Dear Mr. Relander:

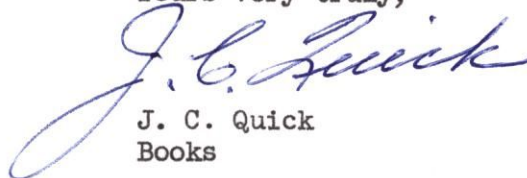

Shortly after you were here and introduced yourself the other day, a customer was inquiring about your pamphlet on the Yakimas.

Could you drop her one in the mail? She wants it for her father who knows some of these indians. Her address is -

Mrs. Warren Taylor
3944 West Rose
Seattle, Washington

Your courtesy and cooperation in this matter will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Relander:

Thank you for all the advance notice that you have sent us on your forthcoming book. I have taken this up with the various display departments throughout the store and at this time it is not feasible to go into this as extensively as you outlined in your letter. We do want your book when it is ready and we will run advertisements on this book, however, we do not think we can handle the Indians and the display at this time.

It is unfortunate because that is what I would like to have done but we cannot do it.

Yours very truly,

James C. Quick
