

Originally published in the Yakima Herald-Republic on October 4, 1971

Yakima Valley Regional Library
Books
roll out to Local History 10/4/71
patrons

The bookmobiles of the Yakima Valley Regional Library are on the road in Yakima again, announces Miss Adele Suzuki, bookmobile librarian.

Some of the summer stops have been discontinued on the new fall schedule, but new ones have been added, she said.

One of the more successful stops is at the Chalet Mall every Friday from noon to 4:30 p.m. A new one which it is hoped will prove just as popular is at the Superama, West Lincoln and 16th Avenues, on alternate Mondays beginning Oct. 11 from 9 a.m. to noon.

Three new stops have been added because of the interest shown by residents of the areas. The first is at 2018 Fruitvale Blvd. at 1:55 p.m.; the second at Wiseacre Road at 3:30 p.m.; and a third at 1005 South 79th Ave. at 7 p.m. All three are on alternate Wednesdays beginning Wednesday.

Some stops which formerly were made just during the summer months have been added to the fall schedule. One is on Galloway Drive at 7 p.m. on alternate Thursdays beginning Thursday. Another is at the Broadway Grange, 3:50 p.m.; and at Gerritsen's Broadmead Market, Third and Mead Avenues at 4:30 p.m., both on alternate Fridays beginning Friday.

What bookmobile stop is closest to you? Call the bookmobile department at Yakima Valley Regional Library, GL 2-8541, or ask for a schedule from any bookmobile, from the main library, or at any branch library.

YVL.00089