OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

IN another column we publish the legislative record of George Herbert Baker, of Goldendale, republican candidate for joint senator. In showing up the official record of this gentleman we do so, not from any personal feeling of hostility to the candidate, but from a sense of duty to our readers. When a man puts himself forward for public position he should expect to stand upon his official record, if he has one, and must also expect that the people will discuss his qualifications to serve them, from the standpoint of that record. For many years the farmers of this valley have been ground down by the extortionate tolls charged on their products, by the Northern Pacific company; for years they have appealed to the different legislatures for relief, but through the sinister influences of the great octopus their prayers have not been granted. A few corrupt men in the last senate stood in the way at the crucial moment, and prevented justice from being done, but these men are now politically dead, and are out of power, and can do no more harm. The fusion party if successful in this election, will positively grant relief to the people. It is not only idle but perfectly absurd, to expect any help in this matter from the corporation ridden republican party of this state, much less from such a man as Mr. Baker of Goldendale, whose record is as black as night on this all important question. That gentleman, we are informed, went to Olympia two years ago, with the avowed intention of voting against any "bill offered by a pop," without regard to the justice of the measure or the misery he might inflict on the suffering people. From a perusal of the House-Journal we are convinced that this amateur statesman kept his word, for he left behind him one of the blackest and most damnable corporation records, that ever after turned up to plague a man. We believe that all the latent virtue, in the great majority of the voters of Yakima county, will assert itself with such force on election day, that the political ambition of this man will be forever laid at rest.

UNDER the title headed "Judgment demanded", we publish this week the legal demand of A. B. Flint et-al on the republican County Central Committee for the payment of $100. which that organization through its spokesman, Mr. Miles Cannon is said to have offered to any person who could discover any mistake in a certain comparative statement compiled by Messers Kelso and Aumiller, and published in a recent issue of the Yakima Republic. It seems passing strange that these gentleman in making up their wonderful statement, should have failed to charge up against the republican administration such familiar items as a claim of Eddie Kelso for $30. for rent of his typewriter during Halls administration, or for $105.60 which was since paid for Mr. Aumillers labor during the same period. Can Mr. Kelso and Mr. Aumiller regard these glaring errors of theirs, as a recommendation to the voters of Yakima county, that they are sufficiently expert as accountants, to be entrusted with the keeping of the county's records?

THE local gold party seem to be especially anxious at this time to defeat Auditor Flint for re-election, but they are not at all likely to do so, for the reason that all the people, with the exception of a few republican politicians, are thoroughly satisfied with the present splendid administration of that office, and do not want any change this year. Mr. Flint and one deputy have done the work of the office, and done it well, every one having business with the office is struck with the fact that the auditor knows his business, and attends to it faithfully. The people will make no change there this year.

MR. Brooks the fusion senatorial candidate, has won golden opinions since opening his campaign a few days ago in this county. He is an educated and cultured gentleman, and among his intimate friends and neighbors enjoys the reputation of being strictly honest—that is something in a man's favor at any rate. The probabilities are that Mr. Brooks will carry this county by a very emphatic majority.

AS the campaign nears its end the ranks of the People's Party are closing up in preparation for a united charge upon the works of the enemy on November 8. The numerous reports circulated by over anxious republican politicians of defection in the ranks of the fusion party in this county, are for the most part false. The Peoples Party ticket is composed entirely of good and faithful men, and the individual voters of that party are not justified in striking any of them down, and attempting to elevate gold standard men in their places. A silver voter cannot do this without losing his good standing in the party of the people.

FOR positive indecency, for venomous slander and for immaculate gall, a weary public is commended to Candidate Cushman. Yakima has seen him, heard him, and is disgusted with him. The people of this town wonder why the republican party had it in for "Yakima" Jones,—that they should handicap the man with such a running mate. Cushman is said to have once been a cowboy, but he must have been driven out of the profession, for brave and generous cowboys would not tolerate such as he. With the bilingsgate of this upstart to aid them, Col. Lewis and W. C. Jones will in all probability go back to congress with largely increased majorities.

THE Republic asks Mr. Brooks the silly question, "Whether if he has not been riding on a free pass ever since he was a member of the legislature" (which was in 1883.) We are authorized to answer for him that he has no pass, and wishes none. And now what about your man Baker? Will he make affidavit that he has had no pass this year? No man can deny but that he faithfully earned one in the last legislature. Why wont the candidate go on the stump and defend his record?

EXPERT Aumiller has made another comparative statement for the Republic this time on the sheriff's office. We lack the space this week to refute some bald statements made therein, but will do so next week. Meantime we would not advise Brer Cannon or any of the other over worked members of the federal brigade, to risk any more of their shekels on the correctness of the statement, until THE EPIGRAM has had an opportunity to look into the matter. One hundred dollars is already due from that source. The people seem to be losing confidence in the Kelso-Aumiller method of book keeping.

ACCOUNTS differ, according to what a paper one reads, of the result of the wordy duel between Col. Lewis and Yakima Jones last Saturday night at Walla Walla. But judging from the fact that the Republic is not doing any bragging on its man this week, is pretty conclusive evidence that the doughty little Col. didnt get the worse of it.

There will also be submitted to the vote of the people the following proposed amendments to the State Constitution, to-wit:

It is hereby certified that in accordance with an act of the legislature approved March 11, 1897, entitled "An act providing for the constitutional amendment conferring the elective franchise on women," the following proposed amendment to the constitution is to be voted on at the general election to be held on November 8, 1898, and shall be placed upon the official ballot as provided in said amendment:

Section 9, article 6 of the constitution shall read as follows:

Sec. 9.—The elective franchise shall never be denied any person on account of sex, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this constitution.

At the general election to be held in November, 1898, the amendment hereinbefore mentioned shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state of Washington for their approval, and there shall be printed on all the ballots provided for said election the words:

"For the proposed amendment to article 6 of the constitution, conferring the elective franchise on women."

"Against the proposed amendment to article 6 of the constitution, conferring the elective franchise on women."

It is hereby certified that in accordance with an act of the legislature approved March 16, 1897, entitled "An act to provide for voting on a constitutional amendment at the general election to be held in November, 1898, relative to taxation," the following proposed amendment to the constitution is to be voted on at the general election to be held on November 8, 1898, and shall be placed upon the official ballot as provided in said amendment:

Section 2 of article 7 of the constitution of the state of Washington shall be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2.—The legislature shall provide by law a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation on all property in the state according to its value in money, and shall prescribe such regulations by general law as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to his or her or its property; provided, that a deduction of debts from credits may be authorized; provided further that it shall be optional with each municipal corporation in the state to fix and determine by majority vote of the qualified electors voting thereon the class or classes of property upon which taxes for municipal purposes shall be levied, which tax shall be uniform as to persons and class; provided still further that the property of the United States and the state, counties, school districts and other municipal corporations, and such other property as the legislature may by general laws provide, may be exempt from taxation.

There shall be printed on each of the ballots supplied for the next general election the words "For proposed amendment to section 2, article 7 of constitution, relative to taxation."

A GOOD MEETING.

Colby, Jory and Brooks Address the People.

The rally of the fusion party in this city on Tuesday evening was a grand success. Before the hour of meeting nearly all the seats in the house were full of people, many of whom had come from a considerable distance to see and hear the two legislative candidates. F. H. Colby the popular candidate of the fusionists for representative was first introduced and for three quarters of an hour discussed state and county issues in a most masterly manner. In fact Mr. Colby demonstrated thoroughly to any carping critics of the opposition who were in the audience that he was a thorough student of the science of government and that he had the faculty of communicating his facts to his audience in a clear and forcible manner. Mr. Colby expressed his views on the railroad question in a clear and unmistakable manner and pledged himself if elected to do his utmost to give the people the desired relief. He de- c- d- s- a- m- o- s- t- u- q- a- i- e- d- falsehood, the report circulated among republicans that he was pledged in favor of any senatorial candidate. Ex representative Jory was then introduced by chairman Proble, and for the space of twenty minutes, that well known gentleman regaled the audience by reading from the House Journal, the votes of joint senatorial candidate G. H. Baker on the different railroad bills before the last legislature. During the progress of the reading the ex-representative cracked several jokes at the expense of the railroad candidate, which were highly appreciated. At the conclusion of Mr. Jory's remarks the chairman introduced the speaker of the evening Mr. N. B. Brooks, of Goldendale, candidate for joint senator. Mr. Brooks, who is a very prepossessing looking man, by a few pertinent opening remarks, soon put himself on good terms with his audience, and was given good attention throughout. Mr. Brooks is an entertaining and witty speaker, yet earnest and impressive. He held the position of the gold standard republicans up to scorn and ridicule. He created laughter by relating how he and Yakima Jones after the Spokane convention of 1894, had went out together in the state and preached the doctrine of free silver, to all the people amid the huzzahs and hurrahs of the republican party. He (Brooks) was still preaching the same doctrine, but Jones was now preaching a doctrine utterly foreign, which had changed in their principles, he or Jones? Touching on the railroad question he said that the people of this valley were suffering greatly from the extortion practiced upon them by the N. P. and that if it should be his good fortune to be elected to the senate, he would pledge himself to do everything in his power to aid in lowering the rates. Regarding his opponent Mr. Baker, the speaker said they were personally friends and that he wished Baker well in everything, except politics. Baker's record in the house however was now public property and he claimed the right to discuss it. Baker had went to Olympia determined to vote against everything offered by Pops, and had made a holy mess of it. Mr. Brooks kept his audience in good humor during the progress of his speech, and at its conclusion a great many rushed forward to shake hands and proffer him their support.

Selah Notes.

Potato digging is the order of the day, about 50 men are employed in the various potato fields of this valley. Shippers are complaining for the want of cars, none being obtainable at present.

The work on the approaches to the new railroad bridge across Yakima river, is being pushed with vigor, about ninety men being employed.

Road Supervisor, Million has a crew of men repairing and cleaning the grade between this valley and the Natchez river bridge.

Messers W. P. Edwards and Miles Barager are still at Mabton, employed on the new county bridge at that place.

P. T. Contine has leased the Glead ranch, in this valley for a term of years.

Taylor brothers have been awarded the contract to furnish and deliver the hay for the railroad construction camp.

Bills are out announcing a political meeting at Selah school house, Saturday night, Messers Brooks and Jory to be the speakers, it will undoubtedly be the best meeting of the season. Your correspondent predicts a large attendance, and a good majority for the fusion ticket from this precinct.

Our school is receiving a good and satisfactory attendance of scholars, and parents are all equally pleased with the teacher.

Preparations are being made for a basket social on Nov. 11th, at which time the select few remaining in our bachelors club will undoubtedly compete for the young ladies' baskets as usual.

Notice to Contractors.

Notice is hereby given that the City of North Yakima will let a contract for the construction of a sidewalk along the west side of Seventh Street in front of lots No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 in Block No. 130 in Huson's addition to the city of North Yakima, as the same appears from the plat thereof on file in the office of the County Auditor of Yakima County, Washington, also along the south side of Yakima Avenue in front of lot 8 in block No. 131, in said Huson Addition to North Yakima, according to said plat; said sidewalk to extend eight feet beyond the corner of said block 131 into said Seventh street and eight feet beyond the corner of said block No. 130 into said Yakima Avenue; said sidewalk shall be eight feet in width and laid with boards or planks two inches thick, eight inches wide and eight feet long, surfaced on one side, and resting on three stringers, four inches by six inches; said sidewalk to be laid on the grade marked out and established in front of said lots and lands as the same appears from the grade stake; all material used to be good common fir lumber; said stringers shall be firmly braced and supported and said sidewalk constructed in a good workmanlike and substantial manner. Bidders will be required to bid separately on that portion of sidewalk abutting on the lots and parcels of land and of the sidewalk in the space formed by the junction of two streets; street crossings beyond the termination of sidewalks are not included in the contract; the contractor shall perform all labor and furnish all material.

Sealed proposals for the contract for the above improvement will be received by the City Clerk up to the time bids are opened on the 7th day of November, 1898, at 7:30 p. m.

No bids will be considered by the City Council unless the same is accompanied by a certified check on some bank in said City, for the sum of $10, payable to the order of the City Treasurer, as security that such bidder will enter into a contract with said city in the manner prescribed by law and the ordinances of said city, which said sum will be forfeited to said city as liquidated damages for failure so to do.

The contractor will be required to enter into a contract and give bond with approved security as required by laws of 1897, page 57, within three days after notice from the city clerk that the contract has been awarded.

The City Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated at North Yakima, Wash., October 28, 1898. H. B. DOUST,

A ROTTEN RECORD.

Unsavory Showing of Candidate Baker on Railroad and General Legislation, While a Member of the Last Legislature.

Below we print the record of George Herbert Baker on important legislation, in which the people of this county feel a deep and vital interest. Never once did this man during the progress of the long fight over in the legislature, ever utter a word, or cast a vote in favor of the poor people of Central Washington who are ground down by the unreasonable exactions of the Northern Pacific. Do the honest farmers of Yakima county who have suffered so long and so much from this grinding octopus, want a servile agent of this giant corporation to represent them in the senate; and do the railroad's bidding for four long years, simply because he may happen to belong to the same party as themselves? If they do, they ought to vote for Mr. Baker. But let them first read his record on railroad legislation which we have copied from the official House Journal.

House Bill No. 420, page 677—a bill known as the "three-cent passenger rate bill" passed, ayes 59; noes 5. Absent or not voting, 14; 57 fusionist voted for the bill and 2 republicans. THE NAME OF G. H. BAKER WAS NOT AMONG THOSE SUPPORTING THE BILL.

House Bill No. 417, page 560. A bill for the reduction of freight rates. Passed the house, ayes, 59; noes, 17. Absent or not voting 2. Only one republican, Libby, of Jefferson county, voted for the bill. BAKER AND ALL OTHER REPUBLICANS VOTED AGAINST THE BILL.

House Bill No. 176, page 296. A bill to prevent public officials from riding on passes, in accordance with the state constitution. Passed the house, ayes 65; noes, 8. Absent or not voting 5; 4 republicans voted in favor of the bill. BAKER DODGED THE VOTE.

House Bill No. 54, page 928. A bill to compel railroads to maintain cross ties. Lost—BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 99, page 406. A bill to compel railroads to put in transfer switches. Passed house. BAKER AND TWO OTHER REPUBLICANS VOTED NO.

Senate bill No. 141, page 876. A bill to exempt executions. Passed house. BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 398, by Eugene Way, providing for submission of constitutional amendment. BAKER VOTED FOR IT. (This is what the republicans call the single tax amendment.)

House Bill No. 517, page 902. A bill to regulate telegraph charges. Passed house. BAKER VOTING NO.

House Bill No. 244, page 431. A bill to prevent usury. Passed house. BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 447, page 783. A bill to compel payment of wages is lawful money. Passed house. BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 151, page 890. Passed. BAKER VOTED NO.

House Bill No. 418. A bill to regulate and control insurance companies. Passed. BAKER VOTED NO.

And this is only a part of Statesman Baker's unsavory record.

A STATESMANLIKE ADDRESS.

Senator Turner's Sensible Talk to Yakima Voters.

United States Senator, George Turner made a masterly address to the people of Yakima on Friday evening last at the court house which was highly appreciated and well attended, despite the fact that there were several other attractions billed for that evening. The distinguished senator in beginning his speech, alluded to his former residence in this county, and the feeling of affection that he had ever felt for the people of Yakima. Then for over two hours the speaker held the close attention of his audience while he reviewed the political situation in detail. The basic principle of fusion or union of the reform forces he said, has for its motive, patriotism and love of country. It had cost him a great effort two years ago to break with the republican party which he had dearly loved all his life, but when that party repudiated its lifelong principles, which he had taught himself to believe was right, and at the behest of the money changers, enunciated an entirely new set of principles, which were prejudicial to the best interests of the American people, he had been forced to sever old party ties and form new ones.

The senator then reviewed the action of the different national conventions, saying that the democratic convention was one of the grandest bodies of men that had ever assembled, where the Cleveland's, the Hill's and the Whitney's had been completely unhorsed, and that matchless young statesman' Bryan been given his commission as leader. It was the only case in history where a party had cleansed and purified itself by over throwing a corrupt leadership while in power. The populist national convention had shown its unselfishness and self-abnegation by endorsing Bryan. The speaker said that the gold republican party had basely deserted the great principles laid down by the immortal Lincoln and carried out by the peerless Grant. The party was no longer animated and controlled by patriotic motives, but by selfishness and sordidness and organized greed. These remarks did not apply to the rank and file, but to the leadership of the party. No man could be long in Washington without seeing that Hanna and his associates ruled the party with a rod of iron, and that they received their inspiration from Wall Street. The silver-republican party to day represented all that was worth saving of old republican party principle. The distinguished speaker then paid a handsome compliment to Congressmen Lewis and Jones saying that both gentlemen had worked hard for their constituents and had commanded much recognition for men in their first term. Coming to state matters, the senator paid a warm tribute to Gov. Rogers for the masterly manner in which he had performed the duties of his office. The governor had made a few enemies perhaps, but it was because he had the courage to say no, when it was his duty to say no. The present state government had greatly retrenched, and was rapidly paying off the great debt incurred by extravagant and corrupt republican administration. Had there not been a change of administration the state and many counties therein would have soon been bankrupt. The speaker touched on the war question at some length, saying that the conduct of the war department had been marked by gross incompetency and favoritism, and that the suffering of the soldiers was due to the incompetence of staff officers appointed on account of their pull. The statesmanlike and patriotic address of Senator Turner was liberally applauded throughout, and voted a great success by all who had the good fortune to hear him.

A Windy and Vulgar Discourse.

Congressional cand date Cushman and spellbinder Humphrey occupied the boards at Mason's opera house on Saturday night, and in highly abusive and long-winded harangues, regaled a fair audience of the faithful until a late hour. There was nothing in the talk of either, savoring of argument on the money question, the great central issue, now before the people. Their speeches were mainly devoted to coarse and vulgar abuse of Senator Turner, Congressmen Lewis and Jones and the entire fusion party. Lewis and Turner were particularly denounced as shameless liars, and traitors, because of their scathing criticism of the national administration for its conduct of the war. Cushman in beginning reminded his audience of the chilling frost he had received in Yakima two years ago, and thanked God that he had now a republican audience, (which in the main was true, as but few fusionist went to hear him.) Cushman took the ground that criticism of President McKinley and his government, during the late war, was treason, and for that reason the fusion candidates should be politically buried, and he himself elected. In fact the address of the congressional candidate, was in short, merely the loud and boisterous harangue of a self-loving egotist, who in his own mind feels hopeless of an election and is merely trying to get for himself all the advertising he can out of this campaign. A number of people left the hall before the speech was concluded, with a feeling of disgust at the bitter tone of the speakers, and their insulting criticism of our able and popular representatives in congress. At the conclusion of the tiresome harangues, Mr. Edward Whitson, who acted as master of ceremonies proposed three cheers for President McKinley and next congressman Cushman, which the goldite audience, with the assistance of Warhorse Raum gave with a whoop, anxious as they doubtless all were, to have the profitless and flatulent discourse over with. The consensus of opinion among local politicians is, that the Kangaroo candidate positively lost votes while in town.

JUDGMENT ASKED.

Also the Republican County Central Committee to Hand Over That $100.

In the Superior Judgment of the Voters of Yakima County, Washington.

A. B. FLINT, ex rel, The Voters of the State of Washington, }
Plaintiff, vs
E. E. KELSO, and the Republican Party of the State of } Washington. }
Defendant.

Comes now A. B. Flint, Auditor of Yakima County, and candidate for re-election on the Fusion ticket, and for reply to the statement printed in the Yakima Republic, of October 12, alleges as follows:

First—That said Republic's statement was compiled and made by E. E. Kelso and W. J. Aumiller; that Mr. Kelso was deputy county auditor under Mr. Hall, during the time covered by his statement, so far as it relates to the Republican administration referred to in said statement; that Mr. Aumiller was also at various times a special deputy in Mr. Hall's office during the same time.

Second—That Mr. Flint certified to a statement which was published in the Yakima EPIGRAM October 15th, and the same is correct in every particular.

Third—That in that part of the republic's statement dealing with receipts of the Fusion administration for the 18 months ending June 30, 1898, the Kelso-Aumiller statement fails to give credits for but 17 months, and does not include any receipts for June to the Clerk, Sheriff or Auditor, to the total amount of $365.75.

Fourth—In the statement of disbursements for the same period the Kelso-Aumiller statement fails to charge against the fusion administration for the officers of Sheriff, Auditor and Superintendent of Schools the sum of $353.30, which are properly charged against the fusion administration in the Flint statement. This error occurs from failure to charge expense of these offices for the month of June, 1898.

Fifth—The Kelso-Aumiller statement under the head of Superior Court, Justice Court, Court-house and miscellaneous expense charges to fusion administration the sum of $9322.62 more than the Flint statement. This error or mis-statement arises from charging to the Fusion administration claims against the county which were incurred between June 30, 1897 and January 11, 1898, for which, because of the reckless manner in which the county had been run into debt by the republican administration it was beyond the constitutional limit of indebtedness, and the county auditor, Mr. Hall fearing personal liability on his bond, refused to draw warrants for. The bills were therefore audited by the republican board of county commissioners and filed away until such time as a fusion administration could redeem the credit of the county. This was accomplished after about four months of fusion rule and on May 5, 1897 Mr. Flint commenced drawing warrants for these old claims, and while the warrants were drawn by him which should properly have been drawn by Mr. Hall with the aid of his deputy Mr. Kelso, yet none of the indebtedness was incurred during the fusion administration. A bill of particulars containing a few samples of these old claims which Mr. Kelso unjustly charges to the fusion administration is here appended for the inspection of the court, to wit:—Claim No. 1063, E. E. Kelso, for the use of type writer for two years, filed January 2, 1897, audited by republican board of commissioners, and on June 2, 1898, warrant No. 999 drawn for it in the sum of $30.00. The fusion administration is charged with the republican typewriter. Claim of William J. Aumiller for work done as special deputy in auditor's office the latter part of 1896, for which warrant No. 4 was drawn January 11, 1897, for $105.60. Also claim Yakima Republic filed Dec. 2, 1896, for county printing done latter part of 1896, for which warrant was drawn May 5, 1897, in the sum of $61.45. Claim No. 24, Ira P. Englehart for bill of goods bought by him as Prosecuting Attorney, bill dated December 30, 1877 for documentary envelopes $2.75, one dozen globe letter files $5.75 and one ream legal cap $2.75, total $11.25, for which warrant No. 1441 was drawn November 8, 1898. In this bill insult is added to injury for the reason that no part of this bill of goods was ever turned over to his successor.

Sixth—That at various times and at sundry places throughout Yakima county one Miles Cannon, the duly accredited and acting agent of Messrs. Kelso and Aumiller for the dissemination of their statement, offered a prize of $100. which he stated was in the hands of the republican county central committee at North Yakima for any person who could prove that the Kelso-Aumiller statement was incorrect in any particular.

Seventh—That to the best of plaintiff's knowledge and belief said committee has this sum and a much larger sum in its possession. WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against the Kelso-Aumiller statement for the sum of $9322.62 of old republican debts, less the error of $353.30 which they made in the plaintiff's favor, to wit: the sum of $8969.32, also a personal judgment against said Kelso and Aumiller of the voters of this county that they are either very incompetent, where mental exactness is required, or even less competent, where truthful statements are expected. They also further pray that they be protected from the results of their own figures and that they be compelled to add to their statement the sum of $353.30 of expenses of fusion administration which they failed to charge against it.

Plaintiff also demands judgment against said county central committee for the sum of $100.00, and asks said court to retain said committee from blowing in this amount or any part thereof, or in case they have already done so we ask for amandamus to compel Mark Hanna to replenish the truth fund to that extent, so that the only bill for establishing the truth which will probably be presented to the committee shall be paid.

For a judgment that this Kelso-Aumiller statement is entitled to about as much credence as all other republican campaign statements that are being published by their papers and used by their campaign speakers.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Eleven orators of the fusion party are on the stump, in the different precincts of the county.

John Reed is making arrangements to move from his farm near this city to his homestead, near Sunnyside.

D. C. Stone, Harry Stone and D. F. Bunnell spent this week at the mouth of the Yakima river on a goose hunt.

A marriage license was issued on the 21st, by Auditor Flint to E. C. Hardison of this city, and Miss May Hagedorn, of Wenatchee.

Wallace Williams is all smiles these days, by reason of the fact that a little daughter arrived at his house on Tuesday to take up her residence.

Prof. W. L. Connolly while recently in Portland, purchased a large and complete stock of Japanese goods, which he is now daily receiving and placing on his shelves in the Bazar.

The Pulse of New York company gave a very poor performance at Mason's Wednesday night. Aside from the "Thompson Tots," the company was exceedingly "bum."

Ben P. Watson, formerly engaged in the printing business in this city, died in Portland on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Watson was a brother of Mrs. A. F. Snelling, of this city.

The "Economy" notion store opposite THE EPIGRAM office has placed in position a new sign that is very pleasing to the eye. It is the work of W. M. Metcalf, of the Metcalf & Grass paint store.

Claude Briggs was in town a day or two this week and two or three prospective piano buyers are laid up for repairs in consequence, Briggs' talking proclivities is the cause.—Ellensburg Localizer.

E. W. Wooster, formerly employed as an artist on the San Francisco Call and Chronicle, is in the city this week, endeavoring to organize a class in drawing and painting and with good prospects of success.

A large force of men and teams are engaged on the cut-off at the first crossing of the Yakima river, in Selah valley. A substantial iron bridge is being constructed across the Yakima. The work is being rapidly pushed to completion.

D. N. Keene the popular jeweler of First street gave his friends in this city the lurch last week, by suddenly getting married. The bride was Miss B. A. Sullivan, of Waltham Mass., the old home of the groom. The happy couple have commenced housekeeping in the Howlett block.

THE EPIGRAM was in error last week in reporting that Mr. Tony Krober, who last week returned from Klondike was disappointed with that country. On the contrary, Mr. Krober assures us that he has done extremely well in the Klondike, owns some very promising claims there, and proposes to return early in the spring taking with him his family.

One of the leading men of the South Before the War company paid rather dear for an hour's shooting while the company were in this city Friday last. The colored bass singer, with two companions, hired a rig at Tucker's stable and went out into the Wide Hollow district on a shooting excursion. A jackrabbit was started up and the colored man stopped it with a well aimed shot, and on returning to the wagon with his game, the unfired barrel of his shot gun was in some manner discharged, the most of the shot taking effect in the front legs of the horses. One of the animals was so seriously injured that she is probably ruined, while the other is but slightly hurt. The manager for the actor promptly paid the cost of the mare to the owner, and it is quite probable that the next time the colored gentleman goes gunning he will take care that there are no horses in the range of his gun.

"South Before the War" at Mason's Friday night last was a first class show, and played to a good house. Should this company ever return to Yakima the sign S. R. O. will have to be run up, as the seating capacity of the house will be too small to accommodate the people. Taking into consideration that there was another show in town that night and Senator Turner's meeting at the court house, as well as a hundred or more of the pleasure loving people of Yakima off on the Portland excursion, the attendance was remarkably good.

North Yakima is badly in need of tenement houses, at least fifty could be rented now if they could be secured. The reporter met a gentleman this week from Tacoma who is compelled to move his family from the damp climate of the sound to the east side of the mountains, and being unable to secure a house in this city has made arrangements to locate in Ellensburg. This is only one of a great many where we lose people by not being able to house them. Some of our enterprising real estate owners should take this matter in hand.

Mrs. Cary, having decided not to carry cloaks any longer, but enlarge the business in other lines, will sell the entire lot of ladies and children's jackets and capes at cost for cash. Call and get prices.

Pianos, organs, sewing machines, guitars, violins, mandolins and etc sold on the installment plan. Sheet music teachers rate 33 1/3 per cent off. Moore & Moore, the stationers. Ask for tickets on piano when you make your purchase.

Mr. Brooks Talks.

Hon. N. B. Brooks, our next state senator, came from Goldendale on Saturday and addressed the same evening a large and enthusiastic audience at Yakima City. Being interviewed by THE EPIGRAM, Mr. Brooks informed us that it was now reasonably certain that before long his home town, Goldendale would have railroad connection with the outside world. That two or three different transportation companies, with starting points on the Columbia river had now under consideration the building of standard gauge roads into that town, with the probability of a race to see who gets in first. Whichever road builds into Goldendale, in the opinion of Mr. Brooks, will unquestionably build their line on into the Yakima valley, thus giving our farmers the much desired and long prayed for outlet to Portland. Referring to politics, Mr. Brooks said that he felt quite confident of his election. That he knew what the people of Yakima county irrespective of politics, most desired and most needed, was a radical reduction of the present outrageous and extortionate freight and passenger rates. If elected to the senate he would be said, use his best efforts to give our people the much needed relief.

Mr. Brooks appears to be a talented and cultured gentleman, who has the faculty of creating confidence, and of making friends. Mr. Brooks will campaign the county during the next ten days.
