Visalia, California

Dear Mr. Relander:

It was certainly a pleasure to have you come to the Museum and we shall be glad to see you again when you can make it. You seem to be having a pleasant vacation, and will be home by the time this price list reaches Visalia.

As for your desire to own some "nice printing, strictly California, like Grabhorn or Colt", one of the books you laid aside is a Grabhorn Press, Third series of rare Americana, no. 2: Life among the Indians; or, The captivity of the Oatman girls among the Apache & Mojave Indians. May 1935. You may have it for the original price of $5.00. These were all issued in limited editions, and your best chance of obtaining them would be through dealers such as Howell in San Francisco or Dawson's Book Shop, 627 South Grand Ave., Los Angeles 14. The Colt Press Series of California Classics began two years ago, and are not so expensive as you might think. No. 2 in the series is The Indians of California, by J. Ross Browne. 1944. $3.00. Yes, The diary of Johann August Sutter is no. 2 of the 1st series of Grabhorn Press reprints.

I understood that you would probably not want all the books you asked me to price, but for any you do want, here they are:

Catlin, George. North American Indians ... In 2 vols. Edinburgh, 1926.	$15.00
Carmichael, Sarah E. Poems. San Francisco, Towne and Bacon, 1866.	.50
Clark, Galen. Indians of the Yosemite Valley and vicinity. Yosemite Valley, Calif., 1904.	1.00
Drake, C. M. California names and their literal meanings ... Los Angeles, Calif., 1893.	.50
Erwin, Richard P. Indian rock writing in Idaho. Idaho Historical Society.	.25
Hammond, George P. Coronado's seven cities. Albuquerque, N. M., United States Coronado Exposition Commission, 1940.	.75
Henshaw, Henry W. Perforated stones from California. Washington, 1887. (Smithsonian institution. Bureau of American Ethnology)	.25
Historical records survey project. Inventory of the county archives of California. No. 10, Fresno County. 1940. No charge says Dr. Hodge (gift to us).
Moorehead, Warren K. Stone ornaments used by Indians in the United States and Canada. Andover, Mass., 1917. Out of print and scarce; Dr. Hodge says	20.00
Murillo Velarde, Pedro. Geographia histórica, Libro IX. De la America ... Madrid, 1752.	5.00
Roseberry, Viola M. Illustrated history of Indian baskets and plates made by California Indians ... on exhibition at the Panama-Pacific international exposition. 1915. Copy you may have is not bound.	.50

Mr. Click Relander

Dear Mr. Relander:

To honor Dr. F. W. Hodge in 1936, on the completion of his fifty years of service to Anthropology, a number of his colleagues united to establish the Frederick Webb Hodge Anniversary Publication Fund for the publication of worthy manuscripts of archeological or ethnological interest.

The first to appear was "The History of Hawikuh" by Dr. Hodge himself; then four other works were published under the original plan. In 1950 the survivors of the original Sponsoring Committee transferred to the Southwest Museum the entire management of the Fund, and one book has been published since.

However, the annual income from the Fund, about $300 from a present capital of some $8,300, is insufficient for publication; and the only other available fund of the Southwest Museum pays merely about $40.00 per year. Moreover, the costs have risen greatly, hence money must be obtained if this good work is to continue.

Would you be willing to subscribe to the Hodge Fund? The greatest honor we could give Dr. Hodge who is still active after 68 years of service would be to make the Fund bearing his name large enough to be really effective.

Each subscriber will receive future publications, each volume being charged against his contribution as long as it lasts. Such charges will be made at a discount of 10% from list prices. This arrangement will apply also to former subscribers with unexpended balances.

Two manuscripts are already in sight for publication; "Music of the Maidu Indians of Northern California" by Dr. Frances Densmore, which is finished; and "A Pinto Site Near Little Lake, California" by M. R. Harrington, now in preparation. Doubtless there will be many others.

Hoping to hear favorably from you, I am

Sincerely yours,

M. R. Harrington
