CERTIFICATES OF MERIT

—FOR—

Loyal Soldiers of the S. S. Army

Are issued quarterly to Scholars, Teachers and Officers who receive not less than 30 Merit Credits during the current quarter.

One full credit is given for each Punctual Attendance, one for each Learned Lesson and one for each Money Offering of whatever amount. It is therefore possible to obtain three perfect credits each Sabbath, and 39 perfect credits during each Quarter. Only those who receive 30 full credits during the Quarter, which must be shown by the Teacher's record, are entitled to Certificates.

A half credit is given for each tardy attendance, or for an imperfect lesson, i. e., a lesson which has been studied, but not fully learned. Two half credits count the same as one full credit.

Annual Diplomas are issued by the State Sabbath School Association for those who obtain Certificates of Merit for four consecutive Quarters.

These Diplomas, beautifully lithographed in three colors (Size 7 x 11 inches), are supplied to Sabbath Schools at five cents each or fifty cents per dozen. Certificates of Merit, fifty cents per 100 in any quantity.
