Dear Steve:

As I understand you need, at this time so "estimated # revenue can be filed with payment, figures on "additional" revenue beyond Republic Publishing Co. withholding.

This is a joint return.

I now have my wage and tax statement and am working out breakdowns on that, which are similar to 1964.

Detailed records, receipts etc. are also kept for the "additional work."

The Wage and Tax Statement for 1965, for present guidance, shows this:

(Number) 91-0383560

Republic Publishing Co. 114 North 4th Street, Yakima, 98901

Federal Income tax withheld	Wages paid etc.	E.I.C.A employee tax	Total FICA Wages paid in 1965
$964.09	$7,562.30	174.00	$4,800

Income tax form sent is addressed as follows

C & V Relander
3701 Commonwealth Dr.
Yakima, Wash, 98901

I thought this best way to get information to you and hope it can be started (the estimated returns due) so I can get information and payment in and know which way I am headed.

Am off work next Saturday.

Best regards

Dear Sir:

My social security number, listed on your enclosed form, was included on the original voucher filed April, 1965, and I assumed you had it. Sorry.

How is "social security" handled in a case such as mine? My tax man has my papers and when I confer with him I shall ask him the same question. If there are "forms" to be filled out here by me, I am sure he will have them. This was one of the questions I had to take up with him.

Sincerely
