

Originally published by
The Selah Valley Optimist
on April 4, 1935

Home Talent Play to Offer Amusement

The ladies of the Selah Woman's club, who are putting on a home talent comedy, entitled "Six Kleptomaniacs", at the high school auditorium Friday evening of this week, give assurance that there will be no mirthless moments that evening for those who attend, and thus do their bit towards building up a fund for the public library.

The cast of characters will be as follows: Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Beulah Osborn; Inez (her girl friend,) Marguerite Austin; Claire, (her daughter,) Beatrice Rober; the maid, Sarah Hoffman; Six Kleptomaniacs: Claudia Snell, Lois Collins; Mrs. Thaddeus Lynch, Cora Ward; Carie, Lois Kern; Madam Joliet, Elizabeth Powell; Crocus Washington, Francis VanDriel; Bridgette deFlannigan, Beulah Smith. T. R. Smith will play the introductory numbers and Howard Smith will play and sing cowboy ballads between the acts.