Outdoor Recreation Guide

Washington

Come... Enjay our great outdoors...

Welcome to Washington!

We in the State of Contrasts are extremely proud of the fine recreational facilities that are available to you the sportsman, the outdoorsman, the camper and the tourist. The utmost of variety and convenience is provided for you in our more than 100 State Parks, our two National Parks and scores of National Forest and private recreation areas. We are proud of these facilities. We know you will be to.

It is our sincere wish that your stay in Washington be a pleasant one. We urge you to get off the freeways and onto the byways of Washington for a true picture of what our state is really like.

Washington has much to offer. We hope you will take advantage of our State on your visit and that you will return soon for another outdoor vacation in the near future.

Washington

Washington, The State of Contrasts, is nature-blessed with some of the most splendid outdoor recreation areas in the U.S.A. As a result, state programs have been oriented to make the finest of these areas available for camping and hiking. Because of the vast numbers of such areas, state, federal and private, available for public enjoyment, we have published this outdoor recreation guide for your information and guidance. This piece, used in conjunction with the official highway map, the Sectional Touring Guide and other publications covering specific activities, will help make your visit to our state more enjoyable. Visitor Information Centers at ports of entry and throughout the State can furnish you with even more helpful vacation tips.

FLOATING BRIDGES Three floating highway bridges are located in Washington. Two cross Lake Washington, the other crosses Hood Canal. The Evergreen Point floating bridge across Lake Washington is the longest concrete floating bridge in the world.

LAKE ROOSEVELT Behind Coulee Dam is one of the largest man-made lakes in the world. SNAKE RIVER CANYON This 2,000 foot deep canyon is the deepest gorge in the state.

GRAND COULEE DAM The largest manmade concrete structure in the world. The number two tourist attraction in the state. Guided tours are available.

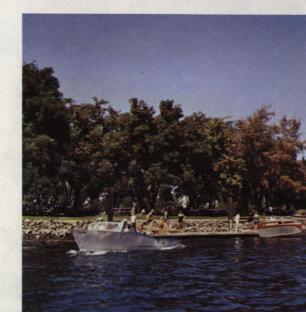

DRY FALLS In Sun Lakes State Park. Part of the pre-historic river bed of the Columbia River. Three times higher than Niagara Falls.

LAKE CHELAN Slashes 51 miles back into 8.000 to 9.000 foot Cascade Mountains. Daily boat trips on "Lady of the Lake." Air trips available to Stehekin at head of lake.

MT. ST. HELENS Often called the "Mt. Fujiyama" of North America. Beautiful Spirit Lake at the base of the mountain.

WHITMAN MISSION NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE Memorial to Whitman Missionary Party massacred by Indians. The National Park Service has established a complete and colorful monu-

runs parallel to the mighty river. COLUMBIA PARK At the Tri-Cities on the Columbia River, offers boating, camping, and other outdoor activities. FORT VANCOUVER NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE The actual location of Fort Vancouver, the nucleus of the early development of the Pacific Northwest, is preserved at this site in Vancouver. A visitor center and museum are maintained here by the National Park Service. U. S. GRANT HOUSE in Vancouver is a museum exhibiting historical artifacts of the early military days of Southwest Washington when General U. S. Grant and other famous military figures served in the U.S. Army in Washington Territory.

CHAIR LIFTS Daily during summer at White Pass, Mount Baker, Mount Spokane, Snoqualmie Summit and Crystal Mountain. Food service available at most locations.

SAN JUAN ISLANDS One of the most beautiful water trips in the world is by ferry through these 172 jewel-like forest-covered islands. Stopovers may be made at four of the major islands for car tours.

HOOD CANAL A fiord of Puget Sound which borders the eastern side of the Olympic Peninsula. A most delightful trip by boat or by car.

HURRICANE RIDGE It's only 19 miles from sea-level Port Angeles to nearly mile-high Hurricane Ridge. Breath-taking scenery all the time and good skiing through the winter.

MOUNT RAINIER Washington's number one visitor attraction. A vast and beautiful playground and sports area throughout the entire year. MOUNT BAKER The Silent Sentinel in the northern part of the state where you can ski November through July.

OLYMPIC NATIONAL PARK Rightfully called "The Last Wilderness." Here you will find giant trees that were growing before Columbus discovered the New World. Magnificent and wild beaches are backed by craggy mountains. This is a trip you'll never forget.

FORT OKANOGAN MUSEUM Overlooking the Columbia River as it swings south at the confluence of the Okanogan River this museum is established on the site of Fort Okanogan built as a fur trading post by the Pacific Fur Company in FORT SPOKANE A former U.S. Army post established in 1881 just after the Chief Joseph War but which was abandoned in the early years of the 20th Century. Fort Spokane is now part of the Coulee Dam National Recreation Area.
