Gentlemen:

Last August I sent you an order for Pacific Northwest
Letters of George Gibbs, paper $1.10.

I was on vacation for a time and did not notice until checking over my correspondence and postal note receipts, that the order has not been filled.

The postal note was drawn for $1.20, August 11. It was No. 12-74-974,546.

I would appreciate it if you would check your records and see if for some reason or other this has not been sent. I felt it was fair to make ~~an~~ a postal transportation allowance, hence added the 10 cents.

Sincerely
