MYRON H. ELLIS.

[P. C. Yakima Lodge No. 53.]

Myron H. Ellis, than whom there is no more popular member of North Yakima Lodge No. 53, was born in Hardin county, Iowa, on Oct. 22, 1863, residing on the family homestead until he entered the world for himself. He came west and settled in North Yakima in February, 1888. He was a charter member of No. 53, and was chosen as its first Master of Finance. In this position he served two terms, giving the best of satisfaction, and was then advanced successively to V. C. and C. C. In 1892 he was selected as one of the representatives to the Grand Lodge, and it is due largely to his efforts that the Grand Lodge this year meets in this city. Mr. Ellis is an enthusiastic Pythian, being also a member of North Yakima Division, in which body he served as Sir Knight Herald. He is also a member of the F. & A. M. and of the I. O. O. F.

In every day life, Mr. Ellis is the genial auditor of Yakima county, in which position the suffrages of his fellow citizens have maintained him at two elections, and where his business ability has been amply shown by the manner in which the affairs of the office have been conducted, and the neatness of the records.

FRIDAY ..... MAY 19, 1893

A. K. Hiscock left yesterday for his home in Tacoma.

Hyman Harris is spending the week in Tacoma on business.

The Grand Lodge will probably adjourn to day at noon.

J. A. McCormack, of Spokane, is in the city on land office business.

G. A. Fellows, of Cheney, is the very efficient document clerk of the Grand Lodge.

E. B. Kelly and wife, assisted by the Yakima dramatic club, render "Divorce" at Mason's tonight.

L. W. Lanning, editor of the Oakesdale Sun, is a Yakima visitor this week, being here to attend the encampment.

Jay Sedgwick, of Tacoma, the tax adjuster of the Northern Pacific, well and favorably known to our people, came in Wednesday night on a business trip.

Miss Emma Lee left on Tuesday for North Yakima and Prosser. From the latter place she will start next week for the National park, says the Roslyn News.

The evening services in all the churches will be changed from 7:30 to 8:00 p. m. beginning with next Sunday evening. Also the midweek prayer-meeting will be held at 8:00 p. m.

"Over the Hills to the Poor House" at Mason's last night was not so well attended as it might have been had there not been a dance on at Switzer's opera house. The play was well rendered.

Mr. E. E. James yesterday secured a negative of the entire Grand Lodge many members of the various divisions, the staff officers and visitors; the picture contains nearly 250 subjects. It was an excellent piece of work.

J. S. McCallum, of Olympia will preach in the Christian church next Sunday, morning and evening, also each evening during the coming week. He is an able speaker. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

By mistake, Col. W. J. Milroy was yesterday designated as a member of Gov. McGraw's staff. We should have stated that he was formerly on the staff of Ex-Gov. Moore. He is also First Lieutenant of Co. A, First regiment, N. G. W.

And they do say that Capt. Hamilton, of the Tacoma division, which won the first prize in the competitive drill on Tuesday, is so happy that he can hardly control himself. But the boys all think that the captain deserves great credit for his division's effective work.

A social at the residence of Geo. Cary on Friday evening last netted a goodly sum for the Christian church. Mrs. Horsley sang one of her beautiful songs. Mrs. Diteman rendered a rhetorical selection, and Miss Mohr and Mr. Donovan presented a mandolin and guitar duet; all of which combined to make the evening very enjoyable.

An old soldier by the name of Damon, was quite seriously hurt Wednesday by a horse. The horse became frightened at the band and in rearing and plunging about, he knocked the man down. He is a poor man, or at least he so claims; stating that his sum total of worldly goods amounted to 15 cents. He will probably be admitted to the hospital.

The G. A. R. have perfected all arrangements for the observance of Memorial day. The commemoration sermon will be preached at Mason's opera house on Sunday, May 28, by Rev. Cheadie, assisted by the various ministers of the city. On May 30, beginning at 10 a. m., the cemetery graves will be decorated, and Memorial exercises will again obtain on that day at Mason's, at 2 p. m., R. B. Milroy making the address.

The officers of the Second Regiment, U. R., had a meeting at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Yakima Club parlors, and adopted by-laws and appointed a committee consisting of Col. Carr, Lieut. Col. Meeks and Maj. Hall, to correspond with the different captains regarding the holding of a regimental encampment. The time suggested was at some date in the coming fall, and the place designated was "Any centrally located section in eastern Washington." After passing a resolution of thanks for the use of the Club rooms, the meeting adjourned.

H. G. Mathies, of the Pythian Herald, brought over with him a ballot-box for the reception of votes for the most popular C. C., a contest inaugurated some time since by the Herald, the winner to receive a handsome C. C.'s jewel costing $50. Yesterday, the votes deposited up to that time were counted, with the following result: J. Jaegger, New Westminster, B. C., 17; E. E. Leason, Victoria, B. C., 16; J. H. Morrow, Tacoma, 27; — Nagle, Seattle, 36; J. C. Liggett, North Yakima, 8; J. Hosler, Dayton, 3; C. W. Young, Tacoma, 1; J. W. Scott, Seattle, 1.

J. W. Young, delegate from Falls City Lodge No. 40, of Spokane, is the inventor of a novel water wheel for purposes of irrigation. It would more properly be described as a water spiral, being formed in the shape of an augur, and is set inside of a tube with a flange at the end against the current of the stream, thus forcing the water into the covering of the spiral, which is hung between two floats. Mr. Young had had his model in the mill ditch near the Episcopal church, where it has attracted considerable attention. Those competent to judge say that it is a very powerful pump, and that it can be used very successfully.

Some three weeks since an individual had printed at this office some "prayers," purporting to be one which had anciently been sent by the pope to a king. This prayer was full of "charms," so the man stated to his customers, which would ward off evil spirits, dangers, etc. He sold some 300 copies in this vicinity—the large number disposed of being probably due to his assertions that Father Folchi, of St. Joseph's, had recommended the sale for the sake of charity, the money to go to the poor of this city. The man was a fraud as well as a pronounced liar, it seems. The Catholics, and Father Folchi especially, denounced the man's avocation; yet took him into the hospital when he became ill, not only once, but again. In return he robbed them by going to merchants and securing goods in the name of St. Elizabeth's hospital, and also by borrowing money. A great injustice has been worked against the sisters of the hospital and St. Joseph's as well. Should the man return to this city he may meet a warm reception.

TACOMA "IN IT."

Sunset Division No. 20 Wins First Money.

Wednesday night the decision of the judges in the competitive drill was rendered, awarding first prize of $400 to the Tacoma division, the second of $200 to Seattle No. 1, and the third of $100 to the division made up of members of the Second regiment.

There was some dissatisfaction, of course, on account of the closeness of the contest, the percentage being as follows out of a possible 10:

Sunset No. 20—8.45.

Seattle No. 1—8.29.

Second Regiment—6.07.

Tacoma secured points over Seattle in the matter of time, finishing three minutes ahead of them.

In the matter of foot movements, however, the superiority of Seattle was apparent.

There never was a happier set of fellows than the members of Sunset division yesterday. Their handsome banner was placed at the head of Yakima avenue yesterday, surmounted with a new broom—the inference, of course, being that "a new broom sweeps clean." Captain Hamilton's division being the youngest in the brigade.

Following is a list of the movements required, in addition to which each division presented extras of its own:

INSPECTION.

1, march on parade ground and salute the judges; 2, dismiss the division; 3, form the division; 4, open order; 5, condition of swords; 6, uniforms, condition and regulation; 7, equipments; 8, military bearing; 9, general appearance; 10, close order; 11, return swords.

SWORD MANUELS.

1, present; 2, support; 3, order; 4, carry; 5, reverse; 6, recover; 7, right shoulder—cross swords; 8, inspection; 9, guard; 10, sword arm rest; 11, with sword thrust; 12, parade rest; 13, kneel; 14, rest on sword; 15, grand honors; 16, supreme honors; 17, sergeant's salute; 18, return sword; 19, right hand salute; 20, left hand salute; 21, draw sword.

FOOT MOVEMENTS.

1, oblique, in open order, with swords at right shoulder, cross sword and halt; 2, close order and break from fours to files, and from files to fours; 3, form line to the left, and break into column of fours to the front; 4, march in column of fours to the rear; 5, form line, left in front; 6, march in columns of fours, left in front; 7, left front into line, double time; 8, break into column of platoons to the right, without halting; 9, reform division to the left and execute division wheel, without halting; 10, march in line, pass obstacles, reform line, move to front without halting; 11, marching to the front in line, execute fours in circle, wheel, reform line and continue the march; 12, marching in line, advance in echelon by fours from the right; 13, reform the line on rear four and halt; 14, marching in column of fours, execute left in front and move forward and execute right in front; 15, marching in column of fours, form square and reduce square; 16, countermarch by right and left on center; 17, form St. Andrew's Cross and reduce; 18, form single triangle and reduce without halting; 19, form double triangle and reduce same without halting; 20, break section from center and march in retreat and reform section to the front; 21, return sword; 22, double time movements from line; 23, fours right; 24, fours left about; 25, fours left; 26, change direction; 27, wheel by division; 28, break into column of fours to the front; 29, left front into line; 30, halt; present division to the judges; march off parade ground.

The Brigade Meeting.

The meeting of the officers of Washington brigade Wednesday was well attended, the object being, as was stated in yesterday's paper, to adopt a constitution and by-laws for the brigade officers, something they have not had before.

Considerable discussion arose over the number which should constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting of the officials. The first number proposed was 10, but this was objected to by some members from the Second regiment on the ground that Seattle having so many of the staff would vastly preponderate in the enactment of laws for the government of the brigade.

A resolution was introduced fixing a quorum at 20, but this was not satisfactory for various reasons, and the matter was finally compromised on 15.

For the carrying on of the affairs of the brigade, a per capita tax of 50 cents per member was levied.

Reports of officers showed the Uniform Rank to be in a very flourishing condition.

The remuneration of the Assistant Adjutant General was fixed at $200 per year.

The bond of the Quartermaster General was fixed at $1000.

The question of tents was discussed at length, and it was resolved that the state should not be called upon for tents hereafter, but that the brigade secure tents of its own as soon as may be.

The Grand Lodge.

The principal business transacted by the Grand Lodge at yesterday morning's session, and a subject in which our people are interested to some extent, was the final disposal of the Pythian Home matter. For some days past it has been rumored that the Home would not be located at this meeting on account of a resolution passed by the Seattle and Tacoma committees, but that the matter should be disposed of in the way it was, is somewhat of a surprise.

The matter was thoroughly discussed in all its bearings, and the Grand Lodge, by unanimous vote, decided to indefinitely postpone the matter of a Pythian Home for this state, and to return the amount now in that fund, amounting—according to the report of the Grand Master of Exchequer—to $6,937.63, to the general fund.

In this connection, the general feeling among the representatives seems to be that it is better for the order that the Grand Lodge meet at various points in the state thereby giving an opportunity for the members to become generally acquainted. The idea seems now to be that Washington Pythians unite with those of other states in establishing one Home for all the states west of the Mississippi river.

Two important changes are made by the new constitution, as follows: The per capita tax was reduced to $1 annually instead of $1.50 as heretofore. Suspended members of lodges which after-ward surrender their charters may secure Grand Lodge cards by presenting a certified statement from proper officers of the nearest lodge in the jurisdiction of the facts in the case and paying the necessary amount.

Proclamation.

CITY HALL, May 18, 1893.

The near approach of Memorial Day reminds us the legal holiday is at hand and all good citizens should lay aside their usual avocations and as one people celebrate our common union. I therefore as Mayor of North Yakima, do hereby call upon all the inhabitants of this city on May 30th, 1893, to desist from their accustomed employment and devote the day to its proper ceremonies. Witness my hand as mayor of North Yakima.

A. B. WEED, Mayor.

Attest: GEO. W. RODMAN, City Clerk

Owing to the late hour at which the Grand Lodge adjourned last night we were unable to secure the proceedings. They appear in THE WEEKLY REPUBLIC, which is issued this afternoon.

NORTH YAKIMA LODGE, NO. 53.

A Brief Sketch of Its Inception and Steady Growth.

That there is a lodge of the devotees to the triangle in this city is due to the efforts of B. F. Young, now of Sumner, but who was the first Past Chancellor of No. 53. Early in 1890, Mr. Young, who was already a member of the order, circulated the necessary petition, and very readily secured forty-five signatures thereto. As soon thereafter as was possible the lodge was instituted, the work being done by Past Chancellors Brown and Frazer, of Ellensburg, ably assisted by the brothers of that city and Roslyn and those of the forty-five (five, we believe) who were already Knights.

The set of officers who first presided over the destinies of No. 53 was as follows: Past Chancellor, B. F. Young; Chancellor Commander, F. M. Spain; Vice Chancellor, S. C. Henton; Master-at-Arms, C. H. Haines; Keeper of Records and Seal, F. J. McCann; Prelate, F. D. Eshelman; Master of Finance, M. H. Ellis; Master of Exchequer, F. B. Lippincott; Inside Guard, W. T. Kirkman; Outside Guard, G. A. Gano.

The lodge has had times of depression of course, as all new lodges inevitably do, but it has come safely through the breakers, and now enjoys a prosperity second to that of no lodge in the grand jurisdiction of Washington. Its funds are in good shape, thanks to the efforts of the efficient M. E. Bro. John D. Cornett, while the membership roll does not fall far short of 100.

Since its institution, the lodge has been called on to mourn the death of but one brother, G. O. Nevin, who died on the second day of April last, in the 41st year of his age.

North Yakima Division, No. 9, U. R.

This division was formed about six months after the institution of the subordinate lodge, and had, we believe, precisely the same number of charter members. Its first officers were: B. F. Young, Sir Knight Captain; M. H. Ellis, Sir Knight Lieutenant; S. C. Henton, Sir Knight Guard; F. J. McCann, Sir Knight Recorder; F. B. Lippincott, Sir Knight Treasurer. Its growth in membership has not been rapid as that of the subordinate lodge, but has reached and passed 50. The interest is increasing all the time, and the rank will eventually become one of the strongest in the state. S. C. Henton is the present Sir Knight Captain, and is a most efficient officer.
