Wash Dear Sir

An Indian by the name Lishiaah Came yesterday from The Reservation and on the premises of Polly Seal -aguchan, Indian, widow of the deceased husband, ordered her to leave the place under the menacing of a fire pointed rifle. He is not wanted here. There are legal steps taken by which the widow is in possession of the place to save trouble I inform you, as he is a wild Indian a thieving to the wild trick ways when to his game

Of course you understand the Law that an Indian Homestead is held in trust by the government for twenty years after making final proof and Patent issued that the widow survives all rights held by the man of the real estate and of the personal property and especially of her individual property in this case there were about 30 horses she alone owned one John Emmit took in his possession & sold & the man was disposed of probably a little advice from you to the Indian would be the most speedy way of settling them I was appointed administrator as the woman was afraid to live on the
