STATEMENT BY GODWIN

Democratic State Chairman Says that Turner and Entire State Ticket Will Win.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sunday, Nov. 6 .-Judge George Turner's election as governor of Washington is now assured beyoud doubt or question, and I feel assured that he will carry into office with him all of the candidates on the Democratic state ticket, and that the Demoerats will elect a large minority, if not actually a majority of the legislature. We concede the state to Roosevelt by a large majority.

Broken Republican promises and Republican subserviency to railroad control and dictation furnished the issues upon which the campaign has been fought and won. All over the state the Democrats have stood loyal and united while the thousands of Republicans who refuse to follow their party into the lobby camp have joined us in this triumphal march to victory. This election will demonstrate, as no previous event in the history of the state has ever dem onstrated, that the citizens of Washington are honest, independent, intelligent and courageous; that they are not blinded by partizan prejudice, can not be driven by the party lash and will not submit to corporate dictation.

Our friends should be on their guard during the closing hours of the campaign against possible tricks of the en-The railroad leaders are crafty and resourceful and they are leaving no stone unturned in their desperate effort to save something from the general wreck. We must see to it that our victory is complete and overwhelming. Beware of eleventh hour falsehoods and anonymous attacks and insinuations.

Above all it is important that close guard be kept at the polling places on election day to see that the vote is honestly cast, and during the count to see that it is honestly counted and reported. I earnestly appeal to our friends in each precinct to see to it that one loyal man, in addition to the Democratic judge, is present all through the count as a precaution. With proper precautions from this time on victory for the right is assured.

TACOMA, Nov. 5 .- In their desperate attempts to line up bolting Republicans and carry the county for A. E. Mead the Republican state committee has ceased the ordinary methods of campaigning, which have proved futile.

Today A. E. Mead and several of his lieutenants arrived in the city and with a number of prominent Republicans he has been making a canvass of the business districts and meeting personally the voters and influential men of the city. He has also made flying incursions the evening. H. J. Snively was chairto the suburban cities near Tacoma in order to get acquainted with the old wheelhorses of the Republican party.

The Republican county committee has found it impossible to line up what is known as the "boxer" element. On the other hand, the longer the campaign has continued the weaker has Mead grown in Pierce County, until Republicans who for him now have nothing to say.

THE DEMOCRATIC MEETING

and Was Composed of a Large Number of Republicans-Walter Reed's Record Is Challenged,

The Democrats neld a rousing meeting at the Yakima theater Saturday night, Hon, Stanton Warburton of Taoma, a Republican state senator who has openly rebelled against the perfidy of the Tacoma convention and refuses to swallow the Farrell pill by supporting Mead, was the principal speaker of man. The Turner quartette sang several campaign songs as a preliminary and then the meeting began in earnest. Several of the county candidates were introduced by Mr. Snively and each of them made short talks. Sheriff Grant was the first candidate to speak. He told the audience just where he stood. Said that he had always done his duty have all along predicted a big majority by the people of Yakima county and if they saw fit to elect him again he would continue to do so. Mr. Grant received a big ovation. Hon. A. J. Splawn followed Mr. Grant, Mr. Splawn was rather enraged at a statement made by Col. Robertson in the Saturday's Republic charging him with being a railroad man. The senator was not at all backward in his remarks about Mr. Robertson. He said very forcibly, "He is a liar, ladies and gentlemen, and he knows that he lied when he published that statement. The senator invited the close scrutiny of the people of Yakima county upon his rec ord while in the senate. He said among other things that while a member of the senate the Commercial club of this city was not compelled to send over a committee in order to keep him in line to vote for the best interests of Yakima county. The applause which greeted Mr. Splawn's address was tremendous. J. D. Medill was next introduced. Mr. Medill spoke very clearly and to the point. He said: "I am a candidate for the legislature before the people of Yakima county. I strongly favor a railroad commission, and if you elect me will ed for reinforcements from Casper, 100 use my best efforts in behalf of such a bill. I also favor the government control of all the sources of waters in ing that Sheriff Webb and a large posse the state so that a just distribution of the same may be allotted to the people

John D. Morrissey, candidate for aulitor, was next introduced. Mr. Morrissey made a fine talk. He was grateful for the nomination at the hands of he Democratic party, but he thought the principal issue in this campaign was whether or not the people were to have control of the affairs of state or were they to be left in the hands of the railroads. He was willing to sacrifice his cnances of being elected in order to lend strength to the head of the ticket. give the control of the state into the hands of the people, of whom George Turner is the champion, and wrench the power from the grasp of railroad manipulators and lobbyists. Mr. Morrissey was loudly applauded when he sat down.

R. Lee Purdin of Kittitas county, formerly of this county, the state candidate for auditor, was introduced by Mr. Snively. Mr. Purdin is the present ter. treasurer of Kittitas county, having been elected to that office for two consecutive terms and having to contend with a normal Republican majority of over 300. Mr. Purdin delivered a tenminute talk with precision. He is clear cut and concise in his statements and impresses a listener as being a man of werage speaker and is perfectly com-He concluded his remarks by aying that he felt confident of being lected, but he would rather go down to defeat on the platform and with his colleagues on the Democratic ticket than to be branded as a nominee of the Tacoma Republican convention and be delivered unto victory by their brutal ma-

A sensation was sprung at this time. Following Mr. Purdin's remarks H. J. Snively, before introducing Senator Warburton, made a public charge against Walter J. Reed, who is running for state senator on the Republican ticket against A. J. Splawn. Mr. Sniveysaid that Walter J. Reed was a disonest man, that he had falsified under oath and was unfit to be a state senator. He referred the people of this city and county to three of the leading Republicans and representative citizens of this community to bear him out in his charge. He said that the editor of the Republic could not go to these men and get sworn affidavits over their signature that Mr. Reed was an honest man. He placed $20 in the hand of Mr. Mc-Phee of the Naches to forfeit to Col. Robertson if he secured said affidavits The names of the men referred to are George Donald, president of the Yakima National Bank; J. D. Cornett, cashier of the same bank, and Fred Parker, prosecuting attorney of Yakima county, The people are anxiously waiting to see these charges either refuted by these men or become absolute facts by their

"Billie" Walker, the popular local comedian at this juncture, entertained the audience with an original monologue. Senator Warburton was the last peaker. He nandles the subject of a railroad commission with great skill. He case of exorbitant freight rates being charged by the railroads of the state upon a great many commodities to which they might appeal. That there was no tribunal to which the people might appeal in this state for a just distribution of the cars to haul off the farmer's produce. A railroad commission, appointive and regulative, was the rem edy for these conditions. He cited many of the Union's greatest states as actual examples where a commission was giving the people satisfactory re sults. Some of these states were Tennessee, Iowa, North Carolina, Texas, In diana and many others. The people were given better service and cheaper rates in these states. He pointed out where in hundreds of cases railroads that have not had the erning capacity of the Northern Pacific are paying two, three and five times the rate of assessment per mile greater than the N. P. Mr Warburton's address was very convincing. He spoke as a Republican, said he intended to vote the Republican ticket with the exception of the state ticket, which he could not conscientiously vote and retain the self respect of a true American citizen. "George Turner and the Democratic state ticket, and Theodore Roosevelt and the Republican national ticket stand for the principles of American manhood as against railroad rule and corporation greed in this campaign. The Democrats Will Elect Their State Ticket in Utah-It Will Go for Roosevelt for President

SALT LAKE, Nov. 5 .- In Utah the campaign this year has been marked by a renewal of the old fight against church domination in politics. In the latter days of the campaign the feeling engendered by this movement has grown in bitterness. How much strength will be developed at the polls by the American (antichurch) party is problematical. Both republicans and democrat leaders confess themselves entirely at sea. Democrats, while conceding the state will be carried for Roosevelt, claim their state ticket will be elected because of the movement of disaffected republicans toward the American party, and they will the election, especially in the school also carry the legislature, which will elect a United States senator this win-

Republican State Chairman claims the state for Roosevelt by 15,000 for the state ticket by 5,000 and an overwhelming majority in the legislature. American party leaders claim they will carry Salt Lake county, and state their fight will be kept up after board elections. Tonight meetings were trong convictions. The Superior Judgeship.

The Republic flies into a fit of rage because The Democrat on Saturday printed a communication from "A Republican" to the effect that Mr. H. B. Rigg is not a suitable man to fill the office of superior judge and publishes a column of editorial gush in the effort to prove that Mr. Rigg is a better qualified man for the judgeship than is E. B. Preble. It also publishes an affidavit from J. W. Day, clerk of the superior court, to the effect that Mr. Rigg has had more cases in court during his residence here than has Mr. Preble.

The Democrat has sought to be fair in this campaign and does not at any time wish to engage in personalities. It has no quarrel with Mr. Rigg. It recognizes his right to aspire to so high an office as the judgeship if he wants to and as long as his adopted party is willing to give him a nomination.

With all due deference to Mr. Rigg, however, and since the Republic essays to make a comparison between the two candidates this paper will express an opinion also. We have no reflections to cast on Mr. Rigg as a lawyer nor as a three men were selected on account of man. He makes a living by practicing their special fitness. They stand for most favorable circumstances, hope to law and this paper has no desire to economical administration and good interfere with any man in gaining a roads. livelihood. To say though that Mr. Rigg is superior to Mr. Preble in the qualifications necessary to make a good judge, as the Republic does, is the veriest rot, and who can be relied upon to do his age voter is taking more interest in his as a thousand men in this community duty if elected. who know the two men will readily testify. Mr. Preble is much the older man of the two and has had a great deal more experience as a practicing attor- burton of Tacoma in this city Saturney. Besides that Preble is a man of day night was one of the ablest that that it is because of the splendid record in partnership with Attorney General tempered, not to say erratic.

But above and beyond all this Mr. Preble is the best qualified man for he has a high conception of the meaning of Subscription Price 50 Cents Per Month matter whether he be a pauper or a what he would be entitled to, no more and no less, and that is the sort of man that the people want for a judge.

Campaign Lies Nailed.

As to the Democratic legislative candidates, Splawn is well known to be a railroad man; Creason is a nonentity. who will do what he is told, and Medill is a partisan who will trade anything he has for a job in case Turner is successful. None of them is pledged in the railroad commission matter.-Republic. Senator Splawn in his speech Saturday night publicly branded the author of the above statement as a liar.

As to Henry W. Creason being a "nonentity," the Republic man apparently don't know what he is talking about Mr. Creason is not only a good citizen but a man of affairs. He has been a public spirited resident of this county for over 20 years and has frequently been called upon to serve the people in positions of trust. He was serving the people of this county most acceptably in the office of commissioner long before Col. Robertson came here and took charge of the railway company's political interests, in fact, long before he was ever heard of in this community.

"Medill is a partisan who will trade anything he has for a job in case Turner is elected." The latter statement is two-thirds of a lie and the balance is false assumption. Medill never neld a political job in his life and what is more never asked for one and does not want one. He has no desire and no ambition to go to the legislature except that he may be an instrument to carry out the people's will. The assumption that a man has no business to run for the legislature in this county unless he be a willing tool of the railroad lobby is going to be pretty thoroughly exploded by to-morrow's election, or we will badly miss our guess.

Toe statement that the Democratic legislative ticket of this county is not pledged to support a railroad commission is another lie and the Republic man knew that it is a lie when he wrote it. The three Democratic candidates for the legislature from this county are absolutely pledged to vote for and support a railway commission bill. Even if they were not pledged at all they would still vote for a commission bill, if elected, as a matter of principle.

The County Candidates.

A vote for E. B. Preble for judge is vote for a clean and able judiciary.

A vote for Splawn, Creason and Medill for the legislature is a vote for the railway commission law, a new irrigation law and a repeal of the present road law.

A vote for Ronald A. Grant for sheriff is a vote to ratify a record for efficiency and good service. It is also a vote to rebuke the unjustifiable attacks that have been made for political purposes against an honest and upright public official.

A vote for C. C. Case for county treasurer is a vote to place a competent and reliable man in charge of the county's pute and clean habits and if elected burg. He has served Kittitas county no man will steal from the county if he can help it.

A vote for George F. McAulay for prosecuting attorney is a vote for efficiency and a clean man, who is well qualified for the important duties of that office. If elected no man will have strings upon him and he will discharge his duty without fear or favor.

A vote for John D. Morrisey for auditor is a vote to encourage and stimulate a rising young man who grew up from infancy in Yakima county, the worthy son of a pioneer family.

A vote for George Stephenson is a vote for another capable and efficient young man who was raised in the Yakima valley and who struggled hard to secure an education. It is also a vote for a man who holds a first grade certificate as against a competitor for the office who teaches under a second grade certificate.

A vote for George Biehn, in the first and L. G. Moore in the third for county commissioners, is a vote for honest and competent men all of whom will look after the county's business as faithfully as they would their own. These Every thinking taxpayer, regardless of his polities, ought to ponder over these facts. No one but a fool is willing to pay somebody else's tax. It is hard enough for every man to pay his own rightful tax in this state of high taxes without having a large portion of the corporations' share saddled on to him in addition. The remedy for the present crying evil lies in the creation of a state tax commission as is pledged to the people by the Democracy of this As long as the railroads are given the opportunity of buying up a lot of cheap men elected to assess the taxes the present outrageous system will continue in vogue in this state.

The National Election.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, Nov. 8, the voters of this nation will go to the polls to register their will as to the future conduct of public affairs. The officers to elected are president and vice president, 388 congressmen, legislatures in 30 states that will elect U. S. senators; in a majority of the states governors will be elected as well as other state officers.

The indications at this writing are that Theodore Roosevelt will be chosen president. He will have no walk over however, in the electoral college as many of his supporters claim. The probabilities are that Parker will defeat Roosevelt in the state of New York and that he will likewise carry the state of Indiana, where Chairman Taggart of the Democratic national committee thoroughly knows the ground and is putting up a warm fight. It also seems likely that Parker will carry the mountain states of Montana, Colorado and Nevada, which states have a total of 11 electoral votes. Assuming that he will carry Maryland and West Virginia in addition to the south, which is very likely, Parker would then have a total of 231 votes, or 8 less than a sufficient number to elect. Connecticut's votes would not be enough, but New Jersey's 12 would. If Parker carries New York he will be likely to carry New Jersey too, as the mosquito state has always been responsive to public sentiment in the city of New York, which is expected to give Parker a plurality of 150,000.

While the indications seem to continue to favor Mr. Roosevelt and the betting is largely in his favor, still enough uncertainty surrounds the outcome to lend interest to the result. To sum up, it looks like Roosevelt would win but he has no leadpipe cinen.

Vote for Lee Purdin.

The Democrat desires to make a special plea to its friends throughout this county in the interest of R. Lee Purdin of Ellensburg, Democratic nominee for state auditor. Mr. Purdin is a member of the well known Purdin family of this county and lived in the Wenas valley from infancy to early manhood. Grant a Sure Winner. The talk about beating Sheriff Grant is all hot air. We doubt if there is a single man in the Republican party of Yakima county who could, under the beat Grant this year. #### J. D. Farrell Gets Busy.

J. D. Farrell, the well known raiload man whose personality cuts a good deal of figure in this campaign, is getting very busy, according to reports, in the interest of his protege, Mr. Mead. He has not only been engaged during the past few days in rounding up the railroad workers but he has been making personal appeals to his friends and bringing pressure to bear on Sound shippers, who, he considers, may be under some obligations to the railroads. The activity of Mr. Farrell and other railroad men in the interest of Mr. Mead and his associates on the state ticket, ought to be sufficient to convince even the most biased partisan that the Republican nominee for governor is but a mere tool of the railroad companies.

Col. Robertson, instead of running off to Sunnyside Saturday night in order to advise the good people of that community to vote the machine ticket, should have attended the Democratic meeting in this city in order to receive and acknowledge the delicate compliments paid him by some of the speakers on that occasion.

TO REORGANIZE THE PARTY

Independent Republicans Already Planning to Reorganize Their Party After the Defeat of the Farrell-Railroad State Ticket.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sunday, Nov. 6 .-Independent Republican leaders of western Washington are already beginning to consider plans for the reorganization of their party along lines which contemplate the inviolate redemption of all platform promises, the eradication of the insolent and corrupt railroad lobby, the passage of a primary election law as a means to the end of giving the people real instead of pretended repesentation in conventions and legislatures, and the redemption of the party and its machinery from corporate con-

Active work along these lines will be begun immediately after the election and a campaign of education instituted in every county in the state. In the prosecution of this campaign it is anticpated that the election returns of this election will prove the most valuable of all object lessons. These leaders realize that if their party is to continue in the majority in this state it must be purged of the present management and brought into sympathy with the Roosevelt element of the party in the

The indignation which has been expressed by Independent Republicans during the present campaign has impressed upon them the necessity of giving the voters of the party more consideration in framing party policies, writing party platforms and nominating party candidates. This will be accomplished through the adoption of the direct primary system which has done so much to achieve these ends in other states where it has been adopted.

McBride the Leader.

Of this movement Henry McBride will be the most conspicuous leader and champion. The gallant fight which he made along these lines during his term of office as governor has caused Roosevelt Republicans in all portions of the state to look to nim as the Moses to ead the party out of the wilderness of corporate dictation and subserviency.

Two or three weeks ago, shortly after e returned from St. Louis, Gov. Mc-Bride made a close study of the state situation with a view of giving out ome expression of his views in the present fight. At that time he came to Seattle and went over the situation with his friends here in detail. From themn e learned that the railroad leaders, not satisfied with having dominated the Tacoma convention and named a straight railroad ticket, have insisted on conducting the campaign and thrusting themselves forward openly in insolent and brazen disregard of the protests of the voters.

Gov. McBride informed some of his riends that he was almost ready to give out a public interview to the people of the state the facts in connection with the Tacoma convention, and coupling with it an appeal to them to throw off the yoke of railroad domination. But they pointed out to him the very important necessity on his part of remaining "regular" in order to take the party they expect hi mto take in the work of reorganizing the party after the coming election and purging it of railroad control. At the same time they made showings to him that the temper of the people was such that the defeat of the railroad candidates was assured. Under this showing he consented to continue his policy of silence until after the election.

ent Republicans here anticipate that their office will become the headquarters for the reorganization movement. and that the movement may assume such proportions within the next two years as to enable them to defeat the railroad forces in this county, admittedly the strongest railroad county in the state.

The first and most important duty of those who would purge the Republican party of its betrayers is to accomplish the defeat of A. E. Mead, the railroad candidate for governor. Should Mead be elected they realize that he would use all the power of his administration to aid the railroad leaders to retain control of the party, giving them the use of the state patronage to that end. On account of the close bond of sympathy existing between Judge Turner Gov. McBride, and the fact that they are fighting in a common cause, the Independents know that they could expect much more from Judge Turner as governor than from a railroad governor whose first obligation would be to the railroad leaders.

HAVE YOU GOT THE TIP?'

Meeting in Seattle and Resolve to Go Down the Line for Mead.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sunday, Nov. 6 .-Have you got the tip?" is the password among the employees and more prominent patrons of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads, particularly among the shippers who are in the habit of enjoying special favors at the hands of the roads.

"The tip" has been passed down the line from the headquarters in the Burke building in this city where the heads of the departments of the respective lines in this state were assembled last Wednesday night for final instructions before election day. It is now being circulated industriously throughout the

"The tip" is "vote for Mead for governor." That is now the slogan of all the Great Northern and Northern Pacific interests here, and the few O. R. & N. men connected with the local office of that road in this city, acting under instructions from Portland, have joined in the movement which has for its end and aim the elevation of a railroad henchman to the office of gov-Naturally no man who has received 'the tip" direct will permit himself to be quoted regarding it and the source from which it comes. For him to do so would be sure to result in the with-Irawal of these favors from the transportation companies which he and those with whom he is connected are enjoying. But there is no lack of evidence of the desperation with which the railroads are bending all of their power and influence to elect their candidates.

O. R. & N. for Mead.

About two weeks ago Mr. Cotton, the general counsel for the O. R. & N. at Portland gave out an interview for publication in which he declared that his road was for the election of Mr. Mead in this state. This information but confirms the stories of pernicious political activity on the part of O. R. & N. employes in certain of the eastern Washington counties, notably Walla Walla and Columbia.

Closer at home are the many evidences of G. N. and N. P. activity. J. D. Farrell's act in Spokane in asking

United States of America, State of Washington, office of the Secretary of State.

To the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Yakima County:

I. Sam H. Nichols, Secretary of State of Washington do hereby certify that the following act was passed by the Legislature of the State of Washington on the 9th day of March, 1903, and signed by the Governor on the 16th day of March, 1903.

That said act proposes to amend the State Constitution and reads as follows:

"Section 1. That it is proposed to amend Section eleven (11) of article one (1) of the Constitution to read as follows: Section 11. Absolute freedom of consicence in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and worship, shall be guaranteed to every individual, and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices incoasistent with the peace and safety of the State. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious establishment: Provided, however, That this article shall not be so construed as to forbid the employment by the State of a chaplain for the State penitentiary, and for such of the State reformatories as in the discretion of the legislature may seem justified. No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror, in consequence of his opinion in matters of religion, nor be questioned in any court of justice touching his religious beliefs to affect the weight of his testimony."

That the said proposed amendment is to be voted on at the general election held on the eighth day of November, A. D., 1904.

MEAD A RAILROAD MAN

Plenty of Reasons to Substantiate Such a Statement.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sunday, Nov. 6 .-Albert E. Mead is the railroad candidate for governor. The allegation was made early in the campaign by members of his own party, by men who participated in the convention which nominated him. It has since been substantiated in so many ways and denied so weakly when denied at all, that the ease against him is now thoroughly established, and it remains but for the voters of the state to declare the penalty in the form of defeat.

The evidences that Mead is the rail road candidate are so numerous that it is impossible to recite and review them all in the limits of a single newspaper article, but some of the more convincing ones are:

1-That his nomination was agreed to in J. D. Farrell's private car in Ta-

2-That he received the support in the state convention of all the railroad

3-That in appointing a delegation to the state convention from his own county he made a railroad manager chairman and included two railroad at-

4-That the convention which nominated him exposed its subserviency to the railroads by defeating McBride and the commission plank.

5-That he is being supported by every railroad lobbyist and every railroad newspaper in the state. 6-That J. D. Farrell is making a personal and business campaign to secure his election, even to attending his meetings and giving his approval to the every county. It is not on the east side management of the campaign.

7-That his political sponsors are opposing the election of the railroad commission Republican ticket in Whatcom

8-That he defends the railroads in | The Republican party in large cities his speeches, that he apolofizes for the such as Tacoma, and Seattle is torn trally located. Address or call.

It is in the Air.

Just as every sign points to the election of President Roosevelt in the nation, so every indication presages a victory for Judge Turner in the state of Washington. It is in the air. The revolt against railroad dictation has been pronounced and it is to be seen in alone, where the fight for better railroad control has been waged for years, that the disaffection is apparent. The dissatisfaction is open and almost violent in the large counties of the west,

Saturday night Howard Case gave a tallyho party to a large number of his small friends. The party, which was chaperoned by Mrs. Case, drove about the city, their horns tooting and Japanese lanterns that decorated the rig, gave evidence of a jolly crowd. After the ride the little folks were driven to the Case residence where oyster patties, salt wafers, olives, cake and chocolate was served to them by Miss Rowena Case and Miss Mary Erwin. After that they spent the time dancing two-steps. Catholic churchmen to support Mead was followed closely by his action here in giving his approval to Mead's candidaey by attending the Mead-Wilson meeting last Tuesday night in company with Chairman E. B. Palmer of the state central committee.

In addition to the manifold activities of J. D. Farrell many other prominent railroad leaders are doing all in their power to aid their candidate and doing it openly and above board. Sam Hill, son-in-law of J. J. Hill, has already bet $10,000 on Mead's election and since his recent visit to Walla Walla the announcement has come from that place that a bunch of Mead money has put in its appearance there.

Judge Thomas Burke, former general eastern counsel for the Great Northern, gave out an interview through the Post-Intelligencer last Sunday announcing that he favor's Mead's election, and Saturday the P.-I. published a lengthy letter from him along the same line. Judge Burke is the man selected by the railroad interests to stampede the Pres ton mass meeting held in this city in January, 1903, but those leaders mistook the temper of the people of this city and ne was unceremoniously howled down by the meeting when he mentioned the name of Levi Ankeny.

J. J. Donovan of Bellingham, general manager of the B. B. & B. C. railroad, who was the chairman of Mead's Whatcom county delegation to the state convention, is giving him most loyal support in his campaign and a few days ago wrote a lengthy letter in defense of the Mead candidate for state senator in the country district of that county. T. A. Hunter, which interview was published in the railroad-owned Bellingham Reveille.

B. S. Grosseup, general western counsel for the Northern Pacific at Tacoma has held the helm of the Mead campaign in Pierce county and his close connection with it has offended oundreds of loval Republicans who decline to follow their party into the roundhouse of railroad control.

Joaquin Miller's Story and the Way He Clinched It.

At one of his lectures just after his ceturn from the Klondike Joaquin Miler told the following story: "One night was invited to a dance in a miner's cabin, and while Bill Dalton scraped away on his fiddle we just boed it down. But the miners tramped in and out so much between dances that before midnight the ladies declared the toor was so slippery they couldn't lance another step unless something was done. Then something was done that never was possible in mining days in California. Each miner gallantly opened his buckskin powder pouch and sprinkled gold dust on the floor! And this was repeated throughout the night. And in the morning, ladies and gentlemen, those miners never troubled themselves about sweeping up that gold dust. They just hitched up their dog sleds and rode away."

At this point of Miller's narrative there was a slight agitation in the audience, an ominous sign of incredulity, but Miller was equal to it. With a wave of his hand toward one of the boxes, he said, "And my old friend up there in the box, Captain John Healy, will substantiate what I say.'

It was a master stroke of the poet, for the house burst into applause and greatly embarrassed the modest millionaire mining and railroad promoter of Alaska, who unsuspectingly had accepted Miller's invitation to attend the lecture in the afternoon.

Parnell's Superstitions. Charles Stewart Parnell was one of the strongest men that ever lived, but he had numberless superstitions. Once a colleague of his brought him the draft of a bill to the cell he was then occupying in Kilmainham. It was in thirteen clauses. Parnell was horrified. He insisted that somehow or other a fourteenth clause should be added. Once Parnell saw a colleague with three lights in his bedroom. He was quite uneasy until he saw one of the lights put out. I traveled with him once when he had a scarf that had been presented to him by a lady admirer. There was some green in the scarf. One of his superstitions was that green was an unlucky color. He used to say, half joke, whole earnest, that all the misfortunes of Ireland came from the fact that her color was green. He was very much put out by this scarf. It was in the days when the habeas corpus was suspended in Ireland and we were sleeping on the mail boat at Kingstown and were not to start for Holyhead till next morning. He was quite sure the green scarf would have us arrested before we left in the morning.-M. A. P.

Beauties of Red Tape. A typical instance of the war office methods is furnished by a correspondent on one of our stations. An officer having occasion for the use of a screwdriver made application for the supply of that humble but handy implement from the government stores. His application was bandled about in the usual manner from officer to officer and finally reached the upper authority, from whom a reply filtered back by the same devious ways to the effect that screwdrivers were only supplied in tool Ellensburg. singly. Nothing daunted, the officer at once applied for a box of tools and after the usual circumlocutory tactics was informed that boxes of tools were only supplied to carpenters' shops. By this time the officer, who had quite forgotten what he had wanted the screwdriver for. had thoroughly entered into the spirit of the campaign, and his next application was for a carpenter's shop. Ha got it.-London Tit-Bits.

MacMahon and Grevy. In Paris in the revolution of 1830 a law student was soundly kicked by one of the king's officers for tearing down a copy of the ordinances placarded on the wall. The officer was armed, the student was not; so the latter ran away. Nearly a half century later, in 1879, the officer called upon the student to bid him goodby, having just resigned the presidency of the French Potatoes, per ton......$13.00 republic on account of a radical differ Apples, per box ..................50c @ $1.25 ence with the majority of the national assembly on questions of state policy. He combined with his adieus also a graceful word of congratulation on the student's election to succeed him in the presidential chair. The student was Jules Grevy; the officer was Patrice de MacMahon, who died ripe in years and honors.

Where They Eat Tobacco.

Perhaps there is nothing more peculiar about the Eskimos of Point Barrow than their methods of using tobacco, which, of course, they procure from the whites. They know good from bad tobacco. When they get hold of a few plugs, they show a marked appreciation of it. The habit of chewing the weed seems to be universal. Men, women and even unweaned children keep a quid, often of enormous size, constantly in the mouth. The juice is not spit out, but swallowed with the saliva without producing any symptoms of Self Control.

"There's one thing I will say," remarked Mrs. Cumrox, "and that is that my daughter Arabella has a fine disposition."

"Indeed?" "Yes, sir. The way she can sit for hours listening to herself play on the plano shows remarkable self control."-Exchange.

Mixed Metaphor.

"Brethren," said an earnest exhorter to a body of religious workers, "brethren, remember that there is nothing which will kindle the fires of religion in the human heart like water from the fountains of life."

ETIQUETTE OF WIGS.

Bald Men, With Care, May Complete

the Illusion They Seek.

The baldheaded man who is not re-her wealth, says the Chicago Tribune.

For an artistic wig for a man is usually made thin or nearly bald on the leaving a modest suggestion of baldness. This is the first principle of the wigs, for he may then make the transition from baldness to a semblance of his former self cover a space of two or three years and thus complete the deception, which is the aim of all wearers

A cardinal point in the etiquette of wig wearing is that one should not wear his wig in bed. It is not proper.

Some, either from motives of extreme vanity or from an unwillingness to shock the delicate sensibilities of their families, sleep in their wigs. This practice is condemned unhesitatingly. It is unclean. One should substitute for the wig worn during the day a simple nightcap of muslin, to insure one

In the morning, as the last touch of perfection to the toilet, the wig should be delicately adjusted and then glued to one's head. If this adjustment is carefully made and if one is wearing a really fine wig he may defy both

This careful adjustment of the wig is a most important point. It requires eternal vigilance, since a single careless adjustment means ruin. Along the edge of the wig of ordinary size are five spots about half the size of a penny where the paste or glue is applied with which the wig is made fast to the head. The paste must be carefully applied, since if it comes in contact with the hair it destroys its life-

A practice generally observed by the wearers of fine wigs is that of dressing the hair in a variety of ways. This is desirable, since it suggests a natural head of hair, yet this practice is perfectly possible with a really fine wig, every hair of which is separately at-

Dog Cemetery of Paris.

Paris has a dog cemetery on an island in the Seine. A plain grave without a headstone may be had for $1, and the body is removed on a little wagon for a similar sum. The graves are leased, not sold. The charge for five years' lease is $5, for ten $10, for twenty $15 and for thirty $20. Very stringent rules forbid the use of ceremonies or decorations such as are used at funerals. No cross may be erected over an animal or bird, for all pets may be interred here. The inscriptions are of a curious and exaggerated sentimentality. Tola Dorian, the author, says on her pets' tombstone that if she "can-
