Mr. Harry Arnold,
1915 N. 8th St.,
Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Dear Harry:

Sounds like you are having typical editorial troubles, mixed with the usual hope for better things to come. I wish you well and hope they materialize.

Sounds too like you are getting a chance to put some of your varied talents as to mechanical things needed (slide rules etc) into use.

Since they were no reports to the contrary, I am glad to deduce that Kay and D are OK (sounds like you could do something with that one, (Danny and Okay) But I won't try harder.

I didn't know the House of David had a convocation coming up here in April, but it's something to look forward to.

Is there ~~xx a Kiwanis~~ Kiwanis Club in Coeur d'Alene? If so, have you been too busy to transfer your membership? Which gives me an idea as to your "centennial."

When you hit town, be sure it's "on our time," and we have a chance to have some Kiwanians, two strong ones should be enough to seize upon you with big scissors, make like they are refusing your entrance into Yakima. We could capitalize two ways on that one. (Tourist and Chamber Promotion, your centennial etc.)

Hope you have a chance to comment on "strangers on the Land." When I find your deadline and get out from under, there might be something - could dig out. Seems like Archer, who went from Simcoe to the Boundary survey, then to Colville, got one call out into or toward your neck of the woods on a minor Indian uprising.

I've never seen the letters pertaining to that but have copies of them. Keep me "reminded."

Drop me two (2) clips if you find you can do something soon with "Strangers," or do the best you can at the time at hand.

It is moving off the ground good in Seattle, Portland etc.

The next best thing would be to let your local lib. have one of the promotion sheets, or, likewise if there's some bookstore there. That would be appreciated.

Ginny and I have been stuck close at home on "Strangers," and it utilizes much of the time, but when we travel, we'll have a lot of country to catch up on, including the country of the Pointed Hearts.

The best to you and yours.

Sincerely
