FILATELISTISCHE DIENST DER NEDERLANDSE POSTERIJEN

The postage stamps available from the Philatelic Section of the Netherlands Postal Service are supplied at their face value, increased by the postage for dispatch. Orders are carried out after receipt of the amount due.

Payment of stamps ordered can be made as follows:

- ☐ By means of an international money order.
- ☐ By means of a cheque.
- ☐ Through a bank (The Philatelic Section has a bank account with the Nederlandsche Handel Maatschappij, Den Haag).
- ☐ By means of banknotes (no coins please) sent by registered letter.

Our British customers can moreover pay through Messrs B. W. Blydenstein & Co, Bankers, 54, 55 and 56 Threadneedle Street, London, E.C. 2. If remittance is made through Messrs Blydenstein & Co, please state that the amount paid is destined for the Philatelic Section of the Netherlands Postal Service, The Hague. Orders for stamps should be addressed to this Section.

Kindly direct all additional information concerning the remittance to the Philatelic Section of the Netherlands Postal Service.

If you open an account current with our Philatelic Section we will send you automatically any newly issued stamps you want to have, without you having to order them separately. This will save you expense and trouble. We shall be pleased to send you on application a standing-order card on which you can state your special wishes.
