LET'S GO PLACES!

—and SEE things! You're comfortable, well-cared-for, in your Yakima lodgings . . . stay a few days more . . . make Yakima your headquarters while you see the Pow-Wow, the orchards, hop fields, the Indian rock-paintings, our Pioneer Museum, the great fruit warehouses.

Take advantage of your extra days in Yakima to get your wardrobe in shape for the rest of your trip . . . you'll get quick, quality service at the City Peerless Laundry and Dry Cleaners . . . where the Sanitone Process "Cotton Clinic Care" will restore the original body and texture of all your cottons—you'll like that "Style-Set" finish!

Been struggling with one of those long hair styles ever since you left home? Well, don't be a hot-head . . . you can get a short-notice appointment for a comfortable, good-looking personalized short styling at the air-conditioned Bon Marche Beauty Salon. . . . where eight skilled operators are ready to take care of all your beauty needs.

Worried about your accumulation of exposed film? Just drive-in with it to Shepard's Drive-In Camera Shop where you can get fine, fast, film service—in at noon, out at five; in at five, out at noon! All kinds of supplies and accessories here, too.

Looking for unusual gifts that will please friends and family? They'll like a "sampler" pack from Reed's Custom Foods . . . peaches, pears, apricots, prunes, and cherries . . . picked in the Reed orchards at perfect ripeness . . . canned minutes later by skilled women workers under the personal supervision of Bob and Jean Reed.

Those Christmas toys back home are probably lost, strayed, frayed, or stolen by now—stock up on toys at The Hope Chest while you're here. . . . You'll find an outstanding collection of rubber, stuffed, and wooden toys for boys and girls, infants and toddlers . . . many of the beloved Rempel toys . . . and the new Rempel giraffe and ostrich!

You can make an international tour right in Mary Lou Boyd's distinctive gift shop. The Apple Tree, in the Chinook, but two of her most popular gifts are strictly native! Selected time and again for that special person back home are the ceramic apple pin and earring sets, and the petrified apple dolls—weathered, life-like Indian men and squaws.

Take Gasperetti's . . . and if you can tear your attention away from Mario Gasperetti's famous food long enough, note how the skirt-borders of the Gasperetti girls' colorful new costumes carry the design of the beautiful "Carnival of Venice" mural in the Capri Room . . . you'll find this room a favorite after-dinner lounging spot.

And Bennington's . . . always a favorite eating place with its attractive modern styling . . . and now completely remodeled and enlarged . . . A special salute to Bud and Mrs. Bennington who want you to be sure to see the new Bennington's this month . . . and enjoy the same top-quality broiled steaks, chops, and sea foods they've always served.

You'll think you're down on the farm when you taste one of Isabel's home-made fresh strawberry pies at Fred and Isabel's Regina Drive-In . . . and you'll be cool and comfortable eating at those tables on the lawn under the big old trees, or in your car.

Mother Nature does the decorating — a change of scene every day— at the Flying H Guest Ranch . . . where the big lodge windows frame a different picture of hills and stream, forest and meadow with every sunrise and sunset . . . wonderful food, comfortable guest accommodations.

You can eat three meals a day in beautiful, restful surroundings at Wardell's Percolator—and never get tired of the food! Travelers come back again and again for Wardell's delicious oven-prepared meats and vegetables, delectable sea foods and salads, and desserts with the tasty goodness of home-made delicacies.

How long since you've had a complete Chinese dinner? You can have it, prepared with traditional skill and careful attention to detail, seasoned to suit the epicure, at the Golden Wheel—and, if there's someone in your party who prefers American style food, he'll be happy there too.

You'll find four Moultrays at the Four Winds . . . and all four of them and their fine staff are ready to welcome you for an evening of fun and fine food in the gay New Orleans and Mardi Gras rooms, and in the Pirate's Cove! Donna and Ed Moultray manage the Four Winds for Christine and Bill Moultray, the owners. Meet them all.

And don't leave Yakima without taking part in the ritual of the Fire Feast at the Chinook . . . in your room, at your table in the Blossom Room . . . or with your "fire-water" in the Trail Room. Toast your own tempting tid-bits in the glowing flame of the Fire Feast . . . a unique hors-d'oeuvres serving piece you'll be describing for the folks back home.

Have you had a long, hot, hard day's drive? Want to get rid of those kinks, that nervous tension? . . . You can "drive" away that tired feeling at Morrissey's Golf Range and Sports Center . . . a wonderful place to spend these warm summer evenings.

If it's cool, inside comfort you want when you're seeking relief for tired, cramped muscles . . . head for the Skookum Bowl . . . new, beautiful, air-conditioned . . . operated with the latest in electronic equipment . . . an excellent snack-bar and fountain here, too. Open play on Skookum Bowl alleys all summer long.

Be seeing you! Come again soon!
