

MARYHILL MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

MARYHILL, WASHINGTON

WAYSIDE REST by JAN BOTH (c. 1618-1652)

Collection of: Mr. and Mrs. Francis Seufert, The Dalles, Oregon

Permanent addition to the Gallery of Old Masters, Maryhill Museum

This painting came from the estate of the late Henry B. Cabot, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts ("The Lowells talk only to Cabots; the Cabots talk only to God") and had been in the possession of the Cabot family for two generations. It has been borrowed by and exhibited in a number of the country's leading museums during the past fifty years or more, and was but recently shown in a large exhibition at the Fogg Museum, of Harvard University.

Jan Both (his brother, Andries, was also a painter) Dutch; born about 1618 at Utrecht; died there 1652. Andries born about 1608; died at Venice before 1649. Pupils of Abraham Bloemart at Utrecht; influenced by Claude Lorain. Jan was a landscape painter; his brother, Andries, often added the figures.

The painting was bought by the Seuferts in Feb. of this year especially for ~~###~~ exhibition at the Maryhill Museum where they have previously placed a number of other fine paintings from their collection.
