Dear Friends:

One of our executives has brought to our attention a title of yours, STRANGERS ON THE LAND, by Click Relander. May we please see a review copy of this book if one is available.

We are always searching for new books in this area of interest to add to our reading list of hand-picked titles which is prepared each year for recommended reading for our constituents in the brotherhood, world friendship, race relations, biography, world peace, fiction, social concerns, personal spiritual development, as well as reading in connection with the current missions study themes. The committee reviewing books for this reading list especially asked to see the requested title.

Thank you so much for this courtesy. We look forward to receiving a copy of STRANGERS ON THE LAND.

Cordially,
