Dear friend Click;-

Thank you for your letter of the 14th and the enclosure closing up the bound volume deal.

I appreciate your comment and feel myself that the job will stand up for a long time. It would have been possible to use a cheaper binding, altho the bindery that we placed the order with wouldn't go for the cheap binding because he said it wouldn't last, and a thing of this kind would have to be kept for a long time. So I think they did a very good job and libraries having the volume will find them increasingly valuable. We have only one set left to dispose of, and I can find other things to worry about more than getting rid of the one set.

The clippings you enclosed are very interesting, to say the least.

I am using your story on your forthcoming book in the next issue of News-Letter, which is gradually being put together.

Yours fraternally,

CHAPIN D. FOSTER, Director.
