Dear Mr. Rhelander:

Our Y Indian Guide tribes in the Tri Cities are continually searching for items of interest concerning past and present Indian life in our region.

The question came up last night at a meeting of our Chief's Council whether there are any Longhouses in the region that can be visited.

As you may know, Y Indian Guides are father-son groups of boys, 6 - 9 years of age and their fathers.

If you have time, would you list some of the most interesting Indian sites in our area to visit and present day Indian events that would interest our groups.

We do appreciate your help.

Sincerely,

R. A. Ortmeier
