Bacon Pamphlet Service Inc.,
Box 270,
Northport, N.Y.

Dear Sirs:

Card inquiry, regarding Order No. C 1115 received today at the Yakima Indian Agency.

My records show this order was sent out forepart of December, with bill enclosed, normal procedure. If this was lost, I can only presume it got caught in the Christmas mail rush. It has not been returned to the consigner.

The Yakima Tribal office has no facilities for mailing, correspondence etc. and turns orders over to me, with all billings made to tribal office in name of tribe.

Another copy is being sent in today's mail, together with bill covering both the order and Order C 1222, just received. I hope this is satisfactory. Sorry the other went astray. If this is not satisfactory, please return. Only a few of the orders have gone astray of the many sent and supply is now running low. The pamphlet will not be republished to my knowledge.

Bills are enclosed with the pamphlets. This is being sent airmail to advise you of immediate attention, and that the first order was sent when received, or a few days later.

Sincerely Click Relander
