthorns, but there are some splendid milkers among them, and as they are bred more for dairy purposes the standard will be raised in that respect. I expect in the course of a little while to have a fine herd of registered Polled Angus cattle on my Sunnyside farm."

Richard Strobach Saw the Play.

The Hon. Richard Strobach, who believes that the sweetest music in the world is the popping of a cork from a bottle of Yakima mineral water, has this to say in the heart to heart talks of the Herald this week about actors and Shakespearean plays:

"Yes, I enjoyed fully the Modjeska-James engagement here. The madam's foreign accent added much to her impersonation of the character of Katherine of Aragon. Even had it not fitted the character, as it did in this instance, it is not objectionable. Some complain that they could not understand her. Had they read the play carefully, after having made up their minds to see the performance, her actions would have recalled the lines, as the play proceeded. One does not go to hear the lines of a play like that rehearsed--any parrot can do that for you, but to see (as in this instance) an historical character, reproduced. Madam Rhea, who, during her life time, was a great favorite in America, had a much more pronounced foreign accent. Sarah Bernhardt and the Italian Salvini, it is said, could hardly be understood at all--yet the theatre going public went wild over them. To my mind James' impersonation of the Cardinal was without fault. The severe criticism by one of your local contemporaries should not be taken seriously--as the colonel seems to have been generally out of sorts last week--even the noble self sacrificing Ellen M. Stone, the missionary, was given an editorial lampooning in the same issue."

No Water at White Bluffs.

Work on the artesian well at White Bluffs has been stopped. F. E. Deeringhoff, who had charge of operations was in town Wednesday and said: "We found that there is not much if anything to be gained by drilling farther for artesian water. When down a short distance water rose a few feet in the well and we were confident of success ultimately, but at the depth of 210 feet we struck a stratum of basalt rock which may be 1000 and may be 3000 feet through, and we found that the water has an outlet into the Columbia river. It would not rise to the top of the ground."

"It may be that I shall continue the drilling at some time in the future, but it is hardly likely. The chances are too many against success. We are out a good deal on the attempt to get water over there because of the distance we had to haul machinery and supplies, but otherwise we have lost nothing. It was merely an experiment. Had it resulted as we hoped and expected we might have sunk many more wells and irrigated a large area of fertile land."

The money for the well was put up by Seattle capitalists who had a scheme to place a large amount of land under water. It is possible to construct a ditch from the Columbia and this may be done.

Local News Boiled Down

Charles Hatch of Zillah was a Yakima visitor yesterday morning.

An action for divorce has been begun in the superior court by Jennie F. Carey from Thomas F. Carey.

Mrs. Edwin Sharp of Tacoma is spending two weeks in this city, at the Bartholomew hotel, for the benefit of her health.

The Western Union Telegraph company has re-opened a telegraph office at Kennewick. T. A. Melvin, the station agent, is operator.

James L. Yantis yesterday was appointed guardian of his son, George K. Yantis, who owns property valued at a little less than $1000.

The dinner by the ladies of the Congregation church will be given in the Syndicate building, one door north of the post office, Saturday at 11:30 a. m.

The grading of Moxee avenue, which had been delayed on account of the weather, is now proceeding. The contractor, Mr. McKivor, placed his grading outfit at work again yesterday morning.

Mr. Bremner of Tacoma, a somewhat celebrated golf player and a prominent figure in Tacoma society, spent Monday in North Yakima. Mr. Bremner is connected with the firm of Balfour, Guthrie & Co.

H. L. Hubbard was painfully injured yesterday morning at Mabton. In handling a heavy trunk it fell upon the thumb of his right hand, crushing that member almost to a pulp. He was under the care of the railway physician here yesterday.

The Commercial club's social evening was attended by about one hundred persons Wednesday evening, and was an extremely pleasant affair. Dancing and cards contributed to the entertainment of the guests. Club parties will be repeated at intervals during the remainder of the winter.

Dr. W. F. Morrison of Spokane came over from that city yesterday afternoon and is in town today. The doctor was well known here a few years ago, having been a prominent physician in this city during the first half of the place's existence. He owned a considerable amount of property in and about town.

The dealers who have hops in the local warehouses are preparing to ship them east. A. E. Poole & Company will forward 10 to 12 cars the first of next week and Horst & Lachmund have a large consignment. The latter firm's agent here, H. L. Hart, said the first of the week that their hops were not for sale for less than 15 1/4 cents.

The mail boxes to be placed on the 16 iron posts which are in position in different locations throughout the business and residence portions of the town have not arrived and Postmistress Sperry is at a loss to account for the long delay. It was understood that they were to be sent at the same time with the other supplies. No word concerning them has been received but it is likely that they will be here any day. The box at the south end of the station platform is one which the local office had on hand.

A meeting of the share holders of the Fruitvale Ditch company was held Monday evening and the following trustees were elected: W. P. Guthrie, Alfred Gobalet, W. L. Wright, Frank Koreski and W. B. Newcomb. The company will be incorporated within the next week or two. The Fruitvale ditch is virtually the new head of the Schanno ditch, which was completed not long ago at a cost of $800. This company will furnish water to the Strobach ditch, which heads in the Schanno near the Fruitvale school house.

GUNS COME FOR THE CADETS

Congressman Jones Presents High School Company with 50 Rifles.

Yesterday morning the board of directors of school district 7, the city schools, received from Congressman Jones a present of 50 brand new rifles just out of the Springfield arsenal for the high school cadet corps. The guns are complete with all attachments and are gratefully received by the members of the cadet company, who have been looking forward to their coming with anticipation.

Mrs. Stair, the principal of the high school, said yesterday, "The boys all feel pretty proud of their new guns and the company equipment. The possession of such an expensive set of rifles, right new from the factory, the uniforms and other paraphernalia will tend to keep up the interest of the members in the organization and make it a lasting institution. Since the corps was organized interest has not lessened a particle; in fact it has greatly increased, and I believe it will continue to do so. The cadet corps now enters into and is so thoroughly a part of the high school that the two will always exist together."

"We thoroughly appreciate Mr. Jones' kindness in making us such a present, and I voice the general sentiment when I say that he long will be remembered for his generosity."

Cabinet Positions Expensive.

A member of the cabinet, to entertain largely, should have such a house as usually rents at from $6000 to $12,000 a year. Senator Depew pays $1000 a month for his house. On the other side, Secretary Wilson, who is a comparatively poor man, lives in a house that rents for not more than $75 a month. Postmaster-General Smith spent his entire salary of $8000 a year, and was compelled to write magazine articles and to add to his income in other ways to maintain his establishment. He finally worried of the struggle and took apartments at a hotel.

Each Cabinet Minister is expected once a year to entertain the president and his associates at dinner. Beyond this he can cut out dinner-giving. The secretary of state, in addition, must give a breakfast once a year to the diplomatic corps. Secretary Day resigned because he could not afford to follow the social pace.

Carriages and horses are furnished by the government to cabinet members. All other expenses they must pay themselves. A member of the cabinet maintaining his own house would have to expend at least $15,000 a year, or nearly double his salary, to keep up even ordinary appearances.

Attorney-General Knox, upon taking up his residence in Washington, began by purchasing a house costing $140,000 and bringing with him a team of horses that cost $12,000. His expenses will be vastly in excess of $15,000 a year.

James B. Clarkson, when he became First Assistant Postmaster-General, rented a house at $3800 a year. His salary was $4000. Mr. Clarkson laughingly said to his wife: "What shall we do with the remainder of my salary?"

"Rent a telephone," was the reply.

On and after this date I will pay no bills contracted by my wife. Feb. 26, 1902. 48* BERT BACON.

REPORT OF YAKIMA MARKETS

Weekly Summary of Conditions in Principal Agricultural Lines.

The market on hay changes but little from week to week. Timothy is strong but dealers look for a weakening in the alfalfa market if the roads improve to make hauling easy.

POTATOES.

The potato market this week is off. For several days it showed signs of weakening and now it has fallen off several points. Dealers predict that it will go even lower, for a time at least. The sound market is glutted and there is little stock moving. The bad condition of the roads makes it difficult to bring potatoes in for shipment although there still are many in the valley. Dealers estimate that a quarter or a third of last year's crop is in the hands of the growers. This is a considerable item and when the rush to unload comes probably will still farther depress the market though a judicious sale of the stock might not have that effect.

In six weeks or two months the new California potatoes will begin to come upon the market, though it will be some time before they are sufficiently matured for long shipments. In June and July however they will be ready to supply the Alaska market. The crop has been planted how and is coming on more rapidly than usual by two or three weeks. Last year the California product brought a high price all through the year. This is attributed to the fact that floods along the Sacramento river early in the spring destroyed the crop to the extent of 5000 acres, which is as large an area as was planted to potatoes in the Yakima valley last year.

All dealers look for a larger acreage here this year than last because of the high price that crop has brought for nearly two years.

HOPS.

The local hop market remains inactive as there have been no sales for two weeks or more, but there is a continual stiffening in price and 14 and 15 cents may be termed the market. The Waterville Times says:

"The volume of business has not enlarged much, but between the shipments to Europe and deliveries to brewers stocks are being gradually depleted, and with a stronger holding of a few lots that are back in growers' hands dealers here making no effort to move hops except at somewhat higher prices. We have been advised of bids of 16 1/2 cents for choice Pacifics, and it is quite certain that the finest growths of either state or Pacific coast cannot be bought below 17c. Sometimes sales to brewers have been effected at even higher figures. The firmness extends to the medium and lower qualities also, and we revise quotations to conform to the general views of the trade. Even the yearlings and older hops share somewhat in the improved feeling noted of late. All the country markets are stronger; some lots have changed hands in this state at 14 to 16 cents, and 12 to 13 cents has been paid on the Pacific coast."

The Robt. E. Smith Stock Going at Cut Prices.

I have bought the Robt. E. Smith stock of Books, Stationery, Blank Books, Guns, Ammunition, Sewing Machines, Sporting Goods, Cigars, etc., at a very low price, and in a few days will move it to my store next to the Yakima National Bank. As I have already stated in my advertisements, I have a stock of first class new goods of the same line, and consequently there are a great many articles in the Smith stock that I don't need, and don't want. Until the removal, I will sell the majority of the stuff at the old Smith Stand at 65c to 75c on the dollar. Now here is the opportunity you have been wanting for a long time. Come right along and come quick, because we move next week.

A Convincing Answer.
"I hobbled into Mr. Blackman's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for Rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said, 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold at the Yellow drug store.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF YAKIMA COUNTY
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1902.

NOTICE TO ALL SUBSCRIBERS.
The date to which any subscriber to the Republic has paid is each week stamped on the address label of his paper immediately after his name. He is thus enabled to calculate for himself at any time just how his subscription account stands. We respectfully request all subscribers to examine their address labels occasionally, and if they find errors they should report them at once to the publisher. A date more than one year old is a cordial invitation to the subscriber to visit the office at his convenience and make a settlement. We do not send bills to subscribers, as the address label is in itself a weekly statement of account.

THE president is said to be getting ready to put fourth class postmasters on the civil list, so they will hold for life or during good behavior.

A TACOMA undertaker is making a hard fight against the theory that all undertakers look alike to dead men. He printed a four column ad in the Ledger last Sunday.

It is stated that Secretary Hitchcock will soon leave the cabinet. So far as the west is concerned, he may depart in peace. Nobody in this part of the country is holding him back, we are sure.

THE REPUBLIC is informed that applications have been filed for almost five times as much land as the Northern Pacific will have for sale under the new Kennewick ditch. This gives an idea of the great demand for Yakima farms.

YAKIMA should have a good baseball club this year. The experience of last year was not such as to fill the boys who played with enthusiasm for another season; but we think they could count on better attendance at the games this year if they took the matter up early and got in good shape to play ball.

SENATOR TILLMAN was invited to dine with the president and Prince Henry, but after the scrap in the senate the other day the invitation was withdrawn. Tillman says he has been insisted. According to his South Carolina code of honor he should go up to the White house and lick Mr. Roosevelt.

EX-SENATOR WILSON doesn't like Tom Humes, and so the Post-Intelligencer has boiled and will do what it can to elect a Democrat mayor of Seattle. The senator seems to be doing his level best to destroy the influence of his paper. If he is going to make it nothing but a personal organ he will find presently that it will cut less figure in political affairs than a campaign handbill.

An effort is being made by Pacific coast hop growers to get the rate on hops reduced to 1 1/2 cents, the rate that prevailed until two years ago. It is now 2 cents, and this, the growers allege, is a serious handicap. The movement started in Portland, and petitions have been prepared and sent to all the hopgrowing districts of the coast, and will be forwarded to the railroad companies when signed. It is to be hoped the roads will make the concession asked. The rate is too high, considering the prices for the product which have prevailed for the last few years.

SMALLPOX is epidemic in many parts of the United States, and in Europe. There are so many cases in London that it is feared the coronation of the king may have to be postponed. Reports are to the effect that there are some 10,000 cases in the state of Wisconsin. A vigorous campaign against the disease is being waged in Chicago. Every passenger car entering or leaving that city must be fumigated for six hours before proceeding. One of the big railroad companies has ordered the vaccination every employee, from the president down to the scrubwoman.

A HYSTERICAL contemporary demands that the republicans put "good men or none" on the legislative ticket this fall. The contemporary may if it chooses cast a reflection upon the ability of the party to select good men, but it needn't think for a minute that there is any danger that no nominations will be made in the event that good men can't be found. The chances are that there will be plenty of good men for the places.

CONSIDERABLE hot southern blood boiled over in the senate this week. The South Carolina senators came to blows, and Wellington of Maryland dared his colleague to come outside and call him a liar.

A PARTY of seven homeseekers arrived in Walla Walla the other day, and the Statesman printed a column about the event, putting it under a scare head half a foot long. Homeseekers are coming to Yakima by the hundred, and the papers think they are doing well to give one out of six of them a two line personal.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN was in New York this week. A dispatch says: "He denied the truth of the report that he would call on David B. Hill and pledge him his support for the presidential nomination in 1904." Even the man who believes the newspapers never get anything right can safely put his trust in that dispatch.

GOV. MCBRIDE says that the next legislature will pass a railroad commission bill. We don't know whether it will or not, but we should say that the governor is in a better position to make prophecies of that kind than any executive who has preceded him. He took his office with the entire state patronage at his command, and he hadn't a promise outstanding at the time. If he can't secure the passage of railroad legislation it will be useless to figure on a governor hereafter who can.

WHILE Yakima farm lands command high prices, they are still cheap. There are not many of us here so old that we will not live to see them selling readily at prices from 100 to 300 per cent. higher than those prevailing. Yakima lands yield from year to year $20 to $300 an acre net profit when planted to hay, potatoes, onions, hops, melons or any of half a dozen other crops. Orchards pay net profits of from $100 to $700 an acre. The crops and the profits never fail. Such land is worth more than it is now selling for, and we do not sympathize with the cry that prices are so high as to discourage immigration. Let the newcomer who thinks Yakima land costs too much pass on. The old settler is usually a pretty good citizen himself.

OF course we deprecate any scene or altercation which reflects upon the dignity of the United States senate. It is inexcusable. It is like a blow that lands on the solar plexus of every individual citizen who loves his country. Nevertheless, there is one reason for a suspension of the rules for a short time that is highly commendable if not altogether constitutional, and that is to give somebody an opportunity to thump the senior senator from South Carolina. Senator McLaurin is quite properly in disgrace, but he deserves qualified praise. If he had succeeded in thrashing Tillman within an inch of his life, he would probably have been still more in disgrace, but the heart of the nation would have gone out to him and called him a benefactor.

POOR old Ellensburg is continually in hot water about her railroad shops and division point. One week comes a report that they will be removed to Cle Elum and the next it is said they will remain where they are. Last week some kind-hearted railroad man gave the burg a hypodermic injection of good cheer, saying the company had decided not to make a change, and now every body is happy up there. We wish they might always remain that way, but it is out of the question. The change is to be made, just as was announced some weeks ago in the REPUBLIC. Some alterations have been made in the plans for the improvements at Cle Elum, and these have to go to New York for approval. When they come back the company's original intentions will be carried out and Cle Elum will be made the division headquarters instead of Ellensburg.

SENATOR TURNER'S Spokane organ has the nerve to say that it was at the instance of Turner that Attorney General Knox decided to ascertain whether the railroad combine is in violation of the Sherman law. The fact is the attorney general is acting under instructions of President Roosevelt. Senator Turner of the state of Washington has mighty little to do with the course of this administration—and he will have less to do with it after the 4th day of next March.

Repeal of War Taxes.
It would be easy to show that the abolition of some other taxes would give greater relief to the people, but in practical legislation conditions and not theories must govern action. The other taxes cannot now be repealed. These taxes can be.—New York World.

The federal building bills introduced at the present session alone would dispose, as we have shown, of between sixty and seventy millions. The celerity with which these bills are now passing the senate by unanimous consent is a significant and somewhat alarming feature of the general situation.—New York Sun.

The manner in which the bill to reduce the war taxes was passed by the house will not suit the people of the country.—Dallas News.

It Regrets to be Obligated to Add.
As a candidate for the office of mayor Thomas J. Humes submitted his claims to the party voters. As to this office, there should and can be no misunderstanding of the position of the Post-Intelligencer. It is a republican newspaper, believing in republican principles and their administration by republican officials. It recognizes fully, also, the right of the party voters to make their own choice.

But the Post-Intelligencer also owes a duty to itself, to its readers, to those to whom it speaks daily, as an ardent advocate of all that it deems best in American government and American life. Therefore it regrets to be obliged to add to what it has already said the declarations that it can not and will not advocate the election of Mr. Humes as mayor of Seattle.—Post-Intelligencer.

Botha May Surrender.
London, Feb. 25.—It was freely stated in the lobby of the house of commons Monday night that General Louis Botha, the chief Boer commander, had managed to get direct communication with Lord Milner and had offered to surrender on certain conditions, the chief being that he shall not be banished from South Africa. The negotiations are proceeding.

Oleomargarine.
In spite of the tremendous fight made by the dairy interests of the country on oleomargarine, a total of 108,000,000 pounds of the product was made and sold in the United States last year. These figures constitute a heavy indictment against the taste of the American people, providing this enormous quantity of oleomargarine was bought and eaten with a full knowledge of its character. If, however, it was palmed off on an unsuspecting public as butter, it forms a heavy indictment against the honesty of its manufacturers. The effort to regulate the sale of this product is legitimate in so far as it is confined to making oleomargarine stand upon its own merits and appear in market under its own name. Beyond this, as for example the effort that has been made in some states to force manufacturers by law to color the product pink or blue in order to make it disgusting in appearance to consumers, the crusade against oleomargarine is not justified. It is only when it is put out as butter that dairymen have a right to protest against it, and in this protest they will no doubt be joined by such consumers as have a decent regard for pure food.—Oregonian.

Mistake of the Antis.
Misled by our own splendid initial advantage in the matter of self government, we have suffered ourselves to misunderstand self government itself, when the question was whether it could be put into practice under conditions totally unlike those with which, and with which alone, we have been familiar. The people of the United States have never known anything but self government since the colonies were founded. They have forgotten the discipline which preceded the founding of the colonies, the long drill in order and obedience to law, the long subjection to kings and to parliaments which were not in fact of the people's choosing. They have forgotten how many generations were once in tutelage in order that the generations which discovered and settled the coast of America might be mature and free. No thoughtful student of history or observer of affairs needs to be told the necessary conditions precedent to self government, the slow growth of the sense of community and of fellowship in every general interest, the habit of organization, the habit of discipline and obedience to those intrusted with authority, the self restraint of give and take, the allegiance of ideals, the consciousness of mutual obligation, the patience and intelligence which are content with a slow and universal growth.—Professor Woodrow Wilson.

It Ought to be Published.
Governor Taft's testimony before the senate committee has been closed. It ought to be published separately and generously distributed throughout the country. It could do more just at present to clear up mistaken impressions and put to flight the absurdities which the critics of the administration are responsible for than any other agency.

Taft concluded his testimony on Thursday with the simple statement, "I believe that what we are doing now in the Philippines is best for the Philippines and for the people of the United States as well," and "now that we are there we should continue our work in those islands. There is no likelihood of finding an honorable way out."

These are the words of truth, sobriety and patriotism. The argument leading up to this conclusion ought to be placed in the hands of the people, not because there is any general sentiment in favor of abandoning the islands and their people, but because the task in the Philippines is a very difficult and complicated one, bound to be attended with disappointments and set-backs of a hundred different kinds; and the determination of the people to keep on with it may well be stimulated now and then, when there is always so much mistaken and misdirected talk on the other side.—Sydney Post Standard.

Two Ways of Doing It.
They do some things much better in South Dakota than in Kentucky. Upon the boundary line dividing the former state from North Dakota there was a "blind pig," and it was the cause of much disorder in the neighborhood. A party of 20 farmers proceeded to that dispensary a night or two ago, seized the proprietor and tied him hand and foot, poured his stock of liquor on the thirsty snow and demolished his shanty. Nobody was hurt. In Kentucky, when a similar feat was attempted, seven or eight good citizens were killed, and some bad ones.—Pittsburg Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Neveu a French couple on the west side are the proud possessors of what is believed to be the smallest baby in Washington. It is now a month old and weighs but three pounds. It seems to be healthy and robust in spite of its diminutive size and is a great favorite in the neighborhood.

Shocked the Pawnbroker.
"Can I get a dollar on this?" said a well dressed man as he tendered a handsome, fur-lined overcoat to the pawnbroker.

"Well, I should say so," replied the money-lender, visibly surprised, "and a lot more, if you want it."

"No; one dollar's enough," was the man's answer, as he took the ticket, after the usual preliminaries had been gone through with.

Later in the day the owner of the coat came back, paid the pawnbroker the dollar with the legal charge of 3 cents, and took his property back.

"Say," said the man of loans, handing over the coat regretfully, "you're a queer customer. Don't you know you might have left that garment for a month and it would only have cost you 3 cents, just what you have paid for the use of the dollar for one day?"

"Oh, I didn't need the dollar," answered the customer, and in proof of his assertion he pulled out a roll of bills "large enough to choke a cow," as a sporting man would say.

"That beats me," said the pawnbroker, now thoroughly interested. "What did you pawn it for then?"

"Simply for safe keeping," coolly replied the customer. "You see, it's like this. It's a warm day and I didn't want to lug the coat around with me. I'm not stopping at a hotel because I'm only in town between trains. At the depot parcel-room the boy in charge wanted 10 cents for checking it, so I concluded to make 7 cents by letting you take care of it for me."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Laboring Man is King.
"Prosperity seems to be fairly rampant in Yakima," said Engineer McCoy Tuesday. Mr. McCoy has charge of the construction of a breakwater for the Northern Pacific in the Naches river north of town and has had a force of 40 or 50 men at work all through the winter. "I have a great time keeping enough men to finish the job in the required time. A man will work for maybe as much as two days and possibly as long as two weeks without stopping. Then he will want his time. I may see him again and I may not—usually not. Day laborers are so well paid for their time that they can afford to work every other day and live comfortably. In the time I have been here, which is about three months, I have had the names of several hundred men on my books, all the while keeping about the same sized force, but of all of those, there is now but one who was with me at the beginning, has worked what might be called constantly and who is still on the pay roll. He deserves a chromo. There are few like him and I expect to live to see him president of the road."

The work of building the several hundred feet of embankment, of building the two small jetties into the river, the facine work, etc., is going ahead and will be completed and a great protection to the railroad bridge by the time extreme high water comes in the spring.

Mr. F. H. Bushnell, the celebrated California photographer, is in San Francisco, and not in North Yakima as some would have you believe. Neither is he interested in any way in the photo business here and he has no relatives or representatives in this part of the country. Stop Paying Rent or Interest.

Own Your Own Home.

The National Homeseekers Association of Chicago, Ill., is now located in North Yakima, Washington, and will furnish money to pay off mortgages, build or buy homes or farms any place in the United States and give you 16 years and 8 months to pay for it at the rate of $5.50 per month on each $1000. $5 of each $5.50 applies of your home without interest. Now this looks easy—and some people will say it is too easy to be true—but if you will take the time to have this system fully explained to you, you will be able to see the advantage of this plan. A few moments spent in investigation will cost you nothing, and should you accept the opportunity offered you, many hundreds of dollars may be saved in rent and interest.

Things That Do Happen

Rev. John Gihring was in Ellensburg Sunday.

Capt. Lemon went to the sound Monday to stay a few days.

Frank Bartholet and son Urban spent Sunday in Ellensburg.

Miss Anna Scow is on the way to recovery after her long sickness.

Born, Saturday, February 22, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Siegrist, a son.

Mrs. Stanley Coffin went to Kennewick last Saturday afternoon to spend a few days.

Bert Coburn came up from Mabton Saturday morning and returned Sunday afternoon.

M. B. Miles of the Bartholet hotel returned home Sunday morning from a trip to the sound.

Charles Franzen of Simcoe station was in town Saturday doing business with the local merchants.

Mrs. W. E. Townsend of Fruitvale has gone to Dayton, Ore., to spend a month with her sister.

J. W. Stevenson of Cape Horn, Skamania county, is in the city and will make a stay of ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Poole and Mrs. Poole's mother, Mrs. Lee, went to the sound Sunday to spend several days.

There will be a special communication of Yakima lodge No. 24, F. & A. M., tomorrow night. Work in the first.

Hugh Purden has returned from Portland and will farm a large tract of land in the Wenas during the coming season.

Mrs. Meyers, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Severance, returned to her home in St. Paul last week.

Mrs. A. J. Splawn returned to this city Friday from Ellensburg and the following day went to her home in the Cowiche.

Frank Cole will begin the building of a two story dwelling on his Sixth street property as soon as the weather permits. The location is near Chestnut street.

Last Friday D. N. Keene sold his home at the corner of Chestnut and Fourth street to Mrs. Kate Sitton. The consideration is understood to have been $1500.

Mrs. Ward is preparing to build a good sized addition to her house at the corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets. The contract for the work will be let within the next few days.

The Cle Elum Echo says a sister of Mrs. D. Lewis of that place was brought to the hospital here Wednesday of last week suffering from consumption in an advanced stage.

A. R. Starr has found that he cannot secure satisfactory title to the ground on Capitol hill which he had intended purchasing for a hospital site. He will look elsewhere for a location.

E. B. Henuelbach, who came here not long ago from Crookston, Minn., and bought considerable property, went back to Minnesota the latter part of last week to dispose of his 400 acre ranch. When this is done he will return here to stay.

E. C. Trumbull has leased a 40 acre piece of ground on the reservation near Alfalfa and will raise potatoes and onions during the coming year. Just now there is no water on the land about there but the farmers are preparing to construct a ditch four or five mile long from one of the creeks which cross the reservation.

Last Saturday, the 22nd, of February, was Washington's birthday and was generally observed in North Yakima as in all the other towns and cities throughout the length and breadth of the United States. In the afternoon company C., N. G. W., was out on parade and presented a creditable appearance. The line of march was on Yakima avenue.

H. M. Lichty of Sunnyside was in the city last Thursday afternoon in company with A. D. Ackley and Dr. J. C. Mack of Walla Walla. The former is in the furniture business and the latter is a practicing physician in that place. Both gentlemen were looking over the Yakima country and they were extremely complimentary in giving their opinions of the farming localities and of the towns, together with the general appearance of the whole valley. Mr. Ackley was particularly enthusiastic about North Yakima which, he said, reminded him of an eastern city more than any other place he had ever seen in the west. He talked as though he might change his place of residence to this city, but Dr. Mack has a well established practice at home which he does not feel justified in leaving.

Mayor E. W. R. Taylor of Prosser was in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Thompson of Parker were Yakima visitors Monday.

Anson White Monday sold two lots on Sixth and D streets to Abbie Stacy for $300.

E. D. Edwards, the auctioneer, will go to Toppenish tomorrow to sell some stock for J. T. Hart.

Born, on Washington's birthday, February 22nd, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nagler, twins, a boy and girl.

E. E. Bernard, Mrs. B. L. Bernard, Donalda Matheson and A. G. McNeill of Prosser were in the county seat Monday.

Mrs. Fred Parker, who was dangerously ill the latter part of last week, is much better now and on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Louis Lesh had intended to return to her home in Everett Thursday of last week but her friends persuaded her to remain a few days longer.

The county teachers' association will hold its last meeting of the school year in this city two weeks from tomorrow. An interesting program is in course of preparation.

Rev. J. D. Wasson has been appointed assistant pastor of the First Methodist church, and while Rev. J. H. Wood is confined to his home has charge of the services in that church. Rev. S. L. Burrell preached to the congregation Sunday evening.

Rev. Mr. Cheal of this city will deliver a lecture at the Episcopal church in Sunnyside a week from tomorrow on Westminster Abbey. Mr. Cheal's long residence in England and his familiarity with the places of historic interest and the events connected with them promises to make his talk an instructive and entertaining one.

Managing Editor Joseph Blethen of the Seattle Times was in the city two or three days this week. He was gathering material for an article for World's Work on farming by irrigation. Mr. Blethen is one of the best known young writers on the coast. He has recently had a number of stories in the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies' Home Journal and Success.

The late chinook did a good deal of damage about Sunnyside. The heavy snow in the Rattlesnake hills was melted in a night. Sulphur creek overflowed and besides spreading out over the road east of Sunnyside broke into the canal, which already contained much water from Black canyon. The water broke the banks of the canal and did hundreds of dollars worth of damage, particularly to the Emory Thompson place.

Lombard & Horsley are getting ready to move into their building and are preparing the lower floor to receive their stock of furniture. The stairs to the upper floor will be moved from the front to the rear of the building a few feet from the place they originally were, and the front of the store will be so arranged as to make attractive display windows. Besides these improvements the partition between the two rooms will be removed, and a neat front will be placed on the annex which faces Second street. Lombard & Horsley will have quarters then to accommodate their large stock and when they are settled will have one of the handsomest stores in town.

Prosser is Growing.

From all reports Prosser is enjoying a boom the like of which it has not seen for many years. Property has been changing hands at a phenomenally rapid rate. It is said that lots to a value of $25,000 have been sold there within the last few weeks. Most of these sales were on the north side of the Northern Pacific tracks, as it seems an effort is in progress to make that the business portion of the town. That side has an advantage of a more slightly situation and this with several other reasons may result in making it the site of the main part of the town. At present the greater part of the stores and residences are on the south side of the tracks.

The reason for Prosser's prosperity is that the town is the natural center of a large area of country and investors have great faith in its future growth. When the Sunnyside canal is extended much rich farming country on the north side of the river within a few miles of the town will be laid tributary to it, and there are half a dozen or more townships of land in the Horse Heaven country, which are partly in cultivation now and which in a few years all will be producing crops of grain. This land is settling up with marvellous rapidity. The Northern Pacific is selling thousands of acres of it every month, and this year the crop of grain will far exceed any yet harvested in that region, all of which will pass through Prosser.

A Pasco-Vancouver Road.

The secretary of the Portland board of trade, James M. Moore, is presenting to Portland capitalists a scheme to build an electric road from Vancouver to Pasco, paralleling the Columbia river and tapping large areas of rich agricultural and valuable timber and mining lands in Yakima, Klickitat, Skamania and Clarke counties. Mr. Moore and many others who have investigated the proposition believe it feasible and urge the building of the road. They assert that the scheme is one which capitalists will be glad to take up as the country which the proposed route traverses is already of considerable importance and is capable of great development. At present the only outlet for all this vast region is the Northern Pacific through Yakima county and the O. R. & N. on the south bank of the Columbia, neither of which is conveniently accessible. Mr. Moore realizes that the undertaking is one of magnitude and feels sure that it will reach fulfillment in due course of time. The Columbia river and streams tributary to it on the northern side would furnish abundant water power for the generation of electrical energy. The road would be a connecting link in an almost direct route from Portland to St. Paul. Another link will be the Missoula cut-off which it is reported the Northern Pacific will build.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Reduction of Taxes.

I wish to ask all property owners to try and meet the Assessors of their districts and give them a complete and full list of all property owned or controlled by them in Yakima county.

1st—Give No. acres and correct description.

2nd—Give No. acres in cultivation and character of land.

3rd—Give No. acres not in cultivation and the character of land.

4th—Give No. of acres of scab or waste land.

By doing this and helping the Assessor to list your property correctly and getting same on the tract books you will have no reason to find fault with the assessments made as there will be a uniformity of values established, which will save you further trouble.

I am now preparing a set of tract books to take in this system of assessments, which will help to make more equitable assessments and no doubt in many cases will operate to make reductions in taxes.

Asking all property owners to co-operate with me in this matter I am

Dr. E. H. Biley received his certificate from the state medical board and is now entitled to practice in the state of Washington.

Rev. O. H. King of La Grande, Ore., gave two lectures here last week under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society, which were much enjoyed by those who attended.

Mrs. Lillian Hitchcock, wife of Wm. Hitchcock of the Sun, gave a dinner in honor of Rev. O. H. King Thursday. Covers were laid for twelve, and a pleasant time was had.

Miss M. E. Brown of Spokane occupied the pulpit at the Federated church Sunday morning. Miss Brown is a deaconess and gave an interesting account of her work in Spokane.

Attendance at the Federated Sunday school was 775. Many thought when this church was built that it was too large but it is now evident that we will have to have more room soon.

"The Turn of the Tide, or Wrecked in Port," a play to be given Wednesday, is receiving a set back by sickness in the cast of characters. However, substitutes have been secured and a good time is looked for.

James Henderson sold his farm south of Snipes' mountain last week to R. Y. Rankin of Spokane, for $150 per acre. Mr. Rankin also purchased from S. J. Harrison 40 acres of hay land for $100 per acre. He intends to breed thoroughbred Jersey cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Holloway left for Yakima City Saturday to attend Mr. Charles Lee's funeral. Mr. Lee was Mrs. Holloway's father, and he being subject to heart disease, it is supposed that he died from that cause. The deceased was widely known and highly respected.

NOR HILL.
John Wimer is treating his new house to a coat of paint.

Spring work is beginning and every body seems to be hustling.

Miss Avanelle Gano was visiting at T. W. Clark's again the past week.

The roads are settling down some, but they are still bad enough in places.

News seems to be a little scarce this week as every one is too busy to make history.

HEIRS TO A LARGE FORTUNE

Mrs. E. S. Hill and John Case Will Get a Third of a Million Dollars.

Mrs. E. S. Hill of the Moxee and John Case, who keeps a little candy store on south Second street, received word last Saturday that a lawyer from Cleveland, Ohio, was on the way to North Yakima to adjust the Case $20,000,000 estate and that their shares are a sixth of a million each. They with a sister who lives in Mt. Carmel, Ill., are allotted $500,000.

The estate, which consists of blocks of property in the center of the city of Cleveland and a large amount of money, was left 18 years ago by Case. At that time it was estimated to be worth $16,000,000. A half brother of the original owner succeeded to the property notwithstanding some legal disputes. He died a short time ago leaving no heirs and the estate 25 per cent. larger than when he received it. Now it is to be divided among the nearest of kin, only about 30 in number. Mrs. Hill's and her brother's relationship are distant. Case is a second cousin of their father. Their sister is Mrs. Rachael Marsh of Mt. Carmel, Ill.

Mr. Hill was in the REPUBLIC office Wednesday and explained the circumstances surrounding the legacy. "My wife has talked a good deal about it in the past," said he, "but I never banked much on the prospects. The family made a fight for the estate 18 years ago. They were not successful in the attempts to get possession of it, however. Mrs. Hill until a few days ago had given it little thought, but the prospects now are for an immediate settlement. She and her brother with a distant relative on the sound are the only heirs living in this western country. The lawyer who is coming is a member of the family who was appointed by the Ohio courts to close up the estate. He hopes to have this done in April.

"We have not decided that we will change our home or anything of that kind, but of course we may. I have just bought the Jack Bradford ranch in the eastern part of the Moxee valley."

The inheritance tax, lawyers' fees and other expenses which come out of the legacy will lessen the gross amount by about 25 per cent.

Ten Dollars Reward.

George Davenport of Mabton will pay the above sum for the return of two gray males, weight 1050, branded DF on left stifle, which strayed from his place.

Lost—A two year old heifer of a blackish blue color, with some white on legs, brand circle 16, on left side. Ten dollars reward will be paid for notice where she can be found. Notify Mrs. William T. Long, rural route No. 3, Care of Holt Calvert.

Potatoes.

We buy at all times strictly on market orders. We want a few cars now of strictly fancy burbanks in good sacks. If you have such, see us before you sell. J. M. PERKINS & CO.

F. Achelpohl, the practical farmer, wants to rent a good sized ranch anywhere in valley.

Desert Land, Final Proof—Notice for Publication.

Things That Do Happen

N. Hartung spent Sunday in Ellensburg.

Mrs. Phil Ditter went to Ellensburg Sunday for a short stay.

Hon. Frank Rudkin went to Spokane Monday to hold court in that place.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Lesh returned home Tuesday afternoon from a trip to Seattle.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Dilley of this city registered at the Tourist hotel in Tacoma Tuesday.

R. G. Peck is at work in the treasurer's office after being confined to his room for ten days by sickness.

D. L. Thacker is superintending the building of the Christian church parsonage. It will cost when completed $1500.

The W. R. C. and G. A. R. gave a social on last Wednesday evening at the home of Past Commander L. C. Lovell, which was enjoyed by all.

Duncan Stewart of Astoria arrived here Wednesday morning. He has bought an interest in the Star Clothing house. His family will come later.

A. A. Ingalls and family expect to leave here shortly for southern California to remain. They came here last fall from Maine, but are not altogether suited with Yakima.

D. M. Shanks has sold his place east of town to J. E. Roberts of South Dakota. The place consists of 160 acres and brought $6000. Mr. Shanks will retain possession until fall.

The members of the high school are preparing to erect a monument to Claude Brooks, whose death occurred last year. He was a member of the sophomore class, which now is the leader in the movement.

Congressman Jones has introduced a bill in the house of representatives authorizing the expenditure of $25,000 for a trout hatchery in the Yakima river for the purpose of stocking the streams of central Washington.

Vessey & McRae have let a contract to H. W. Creason to build 20 miles of wire fence around their sheep range in the Rattlesnakes. The fence will cost about $3000 and will enclose many thousand acres of good grazing land.

A. S. Paul is building a corrugated iron roof over the space in the rear of the fire engine house. The city's rock crusher, roller, old hook and ladder wagon and other pieces of apparatus will be housed under it as a protection from the weather.

Mme. Nordica, the prima donna, passed through here Tuesday afternoon in her private car on her way east after a tour of the coast. She sang in Seattle and Tacoma. A number of Yakima people were in each audience. The Ladies' Musical club of this city had hoped to have the great singer stop here, but the club did not feel able to guarantee her a $1500 house.

R. F. Padgett of Crawfordville, Mo., who recently purchased the George Wilson farm in the Wide Hollow, called at this office yesterday and had his paper changed from Crawfordville to North Yakima. His family will be here in a short time. Mr. Padgett was in Yakima about two years ago, and was so much impressed with the country that he has been trying to sell his Missouri property ever since in order to come out here to live.

The Woman's Relief Corps met at the home of Mrs. Allen on north Second street last Saturday afternoon and organized an aid society. A quantity of children's clothing which had been donated was overhauled and prepared for distribution among some destitute families living in tents near the Fred R. Reed place. A lunch was served. The aid will meet on every second and fourth Saturday of the month at the home of some member, and plain sewing will be done. The next meeting will be at the residence of Mrs. Walter J. Reed on the west side on Saturday, March 8. The ladies pay 5 cents each and spend the afternoon sewing, after which cake and coffee are served. Any ladies wishing to drop in and help will be welcomed.

For Sale or Trade—25 stands of bees. Will trade for good horse broke or unbroke. W. Parshall 216 N. Kittitas Ave. 31

TO THE PUBLIC.

We wish to announce that March 1st the firm of I. H. Dills will incorporate and will thereafter be known as "The Star." The proprietors will be Dills, Lemon & Stewart.

We wish to thank our friends and patrons who have so liberally patronized us in the past, and also wish to state that the principles of the business in the past will still continue to be the principle of the business in the future, i. e., courtesy, prompt attention, square dealing, one price to all and our permanent guarantee on everything we sell of "perfect satisfaction in every respect or money cheerfully refunded."

I. H. DILLS & CO.

John Satterwhite Jr., of Ellensburg was a Yakima visitor last Saturday.

Miss Bessie Patton has returned from a visit with her sister in Tacoma.

W. L. Van Doren of Cle-Elum registered at the Bartholomew hotel Monday.

Charles B. Gray, representing the Post-Intelligencer, was in town several days this week.

William McMillan of Fawcett Brothers' Ellensburg establishment spent Sunday in this city.

H. L. Colman of Denver, Col., is at the Yakima hotel. He is buying Yakima horses to ship to Alaska.

Messrs. A. C. St. John of Chehalis and A. E. Sears and S. E. Grimm of Centralia were in the city Saturday afternoon.

A meeting of the stock holders of the old Union ditch company will be held in the city hall tomorrow.

W. W. Felton has the contract for building a $1600 cottage on H. B. Riggs' property on Naches avenue.

Dick Hansen has resumed his duties in the post office, from which he was kept away for a time by sickness.

E. Timmerman of the Columbia river ferry north of Kennewick came up to the county seat Tuesday evening.

Louis Marion of Walla Walla was in the city this week, making arrangements to farm on the reservation near Toppenish.

William Role and son have been in Yakima and Ellensburg for the last two weeks organizing branches of the order of Washington.

Miss Edwards of Seattle was the guest of Mrs. James Mabry and Mrs. Harry Moran last week. She returned to her home Monday afternoon.

C. W. Liggett, the foreman of the R. P. PUBLIC job printing department, was in Tacoma and Seattle the last two days of last week and the first three of this.

A recent decision of the secretary of the interior is to the effect that half breed children of a white father will receive no allotments of land on Indian reservations. A circular sent out by the department says: "Children born of a white man, a citizen of the United States, and an Indian woman, his wife, follow the estates of the father as to citizenship and are not therefore entitled to allotments on the public domain."

J. M. Perry & Co. have given up the plan to put in an ice plant in this city. Mr. Perry says that under present conditions he does not believe it would be a profitable venture though before the last cold snap he was of a different opinion. Mr. Bonniwell will go ahead and put in an ice and cold storage plant as he originally announced. He has ordered the machinery, selected a site and signed a number of contracts.

The post office department is preparing a bill for the consideration of congress having for its object the general reduction of the daily hours of postal employees to eight. Accurate information regarding the actual amount of hours put in by the post office clerks all over the country will be presented with the bill. Post Mistress Sperry is preparing data concerning the local office at the request of the department. The employees here are busy from 12 to 14 hours each day. Under the proposed change two more clerks would be required to perform the work.

The trial of Stewart Fife in Missouri for alleged murder of Frank W. Richardson was begun Monday. Fife says he was no place near the Richardson home the night the crime was committed, and complains bitterly that he is held in jail and treated as a criminal. It will be remembered that Mrs. Addie Richardson, with whom it is said Fife conspired, was acquitted of the charge of murder by the jury in less than half an hour. A man in Minnesota created a sensation a few days ago by announcing to the police that he burglarized the Richardson house that night and was in it when the owner was shot. His testimony, if it is of any value will be produced at the trial of Fife.

Mrs. P. A. Bounds is home in North Yakima after her long stay in Seattle.

George B. Blorton and Miss Emma B. Miller procured a marriage license Monday from the county auditor.

A divorce has been granted Pearl A. Morford from S. O. Morford. Desertion is given as the ground for the divorce.

Luther Geisel has taken an interest in N. Compton's blacksmith shop near the Fashion barn. The firm will be Compton & Geisel.

Rev. Mr. Thomson of the Baptist church has presented his resignation to the congregation. He expects to leave Yakima in May.

Rev. F. Gillespie of Stull, Miami county, Ohio, will arrive in Sunnyside about the 1st of March to take charge of the Methodist church.

J. W. Dooly of Zillah spent two or three days this week with his son R. W. Dooly. Monday afternoon he went to Ellensburg for a short stay.

Miss Florence McWain has finished the term of school in district 21 in the Naches valley, and is now teaching the school in district 8 in the Ahtanum.

The Walla Walla land office announces that three townships in Asotin county have been thrown open for entry. The townships are 6 and 7 in range 43 and 9 in 44.

S. R. Peck is visiting his father, J. W. Peck, in the Moxee. Mr. Peck is president of the state board of oculists of North Carolina. He will probably make his home in Washington.

Ed Mulligan is able to be about though his arm, which was broken at the Read fire, is held in a sling. He greatly appreciates the kindness of the firemen while he was suffering from the effects of the accident.

Hon. Miles Cannon's term of office as receiver of the U. S. land office here expired Tuesday. He is an applicant for re-appointment and his name will probably be sent to the senate next week. There are no other applicants for the place.

N. S. Johnson of the hotel Yakima is a charter member of the Washington Hotel Keepers' association which was organized in Seattle on the 14th of January. A neat folder issued by the association gives his name as vice president for North Yakima in a list of the vice presidents for the state.

Judge R. O. Dunbar of the state supreme bench was in town Friday and Saturday of last week. He said he came over to get a little Yakima sunshine. The judge is well known here. He owned Yakima property at one time and since has made occasional though not frequent trips to this part of the state.

The Walla Walla Union has a new scheme for dividing Yakima county—a scheme which it says is being quite generally discussed. It would cut off a dozen or twenty townships on the east end of Yakima, and the pan handle of Adams, containing six townships, and tack them onto Franklin county. This scheme is said to be pleasing to everybody, which saying is important if true.

A report was in circulation this week to the effect that a rival telephone company intended shortly to enter the Yakima field. This rumor seems to have started through the extension of the Pacific States Telephone company's lines into several of the near-by valleys, together with the circumstance that the name of the company along its entire line from British Columbia to Arizona is to be the Sunset Telephone company.

The Ladies' aid society of the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon gave a farewell reception at the home of Mrs. and Miss Lombard to Mrs. Marian Janek and her daughter, Miss Bessie, who are to leave Yakima shortly. About 50 ladies including members of the society and a number of other friends of Mrs. Janek and Miss Janek were present. During the afternoon a short program assisted in entertaining the guests. On this was a musical number by Mrs. Louis Lesh and a reading by Mrs. H. M. Gilbert. The afternoon was most pleasantly spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of the Hotel Yakima are getting ready to build a $10,000 addition to the hotel building, besides remodeling the front and putting in a steam heating plant. The plans for the addition are not here but they will provide for a two story brick annex in the rear which will contain a large number of guest chambers and commodious sample rooms for the use of commercial travelers. The proprietors of the hotel have begun work on the front of the building and as soon as the weather becomes settled will be ready to let the contract for the addition.

The members of the G. A. R. who were present at the meeting at the Odd Fellows' hall were pleasantly surprised at the conclusion of the exercises by Mary, Theodore, Theresa and Matt Grobesmith, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Grobesmith, who came to entertain the post for a little while with singing. They sent in a messenger to ask permission of the post commander, L. C. Lovell, and this being granted they sang a collection of national airs and other songs which were enthusiastically received by their listeners. The four have promising voices and sing in pleasing harmony.

172,000 SHEEP ON RESERVE

That Number on Rainier and 25,000 on Washington Reserve.

Secretary S. J. Cameron of the Woolgrowers' association Saturday received a telegram from Washington saying that the department had decided to allow 172,000 sheep on the Rainier and 25,000 on the Washington forest reserve. While this is not as large a number as was on the Rainier reserve last year the news that 172,000 will be admitted came as good tidings to the sheepmen of this valley, as the first report was that only 17,000 were to be allowed grazing privileges during the season of 1902. At the time it was thought this report was in error but there was no way of proving that such was the case.

Last year the department allowed 250,000 sheep to graze within the limits of the Rainier reservation. It is believed that no fault could be found with the handling of the sheep or with the condition of the reserve when the season was over, but the department is becoming more strict each year in the preservation of the forests and vegetation in the reservations. It is not thought that the reduction in the number is due to any recommendation of Superintendent Sheller as he often has expressed himself in favor of allowing a limited number of sheep to graze on the government lands, and he has said also that he did not believe 250,000 to be too great a number. The total number of sheep in the county is about 300,000.

A reduction of 78,000 sheep in the number allowed to graze on the Rainier reserve will be noticeably felt by the sheepmen of this valley and will require them to find other fields for many of their bands. There is much good grazing land in the mountains about Cle Elum and farther north so it is not likely that the sheep industry will be materially affected.

High School Notes.

The High School has resumed work and the students have taken up their studies with a will. By diligent work all may be able to accomplish the given amount of work for the last semester.

The guns for the cadet corps are on their way here, and before long the boys will be learning the manual of arms.

The last few pleasant days have brought out the bat and ball. The high school has a prospect for a first class nine this year. The manager of the nine has received an invitation from the Walla Walla high school for a game in that city.

The postponed senior farce of February 8 will be given on Friday evening, February 28, at the high school assembly hall. The farce consists of good healthy fun and plenty of it. The program will be lengthened by a few other numbers, rendered as only the members of the senior class can render them. This will be the first literary program given by the high school this year and the class has made special preparation to give an entertaining program. The hall should be filled. Admission 15c. Mr. Schwab's Ambition.

Mr. Schwab found everybody in Europe profoundly impressed with the power and grandeur of the United States Steel Trust. The people over there had no idea that such a puissant and opulent combination was within the power of human energy. These expressions of surprise and admiration were as might be supposed, intensely gratifying to Mr. Schwab, and it is natural that he should have become inflamed with the ambition and desire to make the trust still greater, to lengthen its cords and strengthen its stakes.

He and his associate magnates must be grateful, of course, to the government for the privilege it confers upon the United States Steel Trust to control prices and to amass the millions which make their corporation the object of such sincere homage, and all they crave now, in addition, is the little boon of a ship subsidy to furnish cheaper facilities for distributing the products of the steel trust to the "great common field" on which Mr. Schwab has fixed his keen, metallic eye. The government ought certainly to be able and willing to give a little lift to a line of transportation in which many of the steel barons are interested, when the institution with which they are connected can send a man abroad who can command even the attention of royalty.

It is not so much that the steel trust asks. The earth will satisfy Schwab and Morgan and the rest, if congress can do no better—Kansas City Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of the Hotel Yakima are getting ready to build a $10,000 addition to the hotel building, besides remodeling the front and putting in a steam heating plant. The plans for the addition are not here but they will provide for a two story brick annex in the rear which will contain a large number of guest chambers and commodious sample rooms for the use of commercial travelers. The proprietors of the hotel have begun work on the front of the building and as soon as the weather becomes settled will be ready to let the contract for the addition.

The members of the G. A. R. who were present at the meeting at the order last Saturday afternoon in the Odd Fellows' hall were pleasantly surprised at the conclusion of the exercises by Mary, Theodore, Theresa and Matt Grobesmith, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Grobesmith, who came to entertain the post for a little while with singing. They sent in a messenger to ask permission of the post commander, L. C. Lovell, and this being granted they sang a collection of national airs and other songs which were enthusiastically received by their listeners. The four have promising voices and sing in pleasing harmony.

172,000 SHEEP ON RESERVE

That Number on Rainier and 25,000 on Washington Reserve.

Secretary S. J. Cameron of the Wool-growers' association Saturday received a telegram from Washington saying that the department had decided to allow 172,000 sheep on the Rainier and 25,000 on the Washington forest reserve. While this is not as large a number as was on the Rainier reserve last year the news that 172,000 will be admitted came as good tidings to the sheepmen of this valley, as the first report was that only 17,000 were to be allowed grazing privileges during the season of 1902. At the time it was thought this report was in error but there was no way of proving that such was the case.

Last year the department allowed 250,000 sheep to graze within the limits of the Rainier reservation. It is believed that no fault could be found with the handling of the sheep or with the condition of the reserve when the season was over, but the department is becoming more strict each year in the preservation of the forests and vegetation in the reservations. It is not thought that the reduction in the number is due to any recommendation of Superintendent Sheller as he often has expressed himself in favor of allowing a limited number of sheep to graze on the government lands, and he has said also that he did not believe 250,000 to be too great a number. The total number of sheep in the county is about 300,000.

A reduction of 78,000 sheep in the number allowed to graze on the Rainier reserve will be noticeably felt by the sheep men of this valley and will require them to find other fields for many of their bands. There is much good grazing land in the mountains about Cle Elum and farther north so it is not likely that the sheep industry will be materially affected.

High School Notes.

The High School has resumed work and the students have taken up their studies with a will. By diligent work all may be able to accomplish the given amount of work for the last semester.

The guns for the cadet corps are on their way here, and before long the boys will be learning the manual of arms.

The last few pleasant days have brought out the bat and ball. The high school has a prospect for a first class nine this year. The manager of the nine has received an invitation from the Walla Walla high school for a game in that city.

The postponed senior farce of February 8 will be given on Friday evening, February 28, at the high school assembly hall. The farce consists of good healthy fun and plenty of it. The program will be lengthened by a few other numbers, rendered as only the members of the senior class can render them. This will be the first literary program given by the high school this year and the class has made special preparation to give an entertaining program. The hall should be filled. Admission 15c. Per couple 25c.

Business.

If a girl loves a man that's her business. If a man loves her in return that's his business, and if they get married that's their business, and if they want to move that's my business. I can move them. Leave orders for the day at the Fashion barn. J. E. Minter. feb28-2*

Mr. Schwab's Ambition.

Mr. Schwab found everybody in Europe profoundly impressed with the power and grandeur of the United States Steel Trust. The people over there had no idea that such a puissant and opulent combination was within the power of human energy. These expressions of surprise and admiration were as might be supposed, intensely gratifying to Mr. Schwab, and it is natural that he should have become inflamed with the ambition and desire to make the trust still greater, to lengthen its cords and strengthen its stakes.

He and his associate magnates must be grateful, of course, to the government for the privilege it confers upon the United States Steel Trust to control prices and to amass the millions which make their corporation the object of such sincere homage, and all they crave now, in addition, is the little boon of a ship subsidy to furnish cheaper facilities for distributing the products of the steel trust to the "great common field" on which Mr. Schwab has fixed his keen, metallic eye. The government ought certainly to be able and willing to give a little lift to a line of transportation in which many of the steel barons are interested, when the institution with which they are connected can send a man abroad who can command even the attention of royalty.

It is not so much that the steel trust asks. The earth will satisfy Schwab and Morgan and the rest, if congress can do no better—Kansas City Star.
