

Feb. 11, 1963

Mr. Robert Hitchman,
611 13th Avenue East,
Seattle 2, Wash.

Dear Bob:

First, it may seem very strange, but the other day after breaking loose from the confinement of "giving birth" to something or other called Strangers on the Land, Betty told me of the sadness that descended upon your home during the holiday season.

It is one of the things in life, making life what it is, wonderful at times, sad at others, and always toward one conclusion. And I know the ties were not severed by the incident of death. But there should be some means of communication whereby news, though of this nature is relayed without distraction of those vitally concerned. So please forgive me, we did not know.

Second, enclosed is a copy of "Strangers." It is possible that an earlier copy was sent, as for a couple of days I was a bit mixed up. I do hope you like it. I also hope you will continue to give it what assistance you can in your "idle" moments. Anything of this nature needs all the help it can get to rise from the ground.

Will be expectant of your reactions. Thank for sending out the promotion sheets. Some "reserves" are enclosed, not for special use but when there is an occasion to do so, without trouble.

Thanks again and I'm hopeful "The Crow's Nest" which served a better purpose than you realized, continues in operation.

Sincerely

Click

1212 N. 32nd Ave., Yakima