Mr. Click Relander,
C/o Yakima Republic,
Yakima, Wn.

Dear friend Click;-

Thanks a lot for your letter of Feb. 14th, which got under a pile of other letters, hence the delay in reply. I am in and out of the office so much now in connection with the Centennial that very often there is more of a delay in keeping up with my correspondence than there should be.

Our librarian tells me we do not have a copy of the "Tragedy of the Wahk-Shum". We certainly would be glad to have anything that Mr. McWhorter has written, and I hope they will place a copy of the new book in our library when it is out.

I knew of the work Mr. McWhorter had done on the book before his death and also the work that was done on it after his death at the State College. I know it will contain a great deal of very valuable information.

Membership in the State Historical Society is something that even a newspaper man really can afford. The cost is only $3.00 per year and that includes a subscription to the Pacific Northwest Quarterly, which, if you were to subscribe for alone, would also cost $3.00. So one or the other comes on something of a complimentary basis. We like to think the membership in the Society is worth the $3.00 and we give you the Quarterly as a token of good will. However, you can see that membership is not prohibitive at all as to cost. With a little economy I am sure you would be able to save that much money in the course of a couple of days.

CDF
Md

Yours fraternally,

Chapin D. Foster
