HALLOWE'EN ACCIDENT

William Sears, While Celebrating at Chicago, Is Shot by a Policeman.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—As the climax of a hallowe'en prank, William Sears, 33 years old, was mistaken for a burglar early today and shot in the back and instantly killed by Policeman Nicholas Smith.

Sears and Frank McKune were passing through an alley when they were seen by the policeman. They carried between them a basket. Calling to the men to halt, the policeman says they paid no attention to him.

After repeated calls Smith fired and Sears fell, while his companion disappeared down an alley.

McKune was arrested shortly afterward. He said that he and Sears were playing Halloween pranks.

STILL HAMMERING AWAY

Japanese Assault on Port Arthur Still Continues.

TOYKO, Nov. 1.—Imperial headquarters tonight published a series of reports covering the operations against Port Arthur during the months of August, September and October. The chief centers in the tremendous attack which was begun October 26 and is still continuing.

Hundreds of Japanese guns began battering against the northerly and easterly forts on October 26, the infantry going forward with desperate rushes where the artillery had prepared the way, while the engineers and sappers were running mines against the Russian forts.

The reports record a series of desperate encounters at close range and tell a dramatic story.

JUDGE PARKER'S ADDRESS

Democratic Nominee Addressed a Monster Meeting at Madison Square Garden.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Judge Parker last night made his first platform appearance, away from home at Esopus, since his nomination as the Democratic candidate for President. He addressed a monster mass meeting held in Madison Square Garden, where his reception was attended by a demonstration seldom equaled both in the intensity and the duration of the enthusiasm displayed.

Not only was the appearance of Judge Parker cheered, but every mention of his name by speakers who preceded him provoked outbursts of applause. The tumult of unrestrained enthusiasm which accompanied Judge Parker's entrance to the garden was in contrast to the close attention given him during his speech of not more than half an hour. He had but to raise his hand to gain control of his audience. Though his voice is not strong, it is said, he could be heard in every part of the building.

Judge Parker's speech was of a character intended to appeal to the popular demand as well as to the audience which gathered upon invitation of the Parker and Davis Business Men's Association, under whose auspices the meeting was held. It dealt with methods of collecting campaign funds, and in this respect the candidate took severely to task his republican opponents, following the lines of a speech made recently at Rosemount on the subject.

He discussed the tariff and trusts. He told of his own participation in political campaigns, and asked his audience if it would not like to return to what he termed the old fashioned principles, and his effort was a scathing arraignment of the present administration from the Democratic point of view.

PALMER ADMITS DEFEAT

Chairman of Republican State Committee Has Given Up Hope for Mead—Wires New York Times.

It is now certain that inevitable defeat is written upon the railroad collar of Albert E. Mead. He will be badly beaten according to the leader of the campaign republican forces in this state. The following telegrams explain themselves:

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Chairman Palmer, Republican Campaign Committee, Seattle: Kindly wire, at our expense, your forecast of the result of the election in Washington, under the following headings—

1.—National.

2.—State.

New York Times.

SEATTLE, Oct. 30.—The Times, New York:—Roosevelt will carry the state by 30,000. The less said about the state ticket the better.

E. B. PALMER,

Chairman.

When he gets outside of the state of Washington, where his claims will have no effect, Chairman E. B. Palmer of the Republican state central committee, does not have the nerve to claim that Mead, the railroad nominee, will be elected governor of the state. In fact, Mr. Palmer has about quit claiming anything in this state. He does not have the effrontery to claim, outside the state that there is a ghost of a show for Mead to win. All his talk of betting and of 2,000 to 3,000 majority for the railroad nominee is braggadocio.

Captures Jim Linder.

Deputy Sheriff John Edwards returned Tuesday from Boise, Idaho. He went there to bring back Jim Linder, an alleged forger. He got his man.

Jim Linder is charged with forging Ed Wilson's name to an $80 check on the Bank of Prosser last June and securing the money. Mr. Wilson lives at Prosser. He succeeded in getting away at the time but Sheriff Grant has kept in touch with the situation and sent out circulars describing Linder, which has finally brought him to trial. He was going by the name of George Ellis in Boise, but the description of Jim Linder furnished the Boise officials were identical with George Ellis and he was arrested pending the arrival and recognition by Deputy Sheriff Edwards. Linder is now in the county jail awaiting trial.

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 5

SENATOR WARBURTON

OF TACOMA

Will be the principal Speaker

ORPHEUM THEATER.

"A Woman's Love"—A Grand Production—Superb Stage Settings and a Grand Display of Electrical Effects.

The Orpheum Stock company is making a great hit at the Orpheum theater in their presentation of the great sensational melodrama, "A Woman's Love." This is a production that is full of interest from start to finish. Each of the four acts presents scenes and situations which differ widely and is neat, clean and well diversified. The many startling climaxes, together with the high class comedy, the elaborate and superb stage settings, and the grand display of electrical effects, makes it one of the best and most interesting productions of the season. Everything taken as a whole, it rivals the majority and surpasses many of the big elaborate road shows. The long waits between acts are shortened by the introduction of the beautiful illustrated song, "The Silent Violin," accompanied by twenty beautiful curtain roll views, which takes place between acts one and two; and by the moving pictures between acts three and four. "The Great Strikers" is among the best productions in the market. It is full of excitement, presenting some of the bloody scenes incident to strikes. This part of the program is alone worth more than the price of admission.

WARSHIPS LEAVE VIGO

The Russian Fleet Quietly Leaves the Spanish Port—London Is Bewildered by Alarm-ing Reports.

VIGO, Spain, Nov. 1.—All the Russian warships left here at 8 o'clock this morning. The Russian squadron was followed by the Spanish cruiser Extremadura.

Heavy firing was heard in the offing this morning. It was attributed to artillery practice.

GIBRALTAR, Nov. 1, 2:50 p. m.—Vice Admiral Beresford's flagship, the battleship Caesar, has just fired a gun recalling all the officers of the channel squadron on board their respective ships. All the ships are cleared for action.

British warships strictly patrolled the straits all night long. They intercepted a collier, the London Bridge, bound from Barry for Port Said, and brought her in at noon.

The garrison has been mobilized and the artillery men have been ordered to take up their positions at the different batteries of the rock.

The channel squadron has been ordered to be in readiness at an hour's notice.

The preparations cause disquietude as the regular mobilization terminated Oct. 30.

All the quick firing batteries have been manned this afternoon and detachments of infantry have been detailed for duty on the moles. The searchlight station is being strictly guarded.

The departure of a company of the garrison artillery, which had been ordered to start for Sierra Leone November 9, has been countermanded.

All the British warships are now lying at anchor but they are all ready to sail.

LONDON, Nov. 1, 5:16 p. m.—London has been bewildered all day long by alarm reports indicating a renewal of the Anglo-Russian crisis and showing that the utmost activity is prevailing at Gibraltar.

The first news received, announcing the sailing of the Russian squadron from Vigo leaving only four subordinate officers to give evidence at St. Petersburg and then testify before the international commission, is considered here to be a breach of the agreement and the interchange of visits between Ambassador Benckendorff and Lord Lansdowne followed, the foreign secretary subsequently seeing various members of the cabinet.

Count Benckendorff at 1 p. m. went to Buckingham palace and spent almost half an hour with the king. Later in the afternoon the ambassador again visited Lord Lansdowne, who also received Lord Selborne, first lord of the admiralty; Premier Balfour, Capt. Prince Louis of Battenburg, the director of the naval intelligence, and Admiral Sir John Fisher, senior lord of the admiralty. All this renewal of activity created apprehension in the public mind.

D. R. McKee took formal charge of the Bartholomew hotel Tuesday morning, November 1. Mr. McKee is a hotel man of wide experience. He comes here from Olympia, where he ran the Carlton house.

F. O. Lodge of Cle Elum came down Tuesday afternoon to spend a few days. Mrs. A. C. Cowing returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit on the Sound. She visited in Bellingham, Tacoma and Seattle.

L. G. Moore of Kennewick, candidate for county commissioner on the Democratic ticket, was in the city Tuesday. He says the lower part of the county will give some handsome majorities for several Democrats.

Miss Birde Moore and Miss Kate McKinney entertained a few of their friends at an informal party on Halloween night. They assembled at the home of Miss McKinney.

GEORGE DONALD AND BRIDE

Return from a Seven Weeks' Honey-moon—Have Visited all Points of Interest in United States and Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. George Donald returned from a seven weeks' wedding tour on last night's train. They took a carriage at the depot and were driven to Mr. Donald's home on North Second street.

It will be recalled that Mr. Donald left here about the first of September for Saratoga, New York. He was there united in marriage to Miss Mary Martin Ditmars on the 14th of September. The wedding was prominently spoken of in the New York papers. Mrs. Donald was the recipient of many very costly and beautiful wedding presents. Since the night of their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Donald have been traveling continually and have visited nearly all points of historical and natural interest in the United States. They spent some time at the St. Louis exposition, and returned home by a southern route, going as far south as Old Mexico. Mrs. Donald has many friends in this city whose acquaintance she made while on a visit here four years ago to Mrs. George Vance. It was at this time that she and Mr. Donald first met. The advent of Mr. and Mrs. Donald will no doubt cause a flurry in social circles.

Held to Superior Court.

Judge Taggard Tuesday afternoon bound over Side Nosse, an Assyrian, to the superior court under a $500 bond for larceny. Nosse is the man who received goods to the amount of $31.05 from D. A. Hanna for the purpose of peddling. He sold the goods but never came back for a settlement. He was captured in Seattle and brought back here for trial.

QUESTION OF BACKBONES

Doolittle Says that Experts Have Passed Upon the Two Candidates for Governor.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., Nov. 1.—At the armory hall last night there was a grand rally of democrats and republicans who came out to listen to the speeches of Col. Doolittle of Tacoma, and Stephen Judson, democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor. N. B. Brooks of this place, Democratic candidate for representative of this county, made a few good and timely remarks, and Stephen Judson gave a short analysis of the political situation that at once established him in the favor of his audience.

Col. Doolittle in his address declared that the railroads had made a close diagnosis of Mr. Mead's anatomy, with special reference to his backbone, before they nominated him for governor, while President Roosevelt had done the same with ex-Senator Turner before he named him for the Alaska boundary commission.

Many republicans have declared that they will vote for the state democratic ticket.

The Naches Meetings.

The Democrats held two meetings in the Naches valley, both of which were largely attended and enthusiastic. One was held at the Glade school house in the lower and the other at the Kincaid school house in the upper valley. Nearly all the county candidates were present.

The speakers were H. J. Snively, A. J. Splawn, H. W. Creason, J. D. Medill, Geo. F. MacAuley and J. D. Morrissey. Messrs. Snively and Morrissey addressed both meetings.

The Naches precinct although normally republican, will show a decided Democratic majority for both the state and county ticket.

E. B. Preble.

Hon. E. B. Preble, the Democratic nominee for the exalted office of superior judge of this district, is a clean, able and honest man. He is especially well equipped for the judgeship. He is a highly educated gentleman, learned in the law, of which he has been a close student for nearly thirty years. He is a man possessed of the calm, judicial temperament so necessary to the successful judge. But above and beyond all Mr. Preble is a true lover of justice. If elected, every man or woman who goes into his court may feel assured that they will receive justice, no more and no less. There is little reason to doubt that Mr. Preble will be elected for a great majority of the voters know that he is a capable, experienced man, and that he is the proper man for the place. The bench is presumed to be and ought to be non-partisan, and it makes no difference to the average citizen whether the man who occupies it is a Democrat or a Republican. It does make a great deal of difference, however, whether he is a fairminded man or not.

A. J. Splawn.

Hon. A. J. Splawn, the Democratic nominee for state senator, is well known to the people of this county. He was elected to fill that honorable position two years ago and the fact that he represented this county most acceptably is generally admitted. He is a stalwart advocate of a railway commission and of an irrigation measure that will place the control of the streams of this state used for irrigation purposes into the hands of the national government, or rather, the heads of such streams. Senator Splawn is unalterably opposed to private or corporate control of such valuable water rights. Had it not been for his strenuous efforts in the last session the Blaine reservoir bill would have become a law. In the last session Senator Splawn bitterly opposed the passage of the present iniquitous road law and will, if he goes back to the state senate, earnestly labor for its repeal. There is every reason to believe that Senator Splawn will be re-elected to the senate.

Henry W. Creason.

Henry W. Creason of Prosser, Democratic nominee for representative in the legislature, has been a resident of Yakima county for 22 years. He served the county most acceptably as a commissioner from the third district and made a splendid commissioner. Mr. Creason is a man of ripe experience and good judgment and from his long residence in the county knows the needs of the people as to new legislation. Mr. Creason stands by the railroad commission principle, and can be absolutely relied on to vote for such a measure if he goes to the legislature. Every man that knows Henry W. Creason knows that he can be relied upon to keep his word. He ought to be elected and the chances are very favorable that he will be.

C. C. Case.

C. C. Case, Democratic nominee for county treasurer, is a solid and substantial business man of North Yakima, having been engaged in the drug business in this city for the past three years. Mr. Case has been a resident of the state since 1885, having resided for 17 years at Bueda, in Thurston county. Mr. Case is conservative in his methods and a man of correct habits. He is a thorough accountant and is in every way well qualified to fill the duties of such an important office as county treasurer. During his long residence in Thurston county he filled numerous positions of trust most satisfactorily. In 1892 he was a Democratic legislative candidate in that county and came within a few votes of being elected. The office of county treasurer is one of the most important in the county and if the people want that position filled for the next two years with ability and faithfulness they cannot do better than to select Mr. Case.

Geo. F. McAulay.

George F. McAulay, Democratic nominee for prosecuting attorney, is a young attorney of marked ability and is in every way thoroughly qualified for the duties of that important office. Mr. McAulay was born in Michigan. He was poor but ambitious and by dint of hard labor educated himself by teaching school. He graduated from the University of Michigan with high honors and afterward took the law course at that famous institution. He came west after finishing his legal education and located at Baker City, Oregon, from which place he moved to North Yakima a little over two years ago. Since coming to this city he has, in company with Mr. L. O. Meigs, worked up a most lucrative law practice. Mr. McAulay in addition to being a bright lawyer is a man of good principle and is entirely trustworthy. He ought to be elected to the office of prosecuting attorney and he will be if the people of this county want that office filled in a capable and satisfactory way for the next two years.

The Democratic legislative and county ticket is one that ought to appeal to every honest and conservative voter. It is made up of men who are well known in the community and have all their interests here. They are men of character and standing. What they say that they will do they will do, if elected for they are all that kind of men and are absolutely free from corporation influences.

A minority party can usually be trusted to put forward its best material. The leaders recognize that such a course must be pursued to even have a chance to win. With the majority party the case is entirely different. Many men attach themselves to the majority party often for no other purpose than to have the opportunity to work out their own schemes. Men who are anxious to hold office are almost invariably connected with the majority party. They stick to it like leeches and cannot be got rid of until they are shaken off. They play politics every day in the year and for that reason are usually in control of the party machine. The honest rank and file wonder why it is that the office brokers and the office seekers run the party. If they were familiar with the dirty, greasy machinery behind the scenes they would no longer have cause to wonder.

FARRELL AND HIS PRIVATE CAR

Every Day Adds New Weight to the Charge that the Great Northern Man Controlled the Tacoma Convention and Dictated the G. O. P. Ticket.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 1.—Every day of the campaign adds new material to the weight of authority in support of the indictment that the Tacoma convention was dominated by J. D. Farrell in the interests of the transcontinental railroads, and that the entire ticket nominated by that convention met with Mr. Farrell's approval.

The authorities for the Farrell-private car story are prominent Republicans, many of them delegates to the convention, and their number, and the unanimity with which they agree upon the main points of the story makes an effective denial impossible.

On account of the multiplicity of authority it is impossible to name all of those who have testified in one form or another that the convention was dominated by the railroads, but the list, in part, is as follows:

1.—The story of the private car conference as told by one of the participants and published in the Spokane Spokesman-Review and the Seattle Daily Times Sunday, Sept. 4, and not since denied by any of the purported participants.

2.—The official report of the Spokane county steering committee, T. D. Rockwell, Charles P. Lund and J. A. Schiller. This report was issued soon after the convention and has not since been retracted by any one of these three men.

3.—The declaration in the editorial columns of the Tacoma Ledger, a Republican paper of unquestioned party regularity, made the day following the convention and never since retracted.

4.—The interview of Joseph B. Lindley of Spokane, a Republican candidate for the legislature, who was present at the convention.

5.—The statement of Lew. Wilmut, one of the delegates to the convention from Ferry county.

6.—The statement in the news columns of the Oregonian that Mr. Farrell was summoned to Tacoma to participate in the deliberations and to deliver his orders in person, and following that the editorial statement of the Oregonian that the Hill railroad interests defeated McBride.

7.—The editorial declaration of the Lincoln County Times of which L. A. Inkster, the Republican postmaster of Davenport, is the editor.

8.—The statement in the Post-Intelligencer's account of the convention that the "individual delegate cuts but mighty little ice in a big and important convention like this."

9.—The declarations of the Palmer Mountain Prospector, the editor of which, Frank H. Dallam, is a Republican and was present at the convention.

10.—The editorial in the Yakima Republic, a lobby Republican paper, whose editor, Col. W. W. Robertson, was at the convention as a delegate, that Mr. Farrell was sent for in the interests of Gov. McBride.

11.—The statement of Congressman Cushman at Wenatchee that he saw a great many railroad men hanging around the convention.

12.—The editorial utterances of a score of stanch and now regular Republican papers like the Creston News, the Walla Walla Record, the Vancouver Independent, the Mason County Journal, the La Conner Mail, the Pomeroy East Washingtonian, the Wilbur Register, the Colton News-Letter, the Everett Record and a great many others.

13.—The refusal of Henry McBride to say a word in support of the ticket, and with it the refusal of such stanch McBride Republicans as John H. Powell, Harold Preston, E. M. Carr, George Dilling, Reuben W. Jones, W. H. White, James Hart, Mose Gottstein and Irving T. Cole of King county; Stanton Warburton, J. A. Snackelford, F. A. Luce, H. P. Burdick, E. E. Cushman and J. M. Ashton of Pierce county; Frank T. Post of Spokane county; W. R. Moultray, Hugh Eldridge and A. L. Black of Whatcom county; N. J. Craigue of Snohomish county; T. F. Mentzer of Thurston county; Henry Dryden of Cowlitz county; Oscar Cain of Walla Walla county and scores of others.

14.—The statement of Mr. Mead at Colfax that if Farrell was sent for he was sent for by the King county delegation. The statement of Mr. Mead in Spokane that he did not know anything about the statement of Mr. Mead at North Yakima that Mr. Farrell was sent for but refused to interfere in the matter whatever, making it necessary for the convention to worry along without his advice and counsel. The refusal of Mr. Mead to pledge himself to a railroad commission, or to say one word of criticism of the insolent activities of the railroad lobby.

The denials of the Farrell-Private car story and the denials that the railroads dominated the convention are also numerous, but they are not of such a character as to carry a great deal of weight. They are as follows:

1.—The denial of John L. Wilson.

2.—The denial of the Post-Intelligencer, John L. Wilson's newspaper.

3.—The denial of E. B. Palmer, chairman of the Wilson-railroad state central committee.

4.—The denial of the committee.

5.—The denial by the Republican newspapers of the state which draw their inspiration and receive their editorial matter from the Wilson-Palmer railroad press bureau.

6.—The clippings republished in the Post-Intelligencer from the country papers, originally furnished to the country press by the state committee under the direction of the owner of the P.-I.

7.—The statements made by the Republican speakers on the authority of the clippings republished in the P.-I. from the country press supplied with editorial matter by the Wilson-Palmer bureau.

8.—The denial by Mr. Mead that he is the railroad candidate.

9.—The speeches of Mr. Mead published in the Post-Intelligencer, denying that he is the railroad candidate.

10.—The denials by the railroad lobby workers that Mr. Mead is a railroad candidate.

11.—The denial by Congressman Jones who knows better.

12.—The denial by Congressman Humphrey who ought to know better.

The men who participated in the private car conference are: J. D. Farrell, B. S. Grosscup, Charles M. Levey, B. D. Crocker, J. T. McChesney, Samuel Hill, and a number of less important railroad henchmen. Not one of these men has ever uttered a single word of denial.

TURNER'S BUSY DAY

He Will Make Four Speeches in Spokane County on the Day
Before Election—Will Address Theater Audiences.

R. W. Nuzum, chairman of the democratic campaign showed himself a Talleyrand of diplomacy yesterday by arranging to have Judge Turner speak the night before election before both theater audiences and at Elks' temple. Besides these he will speak in the afternoon at Cheney. In this way it is expected he will have a final word to 4000 people in his own county.

Frank Daniels' company plays at the Spokane theater Monday night, and at 8 o'clock, before the curtain rises, Judge Turner will address this audience. Florence Roberts is at the Auditorium the same night. After his talk at the Spokane Mr. Turner will go to the Auditorium and between the first and second acts he will speak to that audience. He then will go to Elks' temple, where he will make his chief address. Prior to his coming other speakers of prominence will address the crowd at that place. Early in the evening there will be a street demonstration and parade.

—Spokesman-Review.

Betting on Turner and Grant.

As election day draws near the interest in the Turner-Mead race is becoming intense. The Turner supporters, however, are more in evidence and are much warmer in their support than the Mead followers. A little betting was done Monday evening by E. G. Tennant, one of the Orpheum theater owners, and J. M. Baxter. These gentlemen put up $300 between them on Turner for governor. Mr. Tennant bet $200 and Mr. Baxter wagered $100. There is very little Mead money in the city. It is hard to find the most ardent Mead supporter willing to wager any of his coin on his candidate's chances for election. Odds are being offered on Grant with no takers. There is $2000 at one place to bet on Grant. His election is now practically assured. The Republicans having despaired of Mr. Webber's chances.

Dr. Darrin's Visit in North Yakima Expires Next Sunday, Nov. 6th.

Those Desiring to Consult Him Should Call on Him at Once.

Dr. Darrin's sojourn in North Yakima will soon expire. Those desiring a free consultation with this successful specialist should lose no time to call on him at once at his offices in the Hotel Yakima any time between the hours of 10 a. m. and 8 p. m., daily.

The doctor's charges for treatment are reasonable—according to ability to pay—and will undertake no case unless deemed curable or improvable. He makes a specialty of all diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat, catarrh, deafness, bronchitis, the grippe, consumption, dyspepsia, heart, liver and kidney diseases. All nervous and chronic and private diseases of men, and all peculiar female troubles are confidentially and successfully treated at home, after one visit to the doctor's office.

This is the last chance for the afflicted to consult Dr. Darrin as he will positively close his offices here next Sunday, Nov. 6th.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WANTED—Lady apprentice at the Delle Studio. 31tf
W. L. Shearer of Toppenish was in the city Tuesday.

Fred Parker returned Tuesday night from a business trip to Seattle.

James H. Fraser paid Lee Mitchell $17,000 for his ranch on the Naches.

Postmaster J. A. Beck of the Nile was in the city Tuesday on business.

Oscar James was in the city Tuesday. Mr. James recently moved his family from Cle Elum to Seattle.

Dan Riley, Ed Ryan, S. Huntington and J. Atkinson leave today for a few days' duck hunting on the reservation. Mrs. Congressman Humphrey returned Tuesday afternoon to her home in Tacoma after a week's visit with Mrs. W. L. Jones.

Deputy Sheriff Crowder of Kittitas county came down from Ellensburg last night looking for a man who broke jail there yesterday.

Belle C. Liggett has brought suit for divorce from her husband, Frank T. Liggett. The answer was filed with the county clerk Tuesday.

Sister Mary Juliet of St. Elizabeth's hospital was taken to the Providence hospital in Seattle Tuesday afternoon in a serious condition.

F. L. Smith, representing the Mutual Life Insurance company, with headquarters in Ellensburg, arrived here Tuesday to spend several days.

W. S. Farley, formerly of this city, visited here Monday and Tuesday. He is now living in Tacoma to which place he returned yesterday afternoon.

Hunters' licenses were issued Tuesday to the following parties: James M. Kay, Ira Marcus, William Goodrich, A. J. Grosscup, J. A. Polley and L. W. Roy.

Prof. B. F. Barge, Joe Brown and E. Remy left here Tuesday afternoon for Kennewick. They were to speak at a Republican rally meeting held there last night.

Hon. Stanton Warburton of Tacoma will address the people of this city Saturday night at Larson's theater. His subject will be on the railroad commission.

Ex-Congressman Doolittle and Hon. Stephen Judson, Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, will address the people of Toppenish tomorrow, Thursday, evening.

Cliff Stout is in the city today. Frank Jackson will leave this afternoon for Ellensburg to remain until after election. He votes for Turner in Kittitas county.

Mrs. C. W. Grant and little child left here Tuesday afternoon for Toppenish to join her husband who is now employed by the Ritchie, Gilbert company as bookkeeper.

J. C. Villame, whom the Democrat of Tuesday stated was missing, reported at this office yesterday that he was neither missing, lost or stolen. He has not been out of town, he says.

The Republican meeting advertised for Toppenish Monday night was a rather frosty affair. Lee Tittle was the only orator present and probably being dismayed at the size of the crowd called the meeting off.

In the parlor of the Bartholet hotel at high noon Monday, October 31, Judge Taggart joined in marriage Mr. Thomas Thompson and Miss Cora May Purveance of the Altanum. There were present friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

Vera and Marion Cook had a little party at their home on South Naches Halloween night. The evening was spent in playing games, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Florence Mains, Mabel Hough, Nellie Hauser and Madge Wright.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank all our friends for their kindness during the late sickness and death of our daughter, Miss Eva. We assure them all that we heartily appreciate everything that was done for us at the time.

MR. AND MRS. A. JOHNSON.

Dividing the Honors.

A North Carolina congressman relates an amusing story of an old justice of the peace in his county. It seems that two young attorneys were trying a case before him. After the arguments had followed the testimony of the witnesses and the case was closed the old fellow, awakening from deep reveries into which he had fallen, said, addressing one of the lawyers: "You know, Hank, I gave you the decision in the last two cases, so I will give this one to Tom. You can't expect to get them all."

FARRELL IN SPOKANE

The Big Tye of the Great Northern Has Been in Spokane Quietly Boosting Mr. Mead.

J. D. Farrell, assistant to President James J. Hill of the Great Northern and the Northern Securities company, and the man who dictated to the republican state convention, came to Spokane yesterday and openly went to work for Mead and against Turner. During the day Mr. Farrell met a number of personal friends and urged them, as a favor to him, to vote against Turner.

Among these was Father Van de Van, the well known pastor of the Catholic church at Sprague. Mr. Farrell asked him to give him his support by voting against Turner.

"Why, I am a democrat," said Father Van de Van, and jocularly added that he was surprised that Mr. Farrell, who had always been a Democrat, should be out fighting Turner.

"I am a Republican this year," replied Mr. Farrell.

"Well, I am glad to know that the Republican party is being run by so good a Democrat," said Father Van de Van, laughingly.

To a number of acquaintances Mr. Farrell expressed himself with deep bitterness against Judge Turner.

Mr. Farrell, who arrived in the city from the east yesterday morning left for Seattle last night. Mrs. Farrell came here three days ago to visit with her mother, Mrs. H. B. Wadsworth, and joined Mr. Farrell here.

Mr. Farrell said he had no railroad news to give out.

When asked by a reporter if he thought Mead would be elected he said: "I have nothing to say on politics. You are the railroad reporter, are you not? You were not told to ask about politics were you?"

"If I talk you might want to cartoon me again. Those cartoons were funny, and no one was mad except my porter, who is a young mulatto boy, and was cartooned as a burly negro with monstrous lips."

"Is James J. Hill on the finance committee of the national democratic party?"

"Mr. Hill is better able to talk on that than I, but I have never heard of his having such a connection."—Review.

Will Farrell Tap the Barrel?

Mr. Farrell's unexpected and unannounced arrival in Spokane yesterday set the politicians guessing, and there has been much speculation around both headquarters and a desire to know whether the railroad barrel is to be opened or whether Spokane Republicans must struggle under the railroad odium without any assistance from the Farrell funds. Some believe the cash box of the railroads is to be tapped today, while others who ought to know say Mr. Farrell has said that he will not put one dollar into Spokane county.

Mr. Farrell was holding private consultations with republican leaders throughout the day, and the Republican heeler have been after him. Such Democrats as have been for the Republicans in this campaign are said to be especially anxious to see Mr. Farrell.

Democratic managers also are curious to know what the man who manipulated the Tacoma convention intends to do in Spokane county. Some of them admit that if he dumps a quantity of money into Spokane it will have some effect and may reduce Mr. Turner's majority in the county somewhat, but that if he does not Mead will lose the county by 2500 votes.

Whether or not Mr. Farrell will spend the money, he nevertheless showed himself yesterday deeply anxious for the defeat of Judge Turner and personally solicited many friends to vote for Mead. Many of these, like himself, have been Democrats.—Spokesman-Review.

Hysteria in Dogs.

Nerves are the disease of the present day among human beings, but I did not know till recently that hysteria is also a malady of dogs. A friend of mine owned a dog which suddenly one day was seized with an attack of nerves. Since then it has been very ill, wandering incessantly round and round the room, refusing food, but still recognizing its owner. Another little dog suffered from hysteria in consequence of fright from railway traveling, and it really seems as though civilization, in rendering dogs more delicate and more susceptible, had done them a distinct physical injury.—London Graphic.

Work Planned Out.

"That was a pleasant gentleman you introduced to me."
"Yes; he has some excellent qualities. I am going to make something of him if he will let me."
"You make something of him? Why, he looks old enough to be your father."
"He is old enough. That's what I'm going to make of him—a father-in-law."—Kansas City Journal.

Plenty of Taste.

"Well," said Nuritch, who had been showing Kandor through his new house, "what do you think of the furnishings?"

"They—er—show a great deal of taste," replied Kandor.

"Think so?"

"Yes; but it's all very bad."

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

Judge Parker at Last Convinced of the Necessity of a Vigorous Campaign—The Democratic Candidate Strikes a Popular Chord in His Attacks on the Trusts.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—A victory for Chairman Taggart is in sight. Mr. Parker will probably go on the stump in his own behalf. From the beginning of the campaign, Mr. Taggart has declared that the Democratic presidential candidate was not sufficiently well known and has urged him to make a number of speeches throughout the country. Mr. Parker's eastern and southern friends have protested against this course as undignified and he has listened to their appeals but it is now learned from an authoritative source that the candidate will probably make several speeches before election, notably in West Virginia, Indiana and Illinois, probably also in Chicago.

There is to be a reorganization of the force which compiles the material from which Mr. Parker writes his speeches. Some serious errors have been made by the clerks who perform this work and the result has been to commit the candidate to statements and especially to figures which can not be verified, although he has personally been in no way to blame. This will occur no more and no further opportunity for Republican quibbling will be afforded.

Mr. Parker's recent speech at Esopus denouncing the trusts seems to have struck a popular chord. The great Hearst newspaper syndicate has long been urging this course and now that it has been adopted all of the Hearst papers will cordially support Parker and Davis. Messrs. McCarren and Cord Meyer have recently brought in some very handsome contributions to the campaign fund and there is reason to believe that with the sinews of war at his command, Mr. Taggart can be sure of Indiana which has heretofore been admittedly doubtful. Senator Gorman is throwing the entire weight of his assistance into the West Virginia campaign and Candidate Davis has contributed generously to the fund in that state, despite Republican statements to the contrary. There is every reason to expect the election of Democratic electors from that state, and Mr. John T. McGraw is counting on a legislature which will send him to the senate to succeed Nathan B. Scott.

Reports from Maryland seem to be less reassuring than they were, judging by the news that reaches Washington, although it is appreciated that Washington news comes largely from a single section of the state. The Democratic national committee has issued its official prediction which shows a safe majority of the electoral college for Parker and Davis and every Democrat is working hard to insure that end, irrespective of what faction of the party he may affiliate with. Not for years has there been such evidence of harmony throughout the party.

In his speech at Esopus Mr. Parker pointed to the evil growing out of corporation contributions to the campaign funds of the Republican party, asserting that such contributions were made as a business investment by the corporations and trusts for the purpose of obtaining favorable legislation and that experience had taught them they would not be disappointed. The Republicans attempt to reply to this statement by pointing to the fact that Mr. Patrick McCarren and Mr. Cord Meyer are associated with the Standard Oil company. They dodge the issue, however, for Mr. Parker expressly excepted the contributions of private individuals, whatever might be their connections, and condemned only those contributions of corporations, made by the directors of the corporation out of the money of the stockholders and which could be warranted only by the expectation of a return in the form of special legislation or immunity from violations of the law.

President Roosevelt has been on the eve of making a "break" in the eyes of his campaign managers by denouncing the Standard Oil company as opposing his campaign. It will be remembered that ever since the president caused to be made public the telegrams of John Rockefeller Jr., asking for interviews with various senators for the company's Mr. Archibald, the president has been in the bad graces of this company and as he is a man who lives on adulation, from whatever source it comes, he naturally hates the company. Mr. Roosevelt's campaign managers, however, believe that it would be unwise for him to attack the trust at this time, even if it is antagonistic to him, and they are doing everything in their power to restrain the impetuosity of the Republican presidential candidate. The purpose of Mr. Archibald's desired interviews, by the way, was to prevent the enactment of the law creating the bureau of corporations and authorizing the commissioner of corporations to make public such information as he might be able to gather regarding trusts and their methods.

Five members of the cabinet are now absent from their desks, engaged in stamping the doubtful states in the interest of the Republican ticket. Naturally there is very little doing in the way of government work in Washington these days.

Mead Says It is a False Issue.

Mead is telling the voters in western Washington that the railroad commission is a false issue and never should have been raised.

That is the railroad word with the bark on it, and Mead believes it because he has trained for years with the railroad attorneys and politicians and they have taught him to believe it.

James J. Hill says the commission is a false issue. J. D. Farrell says it. B. S. Grossepup, chief counsel for the Northern Pacific, says it. Every railroad manager and politician who took part in the caucus in J. D. Farrell's private car says it.

C. W. Howard, the railroad attorney at Bellingham, who was appointed by Mead as chairman of the platform committee in the Whatcom county convention and framed the plank against a railroad commission, says it; and so does General Manager Donovan of the B. B. & B. C. Railroad company, whom Mead named to head the Whatcom county delegation to the state convention.

And Mead says it in western Washington, though he was careful not to say it on this side of the mountains.

Mead is wide of the truth when he says the railroad commission question is a false issue. It was the burning issue before the constitutional convention of fifteen years ago. Acting Governor Laughton advised the creation of a commission, in 1892; Governor Ferry suggested it in 1893; Governor Rogers urged it in 1897, and reiterated it in 1898 and 1901; and Governor McBride took up the cause when death struck down his Democratic predecessor.

The railroad commission question is a growing issue. To silence it the railroads struck down Governor McBride, tove the commission plank from the Republican platform, and put forward Mead for governor. They counted on President Roosevelt's popularity to sugarcoat the nauseous dose which they prepared for the Republican voters and now are in consternation over the unexpected magnitude of the revolt.—Spokesman-Review.

The X. T. C. Sorority.

Among the happy Halloween parties of Monday night was the entertainment of the X. T. C. Sorority given at the home of Miss Marjorie Moran. Miss Moran had succeeded in having everything arranged in novel manner to receive her guests. The decorations were unique to the extreme. The predominating colors were of blue and gold, the club's chosen colors, and pumpkin heads were hung around to lend their necessary Halloween effect. Halloween games were played, candy was pulled as one of the diversions. Ghost stories were told. Soft cider was imbibed freely and things good to eat were plentiful. The attendance was made up of the full strength of the society, namely, Rowena Case, Marjorie Moran, Laura Burbank, Florence McCoy, Agnes Van der Aarde, Ida Sharkey, Edna Walker and Hazel Williams, and their escorts, David Johnson, John Buwalda, Ernest Pentz, Earl Green Arthur Caseres, Charlie Hauser, Philo Huxtable and Albert Arendt.
