Mr. Click Relander,
1212 N. 32nd Ave.,
Yakima, Washington.

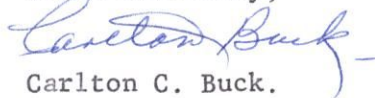

Dear Mr. Relander:

I appreciated the opportunity of meeting you at the Writer's Conference in Seattle. Thanks again for the book.

You remember that I spoke to you about one of my poems, which I wrote after visiting the White Swan Mission. You suggested I send you a copy. You will find one enclosed. This would probably have some local interest with your readers.

If you use the poem, I would appreciate having a copy of the paper in which it appears.

Yours cordially,

Carlton C. Buck.
