

Originally published by The Selah Valley Optimist on December 5, 1963

Library And Fire Hall Open House Saturday

An exhibit by Selah artists will be a special feature of the new library open house on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 7, Mrs. Gene Brownell, librarian has announced.

Mrs. Doris Campbell is in general charge of the exhibit and will have on display one of her own paintings.

Others exhibiting will be Miss Gertrude Fischer, Mrs. Joe Maguire, Mrs. Earl Davis, Mrs. Louis Tyrrell, Mrs. Harold Tayer, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. James Matson, Mrs. Damon Smith, Miss Marcia Johnson and Duane Reed. The latter two are students, Miss Johnson at Selah High School, and Reed at Yakima Valley College.

Refreshments will be served from 2 to 5 p.m. in the library. In charge of serving are members of the library board with Mrs. Margaret Burgner, honorary member, pouring. Others are Mrs. T. C. Knowles, chairman, Mrs. A. L. Anderson, Mrs. Robert Swanson, Mrs. Frank Darling, and Mrs. Ed Narboe.

Representatives from Jobs Daughters and Selah's Horizon Clubs will assist with the serving.

Of special interest to antique hobbyists will be the collection of J. D. Brownell, Sr., exhibited at the library. Included will be silver, china and glass of the Colonial era. Brownell will have only the smaller pieces of his collection on display.

Mrs. John Shaddon, assistant librarian, is helping with arrangements for the open house.

The public is invited.

At the same time Selah firemen will host a tour of the new fire hall. Invitations have been sent to all fire districts in Central Washington, Fire Chief Ron Haworth said.

The public also is invited to inspect Selah's new fire hall and its fire fighting facilities. Plastic fireman's hats will be given to the children. There will be door prizes.