BOX CAR ROBBERS CAUGHT.

Nabbed at Walla Walla and Brought to County Jail Here.

Northern Pacific Detective J. S. Hindman of Spokane accompanied by Sheriff Pack of Franklin county arrived here Thursday night with four men who are charged with having stolen a quantity of goods from a box car in west bound freight No. 55 Tuesday morning. The four men are believed to have boarded the train at Pasco and to have left it again while ascending the long grade this way from Kennewick.

The capture was made by Deputy Sheriff Nave of Walla Walla county who was waiting for them at that point. Without assistance the Walla Walla officer arrested the quartet and cowed them into submission when the men showed a disposition to resist. Their alleged crime having been committed in this county, the prisoners, of course, will have to be tried here. Photographs were taken of the men Friday morning.

The prisoners gave in their names as Geo. Roberts, James Moran, Joseph Dodd and Thomas Winters. Roberts, particularly, bears a hard reputation, having but recently been in the toils in Oregon. Dodd is a mere boy in appearance, probably not over 17 years of age. When captured the men were each carrying a pack, made up principally of different varieties of shoes.

Maude Allen, the Flying Lady.

Beatty Bros' moving picture show consists of 50,000 of the latest moving pictures and the latest songs sung by Prof. Hadley of New York. This show is not to be classed with the so called moving picture shows of which there are so many traveling nowadays. It is an acknowledged fact that the Beatty Bros. have the only six moving picture machines on earth with the Diamond Projecting lens. Beatty Bros have these machines made to order last July. They have six sprockets that do away with all that quiver. Most of the Beatty Bros pictures cost 50 cents per foot, while the ordinary costs 10 cents per foot.

You will see such pictures as "An Old Maid from New York," "Jack and the Beanstalk," in ten beautiful colored scenes, "Inexhaustible Cab," I guess that I will hold you for awhile, "Assassination of President McKinley," "His Funeral," "The Electrocution of Czolgoz," "Whose Baby are You," "I'm Aunt Eastus' Baby, that's whose Baby I am," "Don't fail to see 'A Fisherman's Catch,'" "Casey and the Street Roller," "A Fat and a Lean Man's Wrestling Match," "A Man with Four Heads," "Captains of Biddle Bros., Outlaws," "Carrie Nation and Her Hatchet," battle scenes, heat scenes, train scenes, comic scenes. Beatty Bros. come to our city highly recommended. Salt Lake Tribune says: "Beatty Bros. played at Salt Lake Theater Friday, Oct. 24, and gave universal satisfaction." Larson's Theater, Friday May 1. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Plans for a New Court House.

Architect E. W. Sankey, on his own responsibility, has prepared plans for a new court house for Yakima county and submitted the same to the board of county commissioners and also placed them on public exhibition.

The style of architecture displayed is of the pure Grecian type. The main building is 114x66 feet with the addition of two wings to the first story, 40x24 feet. The design for the second floor makes provision for a fair sized court room with court chamber and jury room opening therefrom and a large balcony above which would have the capacity to seat 200 people.

The basement which would be entirely above ground, reaching to a height of 11 feet, is designed as a jail. The plans provide what would seem to be ample accommodations for all the different county offices and ample vault room in which to store the county records.

Mr. Sankey has received a good many compliments on his design. The commissioners, it is said, are quite favorably impressed with the plans. The board at its next meeting May 18th, will likely officially consider the proposition to build a new court house. Mr. Sankey estimates the cost of construction according to his plans at $65,000.

To Sink Artesian Wells.

E. F. Burt, who in connection with W. T. Clark, was engaged in sinking artesian wells in the Moxee a few years ago, was over from Seattle recently. While here he made arrangements with Mr. Waring, the Seattle man who owns a considerable body of land near White Bluffs, to begin work on the uncompleted well near that place which is now down about 400 feet. It is expected therefore, that work will be resumed on the well within a very short time.

Mr. Burt will be remembered by many of the older residents here as among the first of the experimenters to procure water in the Moxee in the early nineties. Since leaving here in 1895 he has spent a number of years in Alaska.

To Celebrate the Fourth.

The Band boys are talking of holding a street fair and carnival for July 3, 4 and 5. No definite steps have been taken as yet in the matter but the boys are all enthusiastic over the plan as are everybody else who have been approached on the subject.

If the plan develops a block somewhere just outside the business section of the city will be enclosed and space allotted for booths. Taken altogether it will be the biggest event of the kind ever pulled off in Central Washington. The Yakima Band boys never do anything by halves.

David Longmire and A. E. Treat of the Wenatchee, and Engineer Wands of this city, are up in the Moses Lake country this week looking into the matter of building an irrigation ditch designed to tap Moses Lake, previous mention of which has been made in this paper.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

The Yakima Valley Bank Opens a Savings Department.

The savings department of the Yakima Valley bank is now open for business and deposits will be received from one dollar up, interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum.

Accrued interest will be placed to the credit of depositors semi-annually on the first days of March and September, and if not drawn out, will be added to the interest and draw interest from the date credited.

Pass books and deposit slips will be furnished all depositors free of cost, and the business transacted just the same as a general banking business.

The advantages of this system are manifold. It stimulates the principles of saving and inspires all depositors with the desire to lay away something for future use. It is of inestimable value to the young people for the reason that the system adopted by this bank enables them to become acquainted with the methods of banking, familiar with banks and accustomed to the line of business usually transacted there which is very essential to their business education.

Their accounts will be handled just the same as accounts of merchants or stock men, and they will always be welcome at our bank, the only restriction being that their deposits must not be less than one dollar.

The Yakima Valley bank is owned by Yakima people, and is responsible to the depositors to the extent of $150,000. The funds of this bank are protected by a modern manganese burglar proof safe. It transacts a general banking business and solicits the accounts of farmers, merchants and stock men and is always ready to extend such accommodations to its patrons as may be consistent with the proper management of a conservative banking institution.

Out of town deposits may be remitted by checks, postoffice orders or registered letter.

Very respectfully,
MILES CANNON, Pres.

The Horticultural Union.

A good deal of important business was transacted at the meeting of the Horticultural Union last Saturday afternoon.

By a majority vote of the members present it was decided to merge the union into the corporation. By this method, it is thought, the work of the organization can be very much simplified. The capital stock of the corporation is $4000, divided into 800 shares of $5 each. A number of the members of the old union who are not stockholders in the company are urged to confer with J. M. Brown, the secretary, at once and make arrangements to secure one or more shares of the stock.

A. E. Scolling, one of the three trustees, having been elected to the position of financial agent of the corporation, tendered his resignation as trustee and T. W. Clark was selected to fill the vacancy.

The results secured through co-operation by the fruit growers who were members of the union during the past year have been highly satisfactory and better results are expected for the ensuing year owing to the experience that has been gained. Not only have much better results been obtained for produce but every grower has been enabled to effect a considerable saving through the purchase of needed material in large quantities.

To Boom Yakima.

Northwest Farm and Home, published at North Yakima, is getting out an immense special edition to be sent east for immigration purposes. It will be the most elaborately illustrated descriptive number ever sent out about North Yakima and Yakima county.

Business men are assisting in paying the cost of this issue by liberal advertising and ordering large numbers at 10 cts per copy. The prices usually charged for such editions are from 25 to 35 cents per copy. Get in your orders now. Such industrial papers bring more readers than all other kinds of advertising.

The finest book paper will be used in this issue, and the illustrations are of the highest class.

A similar issue of the Northwest Farmer published at Winnipeg, Manitoba, contained 106 pages, in beautiful lithographic cover, was largely instrumental in attracting to Central Canada 100,000 settlers in 1902. 3214

Bottling Works Changes Hands.

Richard Strobach last Saturday sold the plant of the Yakima Bottling works to Harry D. Baylor, recently of Boston. The purchaser is also understood to have leased 160 acres of land contiguous to the Ahtanum Soda springs and contemplates making some extensive improvements at that summer resort. He expects to clean up the place and make it more pleasant for the people who go there to spend a portion of the heated season.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Harris.

Mrs. William Harris of Wide Hollow died suddenly about 9 o'clock Wednesday evening after a lingering illness. The funeral was held from the family residence Friday at 11 a. m.

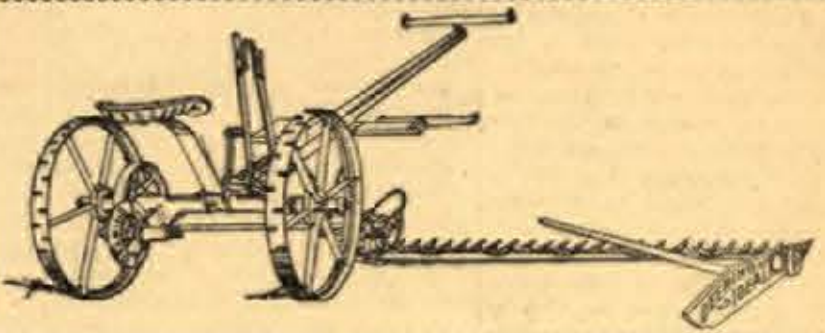

Deceased had been in poor health since meeting with an accident by being thrown from a wagon by a runaway team about two years ago. She leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter to mourn her loss.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

Our local contemporaries, the Republic and Herald, fairly boil and sloop over this week in expressing their disapproval of the action taken by a majority of the city council Monday night in the passage of two ordinances, the effect of which, if they stand, will be to increase the license fee of theaters in this city from $100 to $250 per annum and the fee to be paid by bill-posters from $10 to $150 per annum. As may be seen in the proceedings of the city council, published in another column, this action was taken by a majority of the council over a vigorous protest made by Mr. Cort of Seattle, who is presumed to be the owner of Larson's theater and his local manager, Mr. Fournier, both of whom have gone on record as asserting publicly that if these ordinances were passed the former would close his theater here and the latter would be forced to take down his numerous bill-boards which now ornament vacant lots in almost every conceivable spot to be found in the business section of the city.

The Democrat is not prepared to state whether the proposed license fee for theaters is exorbitant or not, as we have no data at hand on which to base an intelligent opinion. To a man up a tree, however, who goes by what he sees, such a fee does not seem to be unreasonable, no matter what other cities may or may not exact for a similar privilege. The fact that 40 show companies have played in this city during the past year would indicate that the proposed license is not excessive. At only $5 each the sum of $200 might have been collected the past year without apparently working a hardship on anybody.

As for the bill-posting proposition that is, as everybody knows, an easier nut to crack. If the council has erred in fixing upon a proper sum as a license fee for bill-posting it has certainly been on the side of moderation and leniency. It is said that in a great many cities bill-boards are not allowed to stand at all as they are not only regarded as an eyesore but as a menace to public safety in view of the fact that a strong wind at any time is apt to blow a board down and perhaps kill a chance passerby.

The Democrat cannot subscribe to the opinion that the pitiful sum of $10 per annum is an ample fee for the exercise of this valuable privilege in a five town like North Yakima. Our friend, Mr. Fournier, may not agree with us, but then Mr. Fournier is an interested party and can hardly be looked to for an unbiased opinion.

We do not believe that the city council had in view any other object than the public good when it passed these ordinances. The members of that body haven't got it in for somebody as the local newspapers and a few citizens evidently assume. The city's expenses are heavy and it is the duty of the council to secure sufficient revenue to pay them. When the council is doing the best it can in the public interest it ought to have and is entitled to the support of every taxpaying citizen.

Let the people of this city sit in judgment on the action of the council in this matter and take all the facts into consideration. They should not, however, permit themselves to be influenced by biased or half-baked newspaper criticism.

The management of the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis has sent us a very courteous and pressing invitation to be present at the dedicatory exercises to be held in that city May 1 and 2. In acknowledging the receipt of the invitation and expressing our regrets we could not refrain from informing our polite correspondent that the time was too short and that walking was rather crowded. In addition we suggested that if the average country editor gets an opportunity to see the real thing in 1904 he may consider himself in big luck.

Benson, the self-confessed murderer of Deputy Sheriff Morrell in the county jail at Olympia is declared guilty of manslaughter by a jury at the state capital this week, the maximum penalty for which is 20 years imprisonment. It is just this sort of monkeying with justice that brings the law's methods into contempt with many people. In this case the prisoner himself was fair enough to admit that he ought to be hanged and that he had expected no other kind of a sentence, an opinion which the reading public, no doubt, shared with him.

Isn't it about time for the State Fair commission to pull itself together and get down to business? It is a month late now in getting started. It would look as though too big a dose of politics had been injected into the commission,

The Seattle democrats on the 13th celebrated the birthday anniversary of Thomas Jefferson most enthusiastically and in good old fashioned style. The speeches that were made on the whole were good and smacked of pure democracy. The so called reorganizers are welcome to all the comfort they can get out of that meeting.

It's worth while to note that an effort was made at the Seattle banquet to launch a presidential boom in this state for William Randolph Hearst and a gubernatorial boom for ex-Senator George Turner. Both names were greeted at the banquet with the greatest enthusiasm and an organized effort is to be made, it seems, to deliver the delegation from Washington to the former a year hence. As for Senator Turner, that distinguished gentleman needs no boom to procure for him the democratic nomination for governor of this state next year, for it is simply a question of his acceptance of the honor.

The selection of a candidate for the presidency at this time to be supported by the democracy of this state seems rather premature, especially so in view of the fact that things are pretty badly mixed just now in the field of politics.

A new, and we might add, a large crop of candidates is coming to the front to seek the presidential nomination, besides a number of possible dark horses are likely to be in evidence. Aside from Hearst of San Francisco and New York Johnson of Ohio, Harrison of Illinois, there is Stone of Missouri, and others, Bryan being generally regarded as out of the race. Besides the above list there are a number of other candidates all of whom are eastern men, the possibility of the nomination of any one of whom depends upon the ability of the reorganizers, as they call themselves, to control the national party convention. In case they are able to do so, which seems unlikely, then Hill and Parker of New York, Olney of Massachusetts or Gorman of Maryland would likely be named to say nothing about the sage of Princeton, who might perhaps conclude to again project himself into the light.

The Seattle democrats did well in sounding the keynote of what the policy of the party is to be in this state on the question of party principles. No backward step will be taken, that much is certain. The party in Washington will stand for democracy and will have none of the bogus kind.

However, the selection of a state candidate at this early stage of the game is a horse of a different color. The rank and file of the party is not kicking on Mr. Hearst but is waiting for more light on the subject. They want to make sure that the man who is to lead them is capable of leading and will lead in the right direction. There is no use in going off at half-cocked in a matter of such grave importance.

It is a matter of deep regret with every sincere tariff reformer in this country that President Roosevelt has changed his views, or rather his policy, regarding the necessity of tariff reduction. Until quite recently the "strenuous" statesman throughout his entire political career has preached and advocated both by voice and pen tariff reduction, especially on wares competing with trust made goods. He has thundered so long and so loud on the evils of extreme protection that he must find himself in a most awkward position now that he has adopted the Hanna slogan of "stand pat," as is indicated by his recent speeches.

There is no good reason to believe that "Teddy" has really experienced a change of heart on this momentous question. It is more reasonable to believe that he has consented to abide by the advice of his friends and quit monkeying with the trust buzz saw. No one knows better than he what a tremendous influence the trusts and protected interests generally wield in the inner councils of the republican party and how exceedingly interesting they might make matters for him should he elect to openly fight them.

The president will therefore doubtless keep on talking glittering generalities on that subject. He will continue to talk about good trusts and bad trusts, just as though any such distinction ought to be made. This may be good politics but it is hardly good statesmanship. The people would prefer to hear "Teddy" talk what he really believes.

The regents of the State Agricultural college at Pullman have announced their intention of establishing a chair of domestic economy, which means in plain English that they propose to give the girl students at that institution an opportunity to learn the fine art of house-keeping.

This is as it should be and it is to be hoped that the idea will work out as planned. A thorough and practical course in domestic economy, whether it be secured at home or in an industrial school, ought to be as much a part of the young woman's education as a legitimate means of earning a livelihood should be of every young man's.

Rome, "the eternal city," once the proud mistress of the world, celebrated her birthday anniversary on the 21st of this month. According to history, that fades into tradition, Rome was on that day just 2,656 years old. The pope, the king and the mayor of Rome, Prince Colonna, received many congratulatory telegrams from many different parts of the world in recognition of the event.

The Democrat is in receipt of No. 1, Vol. 1 of "The Wireless," the first paper ever published which receives its news dispatches by the new system of wireless telegraphy. The paper is owned by Gen. Harrison Grey Otis, editor and publisher of the Los Angeles Times. "The Wireless" is a daily printed at the little town of Avalon on the island of Santa Catalina, sometimes called the "enchanted isle" which is located in the Pacific ocean about 50 miles distant from Los Angeles.

A paper published under such conditions is of course a great novelty now but at the end of another decade or in less time wireless telegraphy will without doubt be regarded as a very ordinary adjunct to commercial life.

Mr. BRYAN's remark about the narrow escape he made from naming a child after Cleveland, has brought out the information that one democratic father who named his son after Cleveland changed it when Cleveland went over to the republican party, and now a Kentucky democrat reports that he is going to try to get his boy's name—Grover—changed and he is exceedingly thankful that he did not take any more of the name. This shows how risky it is to name a child after a public man while the man is alive.—The Commoner.

Local statesmen are already figuring on the defeat of Governor McBride. A delegation that will not vote for him is being formed in a quiet way for the next state convention of republicans.

Hardly a week passes that there is not a gathering of republican leaders in Seattle or somewhere else, who have for their topic of discussion ways and means for putting the governor on the mat.—Everett Times.

Yes, and what is more, they are going to do it, too.

The congratulations offered to Mr. Hill by the Minnesota legislature would have more effect of sincerity if that body should stop the foolish political crusade on his interests which it has for some time both fathered and fostered.—Seattle P.-L.

Now wouldn't that kill you? This from the leading republican organ of the state.

The Public Debt.

A statement issued by the secretary of the treasury shows that on March 31 the total national debt less cash in the treasury amounted to $939,605,919. This represented an increase during the month of March amounting to $1,631,021. In this statement the national debt is recapitulated as follows: Interest bearing debt, $914,451,370; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity $1,230,100; debt bearing no interest, $526,754,437; total, $1,812,515,906. This amount, however, does not include $890,007,050 in certificates and treasury notes outstanding, which are offset by an equal amount of coin on hand, held for their redemption. The cash in the treasury is classified as follows: Reserve fund, $150,000,000; trust funds, $890,007,069; general fund, $165,317,767; in national bank depositories, $130,150,488; total, $1,335,375,325; against which there are demand liabilities outstanding amounting to $982,453,336, leaving a cash balance on hand of $372,921,988. The comparative statement of the government receipts and expenditures show that for the month of March, 1903, the total receipts were 245,435,434, and the disbursements $44,837,587, leaving a surplus for the month of March, 1903, the total receipts were $45,435,434, and the disbursements $44,837,587, leaving a surplus for the month of $447,874. The receipts from the several sources of revenue are given as follows: Customs $28,709,968, increase $2,000,000; internal revenue, $18,823,751, decrease $3,000,000 miscellaneous $2,901,715, increase $4000. The expenditures on account of the war department were $12,278,918, increase $2,000,000; navy $7,374,844, increase $1,200,000. For the last nine months the receipts exceeded the expenditures by $33,829,225.—The Commoner.

A Voice from Europe.

The Financial Chronicle of London, in its issue of February 3 last, contains the report of a meeting of the stockholders of the London Trading Bank (limited.) Mr. Wightman Cooper, president of the bank, in moving the adoption of the report and accounts, made some remarks in regard to the silver question. The following is a quotation from his speech as it appears in the Financial Chronicle: "Continuing, he said that he desired to make a few special observations upon that occasion in regard to silver. There seemed to be a need of more metallic money. Banking had to some degree saved the circulation of metal, but its usefulness in that direction had now about reached its limit. Although we were steadily adding to the supply of gold and silver, still its production was out of all proportion to the world's demand, hence the greed of nations to possess more gold-fields. (Hear, hear) The millions of people in the east who relied upon America and Australia for their supply of silver might, at no distant date, be cut short of metal by the closing of the mines, due to displacing the silver standard for gold. The falling price of silver was causing serious damage to commerce in many parts of the world, especially so in China, where the injustice was felt of having to pay the war indemnity on a gold basis with a silver currency, and some claim for exemption in this connection was, he believed, being made. It was a well-known fact that the great silver deposits of the world were worked out, and as the silver area was small as compared with the gold area it would appear safe and wise to open the Indian and American mints to the free coinage of silver on the terms that prevailed previous to the movement against silver, which had resulted in cheapening the bullion value and upsetting our business relations with silver-using countries and so disturbing the power of exchange."

There were no applicants for this appointment from either Yakima or Kittitas counties.

YAKIMA MARKET REPORT.

CORRECTED EVERY FRIDAY.

An increased demand for potatoes and onions has been felt this week, a welcome to the producer who has wintered these commodities. One sale of hops, 119 bales, has been reported, 17c per pound. This is said to have been a case of force. Growers hold firm at higher prices, in spite of letters to factors quoting lower figures than 20 cents.

Wains Without Crutches.

I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed. C. Nod, lowaville, Sedgewick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm."

THE CITY LAWMAKERS.

A Lively Session of the City Dads Monday Night.

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the city council was held Monday night. In the absence of Mayor Shaw Councilman Switzer presided, other councilmen present being Fisher, Aikins, Liggett, Wyman and Keck. Clerk Doust read the minutes of the preceding meeting which were approved.

The petition of Frank D. Black was read asking for the vacation of the plat which included blocks 53 and 57 and the west 13 feet of block 52, Kerr's villa tracts. A resolution was passed setting May 9 as the time of hearing remonstrances to the granting of the petition.

A claim was read from Richard Barry drawn up by his attorneys, Thompson & Allen, demanding damages from the city in the sum of $10,000. The claimant alleges that while incarcerated in the city jail about three weeks ago he was subjected to brutal and inhuman treatment at the hands of a fellow prisoner while in an intoxicated condition. The ground of the complaint is that the city was negligent. City Attorney Snyder advised the council to reject the claim which was promptly done on motion.

A remonstrance was read from the owners of 29 out of 144 lots on South First street against the macadamizing of that thoroughfare in addition to the grading of the same. The remonstrance was accepted and the attorney instructed to draw a new resolution providing only for the grading of that street.

Attorney Snively addressed the council on the subject of Cherry avenue. He stated that he had received deeds for the right-of-way from all but two of the abutting property owners. He asked that the council order suits brought to condemn the necessary right-of-way from the two property owners and the council so ordered.

The street and ditch committee reported in favor of accepting the sidewalk constructed on South Second street by J. W. Kauffman, also on the grading of Wenas avenue of which Dingle & Dimmick were the contractors. On motion these reports were accepted and the clerk instructed to prepare the assessment rolls.

A petition was read from property owners on Seventh street asking for a sewer between D and Beach. Referred to street and ditch committee.

A petition was read from S. R. Leeper of Eastern addition asking for the remittance of $15, back taxes. On the advice of the city attorney the petition was denied.

An ordinance was then read to amend section 15 of the general license ordinance. The new ordinance provides for increasing the license on theaters from $100 to $250 per annum. After the first reading of the ordinance a rather stormy scene ensued. Edward Fournier, manager of Larson's theater, was recognized by the acting mayor and bitterly protested against the passage of the ordinance and asserted that the enactment of the ordinance would have the effect of closing his play house. At Mr. Fournier's request a letter was read from Mr. Cort of Seattle, the owner, protesting vigorously against the proposed increase in the license fee. Councilman Fisher defended the ordinance, stating that the city was in need of more revenue and that the present license fee of $100 was ridiculously small. Councilman Liggett wanted the ordinance laid over but to this Fisher objected and demanded a roll call on final passage. The ordinance was passed by the following vote: Ayes, Fisher, Aikins, Keck and Switzer; Noes, Liggett and Wyman.

An ordinance was then read amending section 12 of the general license ordinance, which relates to bill-posting. The effect of the new ordinance is to raise the license fee for bill-posting from $10 per annum to $150. Mr. Fournier was again promptly on his feet to file a remonstrance, asserting that the proposed fee was exorbitant. Mr. Fisher coolly replied that "inasmuch as the bill board business seemed to be one of the best paying grafts in town he believed that it ought to contribute more to the city's revenue and that since Mr. Fournier had determined to quit the theatrical business anyway, the raise would not affect him." This sally caused everybody in the council room to smile and paved the way for the passage of the ordinance which went through by the same vote as did the previous one.

The council then listened for the next half hour to grievances. Mr. Hixon of Selah made a vigorous plea for the return of a $5 fine which he had paid into the city treasury for having violated the ordinance forbidding the leading of horses on a public sidewalk. On a vote the council refused the request.

Mr. —, who operates a green house in the northwestern part of the town, then secured the floor and made an interesting quarter of an hour talk on the necessity of a railroad crossing at Quince street which he asserted the council had ordered to be put in last December. After listening patiently the council instructed the clerk and attorney to inform the railway officials that the crossing must be put in at once.

After the transaction of some routine business the council then adjourned.

Call in and see our new wheels, of the 1903 pattern. A. S. Dam, Clogg block.

Beauty and Strength

Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—men, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion, depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil, by eating nourishing food, and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten.

Baseball News.

For the second time this season the Hoppickers have beaten the Ellensburgers. Last Sunday's game on the home grounds was not a brilliant exhibition of the national game, but it was not without its points of interest. From the pitcher's viewpoint it was a battle of southpaw twirlers, in which Klinkhammer had somewhat the best of it. Klink struck out five and gave one base on balls. Denzer struck out three. The number of hits on both sides was the same. The ball was kept moving all the time. In addition to the total of 22 hits six sacrifices were made, of which the locals made five. The Hoppickers hit the ball with the most frequency for good distances, a fact which is evidenced by the nine put outs credited to Davis-court, Ellensburg's left fielder, and one to their centerfielder. The visitors offered the more grounders as is seen in Gibson's record of 11 put-outs at first base. The score:

Hoppickers	9	11	5
Ellensburg	5	11	8

The Hoppickers left last evening for Walla Walla where they play this afternoon and tomorrow. A game has been arranged with Ellensburg here one week from tomorrow.

Sunday's Shooting Match.

Handicapped heavily every since the beginning of the season, Geo. Stacy failed to get back the medal, lost at the initial shoot of the local gun club, until last Sunday. All the time since the first day Stacy has been shooting steadily and the members have been falling into their true places in the handicap scheme. Stacy won back the badge with the best score, 24 out of 25 targets, and just to show that it was not a fluke repeated the performance later in the day. Of the five men who faced the traps for the championship event all but Walker had graduated into scratch place. Walker had three extra birds to shoot at and then could do no better than land in second place. The score: Stacy 24, Walker 22, Pennington 21, Fisher 19, Sitton 14. A number of events at doubles were shot, Fisher being easily the winner, getting nine out of ten in one event. Pennington also did well in the doubles. Hereafter shooting will be held at 9:30 in the morning.

A Tribute to Woman.

The best response to any toast at the semi-centennial of Washington Territory was delivered at the banquet, by Hon. Will E. Humphries, on the evening of March 23. After a humorous reference to the anomaly of the choice falling upon him to respond to a sentiment of which it would be expected he had only the experience of an "old, bald-headed bachelor," he delivered the following elegant peroration to woman:

"Turning from jest to earnest, to produce great men we must produce great women; few great men have great sons, all great sons have great mothers."

"The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world." What there is good in us woman develops; what there is weak, she strengthens; what there is bad she helps to repress; "Woman has ever been the chiefest inspiration of the poet, the most beautiful model of the sculptor, the most perfect subject of the painter, the grandest theme of the orator; but her beauties, her virtues, her loveliness, are beyond the poet's praise, the sculptor's skill, the painter's power, the orator's eloquence. Her gentle influence standing high above all things else in the potent power that makes and molds man's destiny. Her image is in the heart and mind of all the mighty workers of the world."

"O woman! Thou art indeed the best and best of all of God's gifts. Thou art with us always from the cradle to the grave. Thou dost endow the dimpled babe with the measureless wealth of a mother's love. At thy knee we learned to kiss our earliest prayer. Thy gentle patient love dispels all our little ills in the happy days of childhood. In youth thou wert our sweetheart, the purest, gentlest memory of our world. In manhood thou art the sharer of all our triumphs and defeats, in all our griefs and joys, in all our ecstasies and tears. Oh, woman, thou art the inspiration the sweetness and the perfume of life, and when at last the grim conqueror stills our tired hearts, bending over the coffin of him that is no more, upon 'death's pallid lips thou dost give love's last and holiest kiss."

"May God bless you ever and always."

Not a Cheap Show.

Beatty Bros are the gentlemen that gave the first moving picture show ever given in Colorado. New Mexico, Arizona, California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, North Dakota, Minnesota, Idaho and Utah. These gentlemen have visited every state and Canada and Old Mexico. It is an acknowledged fact that Beatty Bros. have the only six picture machines on earth with Diamond Projecting Lens, which they had made to order in July, 1902, by Thos. H. Edison. These machines have six sprockets which do away with all that quiver. Beatty Bros. have all their pictures made to order and a majority colored. Beatty Bros. carry the latest at any and all times, both in moving pictures and illustrated songs. Beatty Bros. are certainly among the most successful showmen on the road as they rent all opera houses outright. This show is not to be classed with the cheap picture shows of which we have had so many. Beatty Bros. play all cities on a guarantee that they give entire satisfaction or money refunded by manager of the opera house. Larson's Theatre, Friday, May 1. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents.
