Dear Click:

Thanks so much for the copy of "Strangers on the Land." Having grown up in the midst of the Clallams, and lived with the Kenaitze in Alaska, I always have held a deep affection and interest in the American Indian.

And having gone through the book I feel you are more than qualified to participate in the Conference. We are just now drawing up the schedule and at the next board meeting we'll know better where everyone will fit into the picture.

Here are two people I know would appreciate and promote your book:

Mrs. Marion Vincent, (one-half Clallam)
Route 2, Sequim, Wash.

Henry W. Clark, (Descendant of Chief Shakes
Vice President, (of the Thlingits)
Alaska Steamship Company,
Suite 703, 1026-17th NW,
Washington 6, D. C.

I'm looking forward to meeting you this summer. Perhaps, through the Conference, we can push your book sales. Have you contacted Earl Lyon, Book Buyer, Frederick & Nelson? Perhaps it would be a good idea to have some copies in stock there for the Book Fair and autograph party in conjunction with the Conference.

Sincerely,

Tom E. Clarke.
