

OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION
SEATTLE, WASH.

REGIONAL OFFICE

March 16, 1953

To the editor:

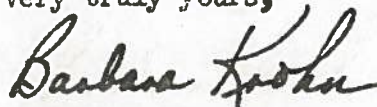

April 30, as you know, marks the cut-off date of the Defense Production Act, which during more than two years has authorized nationwide price, wage and rent controls. The Office of Price Stabilization is scheduled to close its doors.

At this time, it's appropriate that I tell you I am most grateful for all your assistance during our almost two-years' association.

On behalf of the entire Seattle regional staff, I thank you for your many courtesies to OPS---for using our news releases, following up on the stories which had a local angle, editorializing about whatever action OPS took which you thought was either good or bad.

I wish you and your newspaper a successful and prosperous future, supported by the continued appreciation of the community you serve.

Very truly yours,
