NEW SCHOOL HOUSES.

Contracts Let Saturday Night for New School Buildings.

The school board of district No. 7 met at the High School building at 10 a. m. last Saturday to consider bids for the construction of the two proposed school houses. Bids for building the four room school house on Nob Hill, to be known as the Summit View school, were first opened. The following bids were offered:

A. F. Switzer $9448.
W. W. Felton $8949.
Collins Bros. & Burnell $9250
C. H. Bruenn $8700.
Robert Scott $8684.

The bid of Robt. Scott was rejected as no certified check was enclosed with his bid as required by the advertised notice. The contract was then awarded to C. H. Bruenn, providing that the successful bidder file with the board an approved bond by 7:30 p. m., Aug. 24.

For the construction of the four room annex to the Columbia building the following bids were submitted:

A. F. Switzer $7348.
C. H. Bruenn $9300.
Thacker & Rich $7695.75.
Robt. Scott $7095.

A bid was also received from the Western Sanitary Construction Co. for the heating apparatus as follows: Direct $2100; indirect $2340.

Again in this case the bid of Robert Scott was found to be the lowest, but as no certified check was enclosed his bid was again thrown out. A motion made by Director Nichols that all the bids be thrown out and bids again advertised for on the ground that the bids were out of proportion with the cost of the Summit View building. The motion was lost. The contract was then let to A. F. Switzer with the same conditions as to his bond as was made in the case of the Summit View building.

The bond furnished by C. C. Bruenn to guarantee the faithful performance of the contract to build the Summit View school, was rejected and the contract awarded to the next lowest bidder, W. W. Felton.

The board have made arrangements for five portable buildings for temporary quarters, one of which will be located at Leaminburg, providing the residents of that suburb furnish a site.

Back from Klondyke.

Fred Junget, who left Yakima just six years ago in company with Pete Norby for the Klondyke, and Emil Schanno, who left for the northern gold fields about a year later, returned the latter part of last week. The boys say they have had a rather varied and sometimes rough experience during their long stay in the far north. Both are frank in saying that they failed to make their pile in that country, although they confess to having worked hard enough to have given them at least a competence. After devotedly working the fickle goddess for six and five years, respectively, and without obtaining any big amount of pay for their labor, they concluded to turn their faces homeward. It is needless to say that they are glad to be back in Yakima again and that their relatives and friends are very glad to welcome them after their long absence.

Pete Norby, mentioned above, came out last fall and located at Pt. Townsend where he secured a good position.

The Trans-Mississippi Congress.

A. E. Larson, W. L. Wright, Councilman Wyman and B. F. Barge, all of whom attended the Trans-Mississippi Congress at Seattle last week, were highly impressed with the meeting and the personnel of the membership of the body. About 600 delegates were present and the meetings were held in the big pavilion in Leschi park on Lake Washington.

This county was well represented, not only in the matter of delegates but in a most splendid collection of farm products. The exhibit from this end of the county was prepared expressly by Orlando Beck and W. L. Wright, while that of Sunnyside was gathered and displayed by W. N. Granger of the Washington Irrigation Co. Yakima county, the delegates say, received a great many compliments and a good deal of valuable advertising as the result of the exhibit.

Cleaning Up.

The city street force is cleaning out the alleys, under the supervision of the city health officer and the street committee. They are finding some very tough holes to clean but this makes no difference to the health officer—he is bound to put things in shape and if private parties will not clean out the disease breeders on their premises the city will and charge it up to them. Clean up is the slogan this week.

The price of hay is still advancing, prices ranging from $8 to $9 for alfalfa, $9 to $10 for clover and grain hay and $13 for timothy.

ICE PLANT ASSURED.

Site Purchased and Yakima Will Have an Ice Plant Within Ninety Days.

Mr. J. L. Hughes of Atwood, Ill., who as was announced in our last issue, was looking this city over with a view of establishing an ice plant and cold storage warehouse, informed the writer Wednesday that he had found every thing satisfactory, had purchased a site and would commence work at once on the plant.

He has purchased two lots on the west side, next to the track, 90x100. The building will cover one lot and will be used for manufacturing ice and a cold storage warehouse. The machinery used for making the ice is the can system, which is claimed to be the best in use. The water used will be distilled twice and filtered twice before using, thus insuring its absolute purity. The capacity of the ice making department will be 30 tons per day.

The cold storage warehouse will consist of several rooms, with the temperature regulated at different stages to keep the various articles stored, for example: Fruit room 32 to 38 degrees, eggs 31, butter 20, while meats and fish must be frozen.

The plant complete will cost $20,000 and will employ from 10 to 15 men, day and night. Mr. Hughes expects to be ready for business in 90 days and will use Yakima labor and material where it is possible. The institution is backed by J. A. Hawks and Fred Helton of Atwood, Ill.

Mr. Hughes will be at the Hotel Yakima until Sept. 2nd when he will start for Atwood to bring his family west. After his return work will be rushed until the building is completed.

The Chaperons.

Among the important announcements in local theatricals for the season, it is doubtful if any will attract more attention than Isidore Whitmark's comedy opera success "The Chaperons." Apart from the fact this pretentious production has enjoyed two seasons uninterrupted success in the large cities of the country, it has to its credit a protracted run in New York in keen rivalry with many similar presentments, outliving most of them and being quite generally accepted by the metropolitan critics as an offering possessing more diversified features than any of the modern entertainments of its class. A large delegation of dashing New York show girls is a feature. The chaperons will be presented at Larson's theater Saturday night, Sept. 5.

Option Secured on Coal Lands.

S. G. Wightman of New York City this week secured an option until September 10 on 23 coal claims in the Cowlitz coal fields. Particulars about the deal are very meager, but is understood that the deal will be closed within two weeks and the amount of money necessary for the transaction will be close to $500,000. Ed. Parker, L. D. S. Patton, George Weikel and Geo. Riley, with several expert coal men went up to the mines this week to look the proposition over.

The Reservation Mix-Up.

Indian Agent Lynch seems to be coming out all right in the recent investigation being made into the management of the reservation affairs. While it is possible that he has made mistakes, so far it does not appear that he has done anything radically wrong. The trouble seems to have been caused by personal enemies through malice, rather than by government officials, who desire to see things conducted right.

President Cannon Out.

Tuesday morning the resignation of Miles Cannon as a member of the school board was accepted. County Supt. Dickey tendered the position to O. A. Fechter who will probably accept it. Mr. Cannon gave as his reason that he did not have the time necessary to devote to the duties of a director. The appointment of Mr. Fechter is a good one as that gentleman will make a conscientious, painstaking official.

The Hop Market.

Pineus, the hop buyer, purchased this week 300 bales of hops of J. T. Lynch, 70 bales of Geo. Ker and 68 bales of Chas. Kinney. Mr. Hart purchased 85 bales of F. Padgett, the price paid being 22 cents. There are still left in this valley about 1500 bales, the owners of which are holding for a better price.

The hop crop in this locality will be an average yield, with good prospects for fair prices. Several yards started picking this week.

Lloyd Smith and Claude DeVoir were quite seriously burned Sunday while playing with a keg of powder and a fire at J. G. Smith's place in Fruitvale. They were throwing powder from the keg to the fire, when in some manner a spark fell into the keg, causing an explosion. That they boys are alive to day is a little short of a miracle.

THE YAKIMA DEMOCRAT,

JOHN DAVID MEDILL,

Editor and Publisher.

Entered at the North Yakima Postoffice as Second-Class Matter.

One Dollar Per Year—In Advance.

Published every Saturday morning at the Democrat Printing House on First Street, North Yakima, Washington.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

THE Spokane-Review, Tacoma Ledger and other daily papers of the state recently printed a story to the effect that Congressman Jones contemplates changing his residence from this city to Spokane. It was alleged in the papers that Mr. Jones found it expedient to change his residence for political reasons.

It is understood that the congressman flatly denies that he intends doing anything of the kind and purposes retaining his residence in this city indefinitely. He would have everything to lose and nothing to gain by moving to Spokane, say his intimate friends here and everybody in the state would know that the move would be made for political purposes. In fact, it would be on a par with John L. Wilson's recent move from Spokane to Seattle in pursuit of an illusive thioa.

However, after all is said it is quite probable that Congressman Jones would better himself politically by removal to Spokane. It must be remembered that that city, the second in the [state, is now practically without representation in either branch of congress. By common consent Eastern Washington is allowed one senator and one representative. Ankeny of Walla Walla has that senatorship nailed down securely for the next six years. A representative then, elected every two years, is the only thing left to fight for and naturally enough Spokane wants that. If Mr. Jones was to move there and pledge his unswerving loyalty to special interests of Spokane it is likely that he could command the vote of Spokane county which is a very considerable factor in a state convention, being about three times as great as the vote of this county which Mr. Jones could probably count upon in any event.

The report that the congressman contemplated such a move originated in Spokane and it is very likely that it was sent out for a purpose. It may be construed as a slight hint to Mr. Jones to either move to Spokane or prepare to fight for his seat. Spokane wants a congressman and is not particular as to how she gets one. If she can't make a deal with Mr. Jones she will fight him. Unless he has the support of the senatorial machine and the powerful aid of the railroad lobby it is difficult to see how Mr. Jones can successfully defend his seat next year against the machinations of the Spokane politicians.

JOSEPH W. FOLK, the vigorous public prosecutor of St. Louis, has won for himself national fame as well as the thanks of right minded citizens of all parties for the splendid record he has made in the prosecution of a miscellaneous lot of public thieves, both municipal and state in Missouri. With Folk it is immaterial what a man's politics, the length of his pocket book, or his social connections may be. If he has reason to believe him guilty he will prosecute him just the same. Neither does he seem to know friend from foe. Certain men of his own party who were largely instrumental in electing him to office under the belief that he would prove a pliant tool in their hands are now on their legal road to the penitentiary through his efforts.

The splendid example of official righteousness given the country by Prosecutor Folk in this age of corruptions is so refreshing that it has led to a great deal of newspaper talk about his being a candidate for the governorship of Missouri and even for the presidency. Mr. Bryan, in a recent speech, delivered in Missouri, took occasion to publicly eulogize Folk for his public services and added that he is in every way eligible for the democratic nomination to the presidency. As for Mr. Folk himself he appears to be a modest sort of man who simply believes in doing his plain duty without any desire to play to the galleries. He says that he is simply doing what he promised to do before his election to office, that is, to prosecute thieves and hoodlars without distinction. The rascals of his own party did not take him seriously then, assuming that he was giving the voters the usual campaign jolly, but some of them know better now.

In another column we quote a few extracts from a speech he delivered to a large audience in Montgomery county Missouri, which will give our readers some idea of the manner of man that he is.

The Carnival has come and gone. Everybody, old and young, seemingly enjoyed it yet we were glad to see it pass on. The modern carnival traveling about from town to town is an outgrowth of the midway plianance which made a conspicuous part of the World's Fair in 1893.

DEMOCRATIC papers are scathingly demanding the renomination of Gov. McBride. They love him for the enemies he has made in his own party—Yakima Republic.

Ed to Brute! But it should be remembered that the editor of the Republic now has a seat in the senatorial band wagon.

THERE is nowhere in all the land a more loyal, fearless and sincere defender of democratic principles than the Yakima Democrat. It has been to us ever a delight, no less than a profit, to read its forcible, candid editorials.—Sunner Herald.

Thanks, brother, thanks. But please don't repeat it. You make us feel so giddy.

Washington Letter.

(From our special correspondent.)

Reports from Providence and Oyster Bay depict a situation far from gratifying to the republican leaders. The members of the senate committee on finance are determined to adhere to their original plan, a measure whereby the secretary of the treasury will be authorized to accept certain securities other than government bonds from the banks as collateral for government deposits. This legislation is earnestly desired by J. P. Morgan & Co., who are anxious to secure what would virtually amount to the government imprimatur on certain of the bonds in which it is their business to deal. The western members of congress, including Speaker-to-be Cannon, cannot be converted to this form of legislation. The president has become so disgusted with the tenacity with which Senator Aldrich and his colleagues adhere to this type of legislation, regardless of the views of the western members, that he threatens to throw the entire matter overboard and issue a call for a special session to convene November 9, without mentioning the subject of financial legislation.

In view of the fact that the republicans have long boasted of their ability to harmonize all interests, the situation is most distressing to the republican leaders. Moreover, prominent democrats, like Senator Daniels of Virginia, are taking occasion to elaborate the fallacies of the Aldrich policy which is all for the bankers and the Wall street interests and not at all for the people, whose money is being accumulated in the treasury by unnecessarily high taxes to an extent that threatens to cripple business. It is easy of demonstration that the proper course to be pursued is not the invention of some means whereby this money, unjustly collected, may be transferred to the banks so that they may lend it to the people at high rates of interest, but a reduction of the taxes so that there may be no further accumulation in the treasury, there already being a surplus large enough for all possible emergencies. To accomplish this, of course, would necessitate a reduction of the tariff schedules and that is what the Aldrich crowd dreads above all else.

Post master General Payne had hardly ceased his "hot air" talk about the postoffice scandals when the report that there were grave scandals in the government printing office became public and it was backed with sufficient evidence to lead the president to request Secretary Cortelyou to institute a careful investigation, which is now in progress. Within the last week, moreover, the Indian Rights Association of Philadelphia has made public a report of one of its special agents in which are shown to exist the most glaring frauds in the Indian Territory and which give promise of showing that the Dawes Commission is rotten from top to bottom. Nothing can be learned at the Interior Department except that the agent referred to is persona non grata, that the Indian Rights Association is "a nuisance" and that it is presumed an investigation will have to be made. As a matter of fact, Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock instituted an investigation last May and even went to the scene himself but on his arrival there he discovered conditions which led him to report that there was "nothing which called for an investigation," except some minor defects which he had remedied. Fortunately, President Roosevelt was not altogether satisfied with Mr. Hitchcock's report and he sent a personal representative, Mr. Francis E. Luepp, to the scene and his report would doubtless make interesting reading although it is unlikely that it will ever reach the public. It is evident that the peculations and corruption practiced by government officials in Indian Territory have been on a scale which will make the little postoffice thievery, which aggregates but a few hundred thousand dollars, look insignificant. The whole attitude of the interior department and Secretary Hitchcock, however, is that as only the rights of the Indians are involved it is nobody's business but his own and the president's.

A Marvelous Metal.

Marvelous results are expected from experiments now being made with radium, the new metallic substance which is so rare and precious that it was rated at first at $1 000,000 per pound, but has since been $900,000. It is said that there only two pounds of radium now in existence and only one grain of it, worth $60, so far has come into the possession of America, the particular owner being a New York electrical engineer. The metal is the discovery of Madam Sklodows Curie, a Polish woman who is associated with her husband in scientific work in Paris. Radium is a white crystalline powder, a combination of several metals, with an illuminating power that casts the famous Rontgen rays literally in the shade. Its rays, it is said, can pierce three feet of iron, take photographs in closed trunks and burn through metallic cases. So far as is now known, radium retains its full strength perpetually. Its rays travel almost as fast as sunlight. Prof. Curie, husband of the discoverer, says he would not dare trust himself in a room with a kilo of pure radium, as it would destroy his eyes, burn the skin of his body and perhaps cause instant death. From carrying a small metallic case, containing a small bit of the metal, under his arm, he sustained a burn which was fifty days in healing.—Leslie's Weekly.

Mythical Creatures of Japan.

The Japanese believe in more mythical creatures than any other people on the globe, civilized or savage. Among them are mythical animals without any remarkable peculiarities of conformation, but gifted with supernatural attributes, such as a tiger which is said to live to be a thousand years old and to turn as white as a polar bear. They also believe in a multitude of animals distinguished mainly by their monstrous size or by the multiplication of their members.

Among these are serpents 800 feet long and large enough to swallow an elephant, foxes with eight legs, monkeys with four ears, fishes with ten heads attached to one body, the flesh of which is a cure for boils. They also believe in the existence of a crane which, after it has reached the age of 600 years, has no need of any sustenance except water.

Costly Drugs.

Unless you are a druggist you have no idea of the value represented by a little shelf in the prescription department of a big drugstore. It is one of the wonders of the world that drugstores do not furnish the same temptation as banks to knights of the chisel. A pound jar of lysocaine is worth just $2,240 the world over. Jaboline is a little less presumptuous as to price; it costs $1,500 a pound and is used to cause perspiration. Ergotine crystals cost the druggist the trifling sum of $5,600 a pound. They are made from the ergot of rye. Nareganine goes ergotine crystals one better and costs $6,800 a pound. It is used as an expectorant in bronchial troubles and as an emetic.

Moos Superstitions.

Almost any old time farmer will tell you a worm fence built in the light of the moon and ascending node will worm around and finally fall down. If you want potatoes during similar phases, they will all go to tops and the tubers will be small and watery. This is the time, however, to plant cucumbers, especially when the sign is in the arms. The carpenter of former times would not think of putting a shaved shingle roof on a building in the dark of the moon, because the shingles would curl up, pull out the nails and soon leak like a sieve. Neither would he cut timbers for a house nor would he paint it until the sign was right.

Judge Fined Himself.

An English judge, Gwilym Williams, was a great stickler for form in his court, and especially that robes should be worn by solicitors. He was so insistent upon this that one day recently, when he ascended the bench without being duly robed, all in the courtroom knew that he must have been unusually engaged to cause him to neglect the matter. When the judge noticed the lack of his robes, he stopped the court proceedings, made a speech to the solicitors on the absence of his gown and wig and fined himself 10 shillings, which sum he immediately paid into the poor box.—Glasgow Times.

Greatest Battles of History.

Burke in his letter on "Natural Society" says that Syria destroyed 300,000 men in each of three battles, one being at Cheronea. The Persians are said to have lost 230,000 men at Plataea. II Chronicles xlii, 17, records 500,000 slain on one side, which, however, may not have been in a single battle. I Kings xx, 26, tells of 100,000 men being killed on one side in a single day.

Filial Repartee.

Richard Brinsley Sheridan, who was always distressed for money, was one day hacking his face with a dull razor when he turned to his eldest son and said:

"Tom, if you open any more oysters with my razor I'll cut you off with a shilling."

"Very well, father," said Tom, "but where will you get the shilling?"

A Full House.

Lady Guest—Your father is such a hospitable gentleman! He dearly loves a full house, doesn't he?
Jack—Well, yes—if it happens to be on his side of the table.—Kansas City Journal.

Throughout every part of my career I have felt pinched and hampered by my own ignorance.—Sir Walter Scott.

What Folk Says.

A few extracts from a speech made by the St. Louis Prosecutor to an audience of Missouri farmers:

Through ignorance of existing conditions the people may innocently go wrong, but toleration of known abuses is criminal.

These conditions are the outgrowth of the commercialism of our times.

Political commercialism has taken the places in many men's minds of patriotism.

There must be a revival of civic righteousness in state and municipal affairs.

Public office is held too often merely as a means of earning a livelihood much easier than in private life.

Doesn't it seem strange that a free people should elect thieves to be the makers of their laws.

The honor of the state has been peddled around by the seekers of the bribes in return for official influence.

These revelations should bring the blush of shame to honest citizens for having permitted such a state of affairs to exist.

There are many problems confronting the American people today, but there is none more serious than the subject of the eradication of bribery.

Bribery undermines the foundation of government.

Bribery, if allowed to go, would be fatal to the civic life of any people.

Exposure and punishment of public plunderers is a state's honor, not its shame. The disgrace is intolerable, in endurance, not in correction.

It is of course humiliating to know that so much corruption has gone on so long without hindrance, but it is more patriotic to apply the knife of the law to the cancerous growth, than by tolerance to allow it to eat into and destroy civic life.

The eyes of the world are on Missouri to see what the people of Missouri are going to do about it. After all these exposures there can be no honorable conciliation. Every citizen must either march under the flag of decency or the banner of iniquity.

Elect to your General Assembly only men of known integrity. Men not passively honest, but aggressively honest. Many men can be honest actively, but we need in legislative affairs men who can be honest in action.

FREEZING CAVERNS.

Subterranean Caves That Are Lined With Crystalline Ice.

There are deep cavities and tunneled recesses in the earth far away from sunlight and held in the tight embrace of rocky strata where secret hoards of glittering ice find habitation all the year round. Yet down in these queer places the ice is as pure and crystalline as any that nature maintains in the open air; moreover, it occurs on a truly grand and massive scale.

Imagine thick underground ice walls and floors and craftily fissured columns beautiful in shape and color streaming from roof to floor of lofty rock chambers! And under the slow drip, drip, drip of percolating water this same ice learns to fashion itself into cave adornments—frozen water drops, curling slopes, stalactites and stalagmites of fantastic shape and rainbow hues.

Subterranean cold waves, or "glaciers," as they are frequently called, crop up in some 300 scattered localities in Europe, Asia and America, but all, with rare exceptions, whether true ice caverns or grottoes and deep hollows, are confined to the north temperate regions of these continents—that is, to places where there is a sufficiently low temperature at some portion of the year to reach freezing point and render snowfall possible.—Pearson's Magazine.

Getting Into a Life Buoy.

The average person in danger of drowning usually attempts to lift a life buoy over his head, with the result that he is immediately plunged deeper into the water. A good swimmer can do this with a sudden upward jerk, but with the nonswimmer it is almost an impossible feat.

What he should do when he has seized the buoy is to place both hands, palms downward, on the buoy on the part nearest the body, pressing it downward and slightly away, when the farther part of the buoy will rise out of the water and actually fall over the head. The arms can then be put through easily, "and there you are."

In the Superior Court of the State of Washington for the County of Yakima.

W. H. LOOK, Plaintiff.

vs. ALOR LOOK, Defendant.

The State of Washington to said Alor Look, You are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: Within sixty days after the 1st day of August 1903, and defend the above entitled action in the above entitled court, and answer the complaint of the plaintiff, and serve a copy of your answer upon the undersigned attorneys for plaintiff, at their office below stated; and in case of your failure to do so, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint, which has been filed with the clerk of said court. The object of the above entitled action is to obtain a decree of said court, dissolving and holding for naught the marriage contract and bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant and freeing both said parties from the obligations thereof.

The confetti was flying in all directions Saturday evening, the last night of the carnival. Local merchants who were heavily stocked with the stuff did not care to carry it over and closed it out cheap. Executor's Notice.
In the superior court of the state of Washington for Yakima county.
In the matter of the estate of / Hanna S. Pratt, deceased.
Order setting time for hearing petition for distribution.
A. J. Pratt, executor of the estate of Hanna S. Pratt, deceased, having this day filed his petition for distribution of said estate among the parties entitled thereto, it is ordered that Monday, the 28th day of September, A. D. 1903, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. at the court room of this court in North Yakima, Yakima county, Washington, be and the same is hereby appointed as the time for the hearing of said petition for distribution, and that the clerk of said court and the executor of said estate give no ice thereof by causing notices to be posted in at least three public places in Yakima county, Washington, and by causing notices to be published for four consecutive weeks in the Yakima Democrat, a newspaper published at North Yakima, said county and state.
Dated August 25, 1903
FRANK N. RUDKIN,
Judge.

NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the above entitled order by said court, that the petition of A. J. Pratt, executor of the estate of Hanna S. Pratt, deceased, has been filed in the above entitled court praying for the final distribution of the estate of said deceased, and that Monday, the 28th day of September, A. D. 1903, at 10:00 a. m., at the Court Room of said Court in North Yakima, Yakima County, Washington, has been appointed by the above Court as the time and place for the hearing of said petition for distribution, at which time any person interested in said estate may appear and file objections or exceptions in writing to said petition and may contest the same.
In Witness Whereof each of the undersigned do hereby set their hands and seals this 28th day of August, A. D. 1903.
J. W. DAY,
Clerk of the County of Yakima, and ex-officio Clerk of the Superior Court in and for the County of Yakima.

The superior court will convene Sept. 1st.
There are a great many dead eels in the Yakima river.
Vessey & McRae shipped 13 car loads of sheep to Chicago last week.
A daughter was born August 21 to Mr. and Mrs. J. Koresky of Fruitvale.
Last evening the band concerts were resumed, to the satisfaction of all.
From present indications there will be considerable building here this fall.
It is reported that after all expenses were paid the band only realized $125.
Another business block will be erected this fall on the lot adjoining the Wilson building.
The big drive of logs for the Cascade Lumber Co. was completed the first of the week.
While camping near Hanging Rock on the Natches Jas. Walters caught a young eagle.
Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Ditter are rejoicing over a baby boy that arrived at their home last Friday.
Stanley Coffin and Chas. Wenner, are taking a ten days bear hunt in the mountains on the west side.
The rains of Saturday and Tuesday were rather out of place and not needed. They were surely "unusual."

Wm. E. Gibson and Miss Olive Cox were married Saturday evening by Rev. Vail at the Christian parsonage.
There is some talk among the young business and professional men of organizing a cooperative boarding house.
The last of this seasons wool, the clip of Alex McAllister, 108,000 pounds, was consigned to eastern buyers this week.
Capt. Thomas has opened a real estate office at Yakima City and anticipates a lively demand for property at Old Town this fall.
The lumber used in the construction of Capt Thomas house, at Old Town was hauled from The Dalles, and is said to have cost $10,000.
A Mr. Going, recently from Oregon, purchased the Old Town grist mill last week. The deal was made through H. B. Scudder & Co.

A great many hunter's licenses are being taken out, and it behaves every man or boy that goes out shooting to get a licence as it is very apt him to save time and costs.
Chas Gleason states that he is not entirely out of the marble business. He sold the business, as noted last week, to Messrs. Bullock & Burrill, but retained the most of the present stock in the yard on Chestnut street.
In the International yacht race the Shamrock III so far has had only a distant glance at the cup. In the two races finished and in the two unfinished the Reliance has been in the lead far enough to demonstrate her superiority over the challenger.
The Washington State Press association has been in session this week at Seattle, convening Monday. Tuesday the members present accepted an invitation to visit Victoria. Geo. N. Tulesley of the Herald and wife and J. D. Medill have been in attendance from this city.
Nelson Rich has leased his peninsular ranch to O. S. Brown and another young man whose name we cannot learn, for a term of five years. The latter has also bought Mr. Rich's interest in 700 head of cattle and will live on the ranch. Mr. Brown will live on his own place at Prosser.—Pasco Express.

Postmaster Lemon has offered J. T. Hedges of the Natches' a position in the Yakima post office, which will be accepted if Mr. Hedges can get a transfer from the Indianapolis postoffice. Mr. Hedges has had 15 years experience in post office work and will make a valuable addition to this office.
Senator A. J. Sp'awn sent a bunch of 15 head of Hereford and Polled Angus cattle to the Whatcom fair Thursday. From there they go to Everett and Salem, Oregon, returning in time for the State Fair. As Mr. Sp'awn is quite busy with fair business, Mrs. Sp'awn will have charge of the stock on the trip.
Horse stealing is getting to be quite a common occurrence. Thursday a pony belonging to a son of Attorney Forsythe and a horse belonging to Albert Hawkins were stolen, and last week three horses belonging to M. Walker, janitor in one of the schools, were stolen, two of which were since found in Kittitas county.

W. L. Wright, who was appointed a state fair commissioner recently by Gov. McBride to fill the unexpired term of W. H. Vessey, who resigned, seems to give general satisfaction. Mr. Wright will have charge of the agricultural and horticultural department and will devote the most of his time to that important work until after the fair.
Last Saturday evening while taking in the carnival, Mrs. E. J. Barnes lost a lady's gold watch, which was picked up by Robt. Kershaw of the Wenas, who placed it in the hands of the editor of this paper to find the owner, which he did Monday. It was very fortunate for Mrs. Barnes that the watch fell into the hands of an honest man on an occasion of that kind.

Warren Erwin, who for the past year has filled the dual position of local and society editor of the Herald, will on Sept. 1st sever his relations with that paper having accepted a position with the D. S. Johnston Co. He will have charge of the company's business in Kittitas county with headquarters at Ellensburg.
C. E. Spencer of Boone, Ia., left for his home Monday. Mr. Spencer has been traveling in the northwest since June 1st seeking a suitable place for an investment and says that Yakima county suits him better than any locality he has visited. He purchased two business lots in Sunnyside and expects to erect brick buildings on them this fall.
