Dear Sir:

I am sending you for your own use, either for your own personal collection or to pass on to a collector friend, a copy of the Treaty Centennial publication authorized by the Yakima Nation.

This is a 64 pp. wraps item I was asked to edit (and write a couple of sections) by the Yakimas. It came up late and my only regret is that we had about 12 days to get it together and to the printer in time for the Centennial of the Treaty Council of Walla Walla.

I have not yet received from Caxtons circulars for my manuscript, Drummers and Dreamers of Priest Rapids (the story of <sup>S</sup> Snowhala the Prophet), but expect they will be waiting for me when I return from a vacation in California in three weeks.

When they do arrive, I hope I may send you a small number for distribution to those you feel would be keenly interested in the book. And when you see the circular, I hope you may feel like placing an order for delivery upon publication. This will enable the publisher to better estimate the number to be turned out.

Sincerely
