NOTES RE THE MODERATOR AND MEMBERS OF THE PANEL DISCUSSION ON,
"AMERICAN IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CANADIAN TREATY AND INTERTIE"

Tuesday, October 20

NOTE: Please see "Notes on Members of the Treaty Panel" for information on Bonneville Administrator Charles F. Luce who will Moderate this Panel but also be a member of the Treaty Panel on Monday.

ARMOR B. MARTIN

CONSULTING ENGINEER AND GENERAL MANAGER, PACIFIC NORTHWEST
POWER COMPANY
SPOKANE, WASHINGTON

ARMOR B. MARTIN, an electric and gas utility executive for many years, retired in January of 1964 as Vice President of Washington Water Power Company, Spokane, Washington, after having served in several capacities for that organization since 1953. Prior to that time, he served as Chief Engineer for the Montana Power Company at Butte. Currently, Mr. Martin is Consulting Engineer and General Manager of the Pacific Northwest Power Company. As such, he has been closely connected with all phases of the development of power for the Pacific Northwest and is extremely well-informed on the Canadian Treaty and its implementation through the Pacific Northwest - Pacific Southwest Intertie. He received his degree as a mining engineer from the Colorado School of Mines and is a member of the engineering societies AIME, AIEE and ASHRAE. His experience and knowledge of power problems make him a valuable member of this panel.

HOWARD P. ALLEN

VICE PRESIDENT, SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

HOWARD P. ALLEN, has been with Southern California Edison Company at Los Angeles, California, since April of 1954. He has served as Special Assistant to the Vice President, Special Counsel, and became Vice President in April of 1962. Prior to joining the Los Angeles firm he was Assistant Dean and Assistant Professor of Law at the Stanford University Law School.

Mr. Allen passed the California State Bar in January of 1952 and the United States Supreme Court Bar in May of 1958. Being a member of one of the organizations closely associated with plans for and the solution of problems connected with the Pacific Northwest - Pacific Southwest Intertie, Mr. Allen is well-informed on all of its phases and will lend much to this panel discussion.

HOWARD C. ELMORE

ASSISTANT MANAGER AND POWER MANAGER, CHELAN COUNTY PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICT
WENATCHEE, WASHINGTON

HOWARD C. ELMORE, joined the Chelan County Public Utility District in 1954 and is Assistant Manager and Power Manager of that organization with headquarters in Wenatchee, Washington.

He has served on the Northwest Utilities Engineering Group, the Western States Regional Advisory Committee for the Federal Power Commission National Power Survey and on the Northwest Utilities represents nearly ninety percent of all the electrical consumers in this region. He is a member of an Advisory Group for Northwest Utilities on the California Intertie and, as such, is well-advised on the subject to be discussed by this panel.

NOTES RE MEMBERS OF THE NEWSPAPER PANELS

CALLISON MARKS has been Chief Editorial Writer of THE SPOKESMAN REVIEW since 1949. During recent years, he has made a continuing study of economic and political complexities of Columbia regional resource development. His editorial interpretations and special articles have kept his readers informed on major projects and proposals vital to the Northwest economy. Marks will be a member of both newspaper panels during the coming Convention of I. E. W. A. to query participants in the panel discussions.

H. SHERMAN MITCHELL is now in his forty-first year of service at the WALLA WALLA UNION-BULLETIN, Walla Walla, Washington. Having worked as a reporter in Anchorage, Alaska and Pendleton, Oregon, he joined the UNION-BULLETIN in the same capacity and became Managing Editor three years later. He has been Editor since July of 1957. He long has been interested in water resources development of the Northwest and has a sentimental connection with the river inasmuch as his Grandfather was a pioneer pilot from Astoria to Portland, Oregon in the 1860's and 1870's. Mitchell will be a member of both newspaper panels during the Thirty-First Annual Meeting of I. E. W. A. to interrogate the panel members.

PADDY SHERMAN is stationed at Victoria, B. C., the Provincial Capital, as Legislative Correspondent and Columnist for THE PROVINCE, the morning newspaper in Vancouver, B. C. Mr. Sherman has been interested and involved in the Columbia River and power affairs for many years, covering events relating to the subject matter in British Columbia, Ottawa, and Washington, D. C. In 1962, he was the author of a four-page article on the Columbia River Treaty which was reprinted and distributed by the Provincial and National Governments in Canada and brought him a $500.00 prize for business writing. Mr. Sherman was a member of our press group at our last Columbia Treaty Panel and will be a valuable member to the newspaper panel this year on the Treaty Monday morning, October 19.

FRANK RUTTER after having become interested in politics, was appointed Legislative Reporter for the VICTORIA TIMES in 1960. Born in Sutton, England, he served in the Royal Air Force and emigrated to North America in 1953 at which time he joined the staff of THE WINNIPEG TRIBUNE, serving in this capacity until moving to British Columbia. During the past four years, Mr. Rutter has followed, "blow-by-blow", the great story of power development on the Columbia River and has written for a number of publications on the subject matter in Canada and the United States. He will be an interesting member of the newspaper panel on the Canadian Treaty on October 19th during I. E. W. A.'s Annual Meeting at Wenatchee, Washington.

WILFRED R. WOODS, Publisher of THE WENATCHEE DAILY WORLD, Wenatchee, Washington, has served in this capacity since 1950, working prior to that time on the news staff of this publication. He is the author of a number of travel booklets and in recent years has played a major role in clarification of public understanding of the Pacific Northwest - Pacific Southwest Intertie through editorial and news policy. Woods will be a member of the newspaper panel during I. E. W. A.'s coming Convention to interrogate members of the Intertie Panel on Tuesday and also will introduce the luncheon speaker the same day.

ROBERT M. BOXBERGER became a reporter in 1956 and joined the staff of THE OREGON JOURNAL, Portland, Oregon, in 1960. He became its Marine Editor in 1963 and has followed all phases of our Program with close scrutiny. Born in California, he was reared in the three Pacific Coast states, receiving his education in San Diego, California. Boxberger will be a member of the newspaper panel during I. E. W. A.'s coming Convention to interrogate members of the Intertie Panel on Tuesday.

INLAND EMPIRE WATERWAYS ASSOCIATION THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL MEETING

Wenatchee, Washington

October 18-19-20, 1964

NOTES ON THE MODERATOR AND MEMBERS OF THE CANADIAN TREATY

PANEL, MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19

HONORABLE IVAN B. WHITE
United States Minister to Canada
Washington, D.C.

HONORABLE IVAN B. WHITE, a Career Minister of the Department of State, first became associated with the Columbia River Treaty in February of 1960 with the opening of formal negotiations. At that time, Mr. White was Deputy Assistant Secretary of State and he continued as a member of the United States negotiating delegation through the Treaty signatures and the Senate hearings in the early part of 1961.

In July 1962, Mr. White was sent to Ottawa as United States Minister to Canada. Following the meeting in the spring of 1963 between President Kennedy and Prime Minister Pearson at Hyannis Port in which agreement was reached to seek a solution to the Columbia problem, Mr. White was designated to head the U. S. negotiating team which, with its Canadian counterpart, concluded the Executive Agreements regarding clarifications of Treaty provisions and the disposition of Canada's entitlement under Article VIII which made possible the exchange of Treaty ratifications. His experience in connection with the Treaty makes him extremely valuable as Moderator of the Panel Discussion on Monday, October 19, during I. E. W. A. 's Thirty-First Annual Meeting in Wenatchee, Washington.

DR. HUGH LLEWELLYN KEENLEYSIDE

Chairman, British Columbia Hydro and Power Authority and Adviser to the Government of British Columbia on Resource Development Policies,
Vancouver, B. C.

DR. HUGH L. KEENLEYSIDE was appointed one of two Chairmen of the British Columbia Hydro and Power Authority in 1962, which organization resulted from the amalgamation of the British Columbia Power Commission and the British Columbia Electric Company, Limited. He has held numerous top official positions in the Canadian Government and has received honorary degrees from a number of Universities in Canada and the United States. Dr. Keenleyside is the author of two books in addition to numerous articles dealing with relations between the United States and Canada and is extremely well-versed on the matter of the completed Treaty.

HONORABLE GORDON J. A. KIDD

Comptroller of Water Rights, Department of Lands, Forests, and Water Resources, Victoria, B. C.

HONORABLE GORDON J. A. KIDD joined the Water Rights Branch of the British Columbia Department of Lands, Forests and Water Resources in 1950. In 1961, he joined the British Columbia Power Commission and held the positions of Manager, Economic Planning Department and Co-ordinator, Columbia River Development activities. In 1963, Mr. Kidd returned to the Water Rights Branch as Deputy Comptroller of Water Rights and in 1964 he was appointed Comptroller.

During the past ten years, he was very closely associated with all aspects of the Columbia River Basin planning and the international negotiations that were carried out for cooperative development. As such, he is exceptionally well-informed on matters pertaining to the Columbia River Treaty.

HONORABLE CHARLES F. LUCE
Administrator, Bonneville Power Administration
Portland, Oregon

PLEASE NOTE: Administrator Luce will be a MEMBER of the Treaty Panel

Monday and also will MODERATE the Intertie Panel on Tuesday

HONORABLE CHARLES F. LUCE, was appointed Bonneville Power Administrator on February 15, 1961, and over the years has been a major figure in the consummation of both the Canadian Treaty and the Pacific Northwest-Pacific Southwest Intertie. Prior to his becoming Administrator of Bonneville Power Administration, he served as its Attorney for several years, being engaged in general practice of law in Walla Walla, Washington. He is a member of the American Bar Association, Federal Bar Association and has memberships in Oregon, Washington and Wisconsin State Bar Associations.

MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM W. LAPSLEY
Division Engineer, U. S. Army Engineer Division, North Pacific,
Portland, Oregon

MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM W. LAPSLEY has served as Division Engineer,

U. S. Army Engineer Division, North Pacific, since December 18, 1961.

The Division area under his supervision includes the States of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Alaska and Western Montana. Division headquarters are in Portland, Oregon.

He first became acquainted with the Pacific Northwest when, as a young officer, he had a tour of duty at Fort Lewis, Washington. Prior to returning to the Pacific Northwest, General Lapsley served as Division Engineer, U. S. Army Engineer Division, Ohio River, during which time he was a member of the all-important Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors. He recently received the Legion of Merit for his part in negotiations in connection with the Columbia River Treaty with Canada.
