Dear Mr. Relander:

Thank you kindly for the "Nostrums and Quackery"
we will put it in our general cancer collection.

I am returning your sheet with prices that these books and prints would fetch retail. However, these prices are full retail prices and do not constitute exceptional prices.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

We are prepared to carry out bids for any of our patrons who buy at auction. Our representative attends every auction held in New York City and adjacent areas, inspects the contents of each sale, notes and reports any discrepancies between books and catalogue descriptions, and conscientiously strives to secure items as much below stipulated prices as possible. All items bought are carefully packaged and shipped by us.

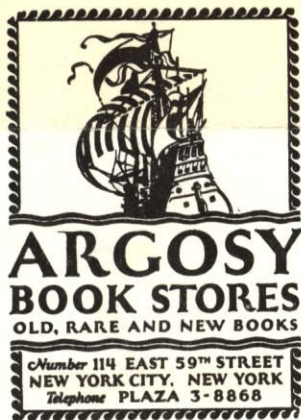

For this service the total charge is 10%.

For those who have occasion to buy at auction this service should be useful and we invite our patrons to try it.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir;

The bibliography of Lithographs of Currier & Ives by W.A. Weaver in 1925 lists your copy of Bound Down the River as 1870, worth then in 1925 $15.00.
You can readily assume that it is worth twice that now.

With best wishes for the coming season.

Very truly yours

Dear Mr. Relander:

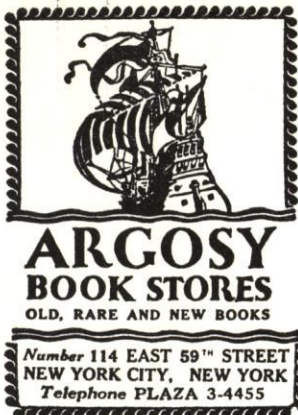

Thank you for your interesting letter and clippings which we are returning for your files.

We do not stock new books and practically never list them as new books. However, I am making an exception in your case and will list, "Drummers & Dreamers". We will order copies as needed.

Dear Sir;

In response to your inquiry we advise that we have some unbound General Orders, Adjutant General's Office from 1853-5, 1865 which we would be happy to send to you to select the ones of interest to you. You may wish to consult a library to see their copy of "Adjutant General's Department- Subject Index of the General Orders of the War Department from Jan 1 1861 to Dec. 31 1880. There may also be one for years prior to 1861. This index may have information which may help you in determining which ones you are looking for.

With regard to Haven & Ghent- Broken Hand. This is a very good book and I believe it sells in the 10-15 dollar category.

Very truly yours
