The Book of Exodus.

Key text: 3:10. "Come now, therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt."

The book of Genesis ends with "a coffin in Egypt." Everything in Egypt ends in a coffin, but even the coffin suggests hope, for Joseph had predicted that his people should be delivered and they would take his coffin with them. The book of Exodus is a fulfilment of Joseph's prophecy, and on the basis of this purpose we have the following analysis:

I. GOD'S MOTIVE IN DELIVERING HIS PEOPLE.

1. That they might sacrifice unto Him. 3:18.
2. That they might hold a feast. 5:1.
3. That they might be free. 6:6. Bondage described in chapter I.
4. That they might be unburdened. 6:7.
5. That they might be His people. 6:7.
6. That they might inherit a better country. 6:8.
7. That they might serve Him. 7:16.

II. GOD'S METHOD OF DELIVERANCE.

1. Through judgment upon the gods of Egypt. 12:12. Every one of the ten plagues is a judgment upon a false god.
2. Through the blood. 12:3-51.
3. Through the leadership of Moses. 3:10.
  - a. Birth. 2:1-4.
  - b. Preservation. 2:5-10.
  - c. Blunder. 2:11-15. Too much of self.
  - d. Preparation. 2:16-23. In the desert with sheep and nature forty years. Heathen wife a hindrance. 4:24-26.

e. Called. 3 and 4:1-17.

f. Conflict with Pharaoh. 5—

4. Through miracles and means.

Union of the natural and supernatural. The people do their part, while the pillar of cloud and fire leads and the sea divides. 13:17—

III. ISRAEL'S TEMPTATION.

1. To remain in Egypt and sacrifice in the land. 8:25.
2. To remain near by. 8:28.
3. To leave in Egypt the women and children. 10:11.
4. To leave in Egypt their property. 10:24.

IV. GOD'S CARE OF HIS PEOPLE.

1. He guides them. 13:21, 22.
2. He overcomes their foes. 14:23-28.
3. He supplies their physical needs. 15:22-25; 16:12-15; 17:5-8.
4. He instructs them. 20:1-23; 21-23.
5. He ministers to their spiritual necessities. 20:24-26; 24:31; 34-40.
6. He chastens them. 32.

The book ends with the glory of the Lord upon the tabernacle.
